Galena, Kennedyville, Still Pond, Worton, Chestertown, and Fairlee, send your quota. All having previously taken it may attend. Great trouble has been taken to make this worth your while. Kent county grangers, do not fail us.

Worton Grange No. 314 will hold its Home Coming or Reunion Night Monday evening, Nov. 27. Everyone who is or was ever a member of Worton Grange is most cordially invited. We are preparing for you a most excellent lecture hour and an appetizing feast for the inner man. Let's have a full house.

MILLINGTON

Mrs. Mary A. Vansant died at her home on W. Cypress St. on Friday morning of last week, after a lingering illness, aged 70 years. The funeral was held at her late home on Monday at 1 p. m. Rev. O. H. Connelly, pastor of Asbury M. E. Church, officiated, and Mr. J. A. Tobin was the undertaker. Interment in Millington cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. John H. Wiest, Howard Stevens, F. C. Miller, W. T. Jones, Liston Pennington and Leonard Wilson. She is survived by three daughters, Miss Addie and Mrs. Ford Phillips, of Wilmington, and Miss Mary, at home, and one son, Mr. Price Vansant, and five grand-children, also one brother, Mr. W. H. Price, of Millington, and two sisters, Mrs. Howard West, of Dover, Del., and Mrs. S. R. Gayton, of Philadelphia. Mrs. Vansant had been a faithful member of Asbury M. E. Church for a number of years, but was unable on account of physical disability, to attend the services for a few years previous to her death. She was loved by all who knew her and will be greatly missed by the whole community.

Mr. George Roe, aged 62 years, died suddenly on Friday morning, Nov. 10, at the home of Ben Redmond in Queen Anne's county, near Millington. Mr. Roe was assisting Mr. Redmond in getting corn in from the field. They had only picked up a few baskets when he spoke of having pain in his chest and Mr. Redmond took him to the house in the wagon. He complained of the jolt of the wagon over the rough field and when they arrived at the house he was scarcely conscious. Mr. Redmond hurried off to call a doctor. Mr. Roe was dead when the doctor arrived. Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Asbury M. E. Church, Millington, conducted by Rev. O. H. Connelly, the pastor. Interment was made in Millington cemetery, J. A. Tobin, undertaker. The pall bearers were William Jones, Ben Redmond, Hiram Wooleyhand, Garrett Ruth, George Pierson and Fred C. Numbers. Mr. Roe is survived by two brothers, James Roe and Sanford Roe, both of Wilmington.

Mrs. William Jarman, of Crumpton, was the guest this week of her daughter, Mrs. Leonard Robinson.

Mr. William Cacy and son, of Dumont, visited his sister, Mrs. R. E. Feddeman, last week.

The following is contributed by Mr. Harold Stauffer:

THE LETTER "E"

Who said "E" was an unfortunate letter? Some one has expressed the opinion that the letter "E" is the most unfortunate letter in the English alphabet, because it is always out of cash, forever in debt, never out of danger and in hell all the time.

For some reason he overlooked the good fortune of the letter. So we call attention to the fact that "E" is never in war, always in peace and never in prison. It is the beginning of existence, the commencement of ease and the end of trouble.

Without it there would be no life, no heaven, no sleep and no eats.

It is the center of honesty, makes love perfect and without it there would be no being.

—Armistice Day, Saturday last, was most fittingly observed in Chestertown under the auspices of the Frank M. Jarman Post, No. 36, American Legion. Ex-service men of Kent county, the students of Washington College and the students of the Elementary and High Schools paraded from the legion headquarters to Washington College campus, where there was a flag raising. The principal address was delivered by Col. Ives W. Leonard, of the U. S. A., which will be found complete on page 3 of this issue. It was a fine address and we recommend it to our readers.
