WASHINGTON COLLEGE

The third Old Men-New Men football game was played on Washington Field on the afternoon of Nov. 16. The first two games ended in tie scores. This last one was won by the Old Men and that gave them the championship of the Hill. There was no more hotly contested game on the Hill this year than this game. Every man on both sides fought like a veteran. And the spirit of rivalry was just as high on the side lines. The old students lined up on the wets side of the field and the Rats, including the co-eds, lined up on the east side of the field. Each line was cheering for its team. After the first half the old men held a snake dance. The Rats followed their example, and met the Old Men's line half way up the field, and started to break through. A tussle followed. For a while every one thought a fight was going to start. But everybody was too good-natured for that, despite all the rivalry. Once more each side formed itself into a chain and started a dance around the field. The same collision occurred. But as stated before, it was all in a spirit of friendly rivalry. When the second half of the game was started each group went back to its formed place and resumed the cheering. There was probably no single rooter who was as anxious to see the Old Men win as Eddie Keenan. Eddie was the Old Men's coach and the outcome of the game would have been laid at his feet. Not only that. Eddie was the only one of the Waterbury fraternity who sided with the Old Men. The rest of them, since the majority of them were Rats, sided with the New Men. So if the Old Men had lost, life would have been made miserable for Eddie by the kidding that the Waterbury crowd saved up for him. So for the sake of Eddie, at least, the Old Men had to win. And they did win. To show their appreciation for the work that he had done for them the Old Men gave him a "feed" that night of a "couple of yards of round steak" to "take the wrinkles out of his belly," as Eddie would say. Much credit is also due Tim Crowe, who coached the new men. Each man on the New Men's team showed the effects of his coaching and fought with all there was in him. The New Men kicked off and the Old Men carried the ball back about half way up the field. Then by a series of forward passes the Rats succeeded in making a touchdown. Bob White was responsible for this first touchdown. The ball was always passed to him and he would always catch it. Then Tyler kicked a goal. At the beginning of the second half Bankert was taken out of the line and placed in the backfield. Right then started the winning streak for the Old Men. Johnny Bankert intercepted the next forward pass and made the first touchdown for the Old Men. They failed to kick their goal, and the score stood 7-6 in favor of the New Men. The next touchdown was made by continued line plunging and holding the Rats for downs. Here was where counted the weight of F. Nichols and J. Bankert and the speed of Heck and Wingate. Bankert carried the ball over for another touchdown just as the whistle blew. Those who deserve commendation for their playing on the Old Men's side are Bankert, Byron, F. Nichols, Lee and Bounds. The stars for the New Men were White, Tyler, Dobson and Story. The line-up was as follows:

Old Men—Griffith, re; Bounds, rt; Levy, rg; Claggett, c; Lee, lg; Bankert, lt; Byron, le; P. Heck, qb; B. Nichols, hb; Wingate, hb; F. Nichols, fb.

New Men—Buchanan, re; Story, rt; VanSant rg; Dean, c; Schnauffer, lg; Stewart, lt; White, le; Dobson, qb; Tyler, hb; Simmons, hb; Miller, fb.

Substitutes—Bankert for B. Nichols; Sasse for Bankert; Pratt for Stewart; touchdowns, Bankert 2, White 1; goals, Tyler; referee, Coach Kibler; umpire, Straughn; head linesman, J. Carroll; linesman, W. Usilton and E. Russell.

The Athletic Association held a dance in the college gymnasium on the night of November 11. The attendance was unusually large. Every one was in high spirits over the victory over Gallaudet and displayed it on the dance floor. The college orchestra furnished esceptionally good music.

The first issue of this year's Collegian, the college monthly, came out on Nov. 9. It showed much improvement over last year's magazine. The size of it has been cut down to a regular magazine size. The cover is in gray. The material is interesting to both students and outsiders. Judging from the new policy that the editorial staff has adopted, we ought to have a highly attractive and interesting magazine this year.

Inactive Liver

"I have had trouble with an inactive liver," wrote Mrs. S. Nichols, of 4412 Spencer St., Houston, Texas. "When I would get constipated, I would feel a light, dizzy feeling in my head. To get up in the morning with a lightness in the head and a trembly feeling is often a sign that the stomach is out of order. For this I took Thedford's Black-Draught, and without a doubt can say I have never found its equal in any liver medicine. It not only cleans the liver, but leaves you in such a good condition. I have used it a long time, when food does not seem to set well, or the stomach is a little sour."

If it isn't Thedford's it isn't BLACK-DRAUGHT Liver Medicine.
