THIRD ANNIVERSARY Greetings TO OUR FRIENDS AND CUSTOMERS

—FROM—

C. A. GOODWIN AND HIS ORGANIZATION

WE PUT THE "SERVE" IN "SERVICE"

An organization without an OBJECT is sure to FAIL. BUT one born with a set purpose must surely SUCCEED.

On November 19th, 1919, C. A. Goodwin's Ford Agency was established with the one thought in mind—"To serve the public, to serve the Ford Owners—in the best possible way." In back of this thought was the ideal of ALWAYS giving to our patrons ONE DOLLAR for every one hundred cents they spent—to give honest and fair service to one and all.

Next in line came the task of building up a force—an organization of tried and true MEN—instilled with these fundamental principles upon which the business was founded. Then came the training, the study, the thought—the careful diagnosis of WHAT and WHERE and HOW these good people could best be SERVED.

During our three years of life we have tried, honestly and sincerely to SERVE YOU—now and then—like all human beings—we have failed—only to try,try again,and finally to SUCCEED in pleasing and serving you. We hope our efforts will warrant a continuation of your patronage,for which we, one and all, THANK YOU.

(Signed)

THE MEN OF THE ORGANIZATION.

Reading from left to right: Top row, D. C. Benton, William Wallace (now replaced by George Titter), Frank Briggs, Edwin Patrick, Oscar Hanson, George Cranor. Second row, C. E. Hudson, Fred Robinson, C. A. Goodwin, Phil Sewell, Geo. Wooley and Joe Boy.

"LIFE LINES TO YOU."

When you want the most serviceable—most economical—automobile, see us for a

FORD SEDAN.
FORD COUPE.
FORD TOURING.
FORD RUNABOUT.
FORD TON TRUCK.
FORD LIGHT DELIVERY.

You will never regret it—ask others.

When you want AMERICA'S BEST—get a Lincoln.

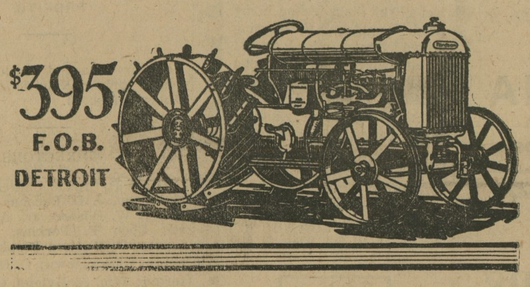

When you want the Farmer's best tractor, built upon lines of simplicity, durability, backed by an HONEST TO GOODNESS SERVICE—get the FORDSON TRACTOR.

We handle a complete line of FORDSON TRACTOR Implements, including polws, disc harrows, culti-packers, drills, belt-pulleys and all kinds of power equipment, such as saw frames, silo fillers, feed mills, etc.

Possibly one of the biggest assets which has come to our people is the use of the FRICK "A" Threshing Machine for which we have the exclusive agency in this county.

Our SERVICE DEPARTMENT consists of trained Ford-Fordson mechanics; complete equipment of machinery and tools; complete stock of GENUINE FORD-FORDSON PARTS and a line of useful accessories.

November 19th, 1919 — November 19th, 1922

Greetings and Appreciation.

On this, our THIRD ANNIVERSARY DAY, it is a very, very great pleasure for me to tell my friends and customers how deeply I do APPRECIATE all of the wonderful patronage you have favored us with. Possibly even greater than the business you have given us is the thought and patience you have shown us and the spirit of CONFIDENCE you have bestowed on us—a confidence we have tried to warrant—and in return we have tried to SERVE YOU.

I thank you, and hope that you will continue to look to us for that SERVICE which we have equipped ourselves to give you.

(Signed) C. A. GOODWIN.

By Sunday School Classes M. E. Church—no pictures.

Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 21-22—Roy Stewart in
LIFE'S GREATEST QUESTION
A story of the Northland.
A story unique in theme and powerful in moral. Should a wife tell of her past when the past is dead? This age old question came to Nan Cumberland. Should she tell, She didn't and stark tragedy hovered over her.
Valuable present given away to holder of lucky ticked Wednesday night.

Thursday, Nov. 23—Harold Lloyd in
"FROM HAND TO MOUTH"
Also Movie Chats, Sports Review and Fifth Chapter of "Hurricane Hutch."

Friday and Saturday, Nov. 24-25—Mae Murray in
"THE DELICIOUS LITTLE DEVIL"
Suppose you valued your reputation more than anything in the world, but in order to get a good job had to masquerade as a notorious cabaret dancer who had been involved in a sensational scandal in Paris. What would you do. This was the situation Mary McGuire found herself in and how she met the situation is worked out in an exceptionally interesting manner in "The Delicious Little Devil". Mae Murray plays the stellar role and does unusually fine work. She is supported by an excellant cast including the popular young actor, Rodolph Valentino. You will regret missing this picture. Also Pathe Review and comedy.

WEDDINGS

A wedding of much interest took place Saturday evening, Nov. 11, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bacchus, Chestertown, when their daughter, Miss Ethel Bacchus, became the bride of Mr. Karl Melamet, of Baltimore City, instructor in French at the Baltimore City College. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. Q. Bacchus, of Washington, uncle of the bride, the latter being given in marriage by her father and attended by Miss Margaretta Melamet, of Baltimore, and Miss Nancy Jean Usilton, of Chestertown. The bride wore a gown of silk brocade georgette with tram trimmed with orange blossoms in small clusters and bridal veil of tulle held by a bandeau of orange blossoms. She carried a corsage of orchids and swansonia. Her attendant, Miss Melamet, wore an evening gown of rose pan velvet with rhinestone trimming, Miss Usilton, who carried the train, being attired in pale pink chiffon with French blue ribbon. As the bride entered the ceremonial parlor, Miss Elsa Malamet rendered "Faithful and True," from Wagner's Lohengrin. The groom's attendant and best man was his brother, Mr. Otto Melamet, of New York. The house decorations were large ferns and chrysanthemums, the ferns being arranged in a semi-circle as a background for the ceremony. A reception was held for the wedding party and house guests after which the newly married couple left on their wedding trip. Mr. and Mrs. Melamet will be at home after December fifteenth, at 3934 Belview Ave., Baltimore.

—Local talent rendered a most unusual treat in music last Tuesday evening in Lyceum Theatre. The affair was given under the auspices of the Young Men's Club of Christ M. P. Church for the benefit of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Co. The gross receipts totalled about $200. Mr. A. C. Bacon directed the orchestra selections. The affair was a most enjoyable one.
