I wonder what they think of, when gray ghosts get together,
The ones who fought to end all war,
and found the wooden cross?
Whose bodies hold the ground they won, unwindful of the weather,
Where rain and sun to them are one,
beyond the touch of loss?

I wonder what their vote would be when, just as dusk is falling,
Their ghostly dreams go back to lanes they knew of old?
Or out the path they hear again remembered voices calling
From those who come their way no more as time goes by untold?

Perhaps it doesn't matter now where,
safe beyond all sorrow,
They hold their brave and simple rest bereft of haunting care,
Out where their ghosts can only see a golden, far tomorrow,
That waits beyond the twilight road
where only dreamers fare.

Perhaps. But if they had the chance to see remembered faces,
To hear old voices calling them
through autumn's hazy suns,
Or walk unbroken through the years
amid old-fashioned places,
I wonder if their vote would be in favor of the guns?

BETTERTON

To arouse interest and enthusiasm the Epworth League of the M. E. Church have had speakers from out of town at their devotional services. Recently Mr. T. D. Bowers, of Chestertown, delivered a splendid address. At this service Mr. Woodland and Miss Ward, two of Chestertown's sweet singers, sang several duets. Last Sunday evening Mr. Horace B. Derrick gave a fine talk on "Thanksgiving" and tomorrow evening Mr. Stockton Startt, the enthusiastic and energetic leader of boys at St. James M. P. Church, will be the speaker.

The Ladies Aid Society held an elaborate bazaar of the seasons in the basement of the church Friday and Saturday nights.

A fine entertainment of Chestertown talent was given in the assembly hall of the high school building on Tuesday evening of last week, the proceeds being shared with the high school.

What might have been a most disastrous fire was prevented by the hard work of a bucket brigade recently when the leaves around the Chesapeake Hotel caught fire and the high winds were sweeping it rapidly toward the hotel.

Mr. Newton Ellis had the misfortune of having one finger severed and several badly cut when his hand was caught in a revolving saw.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthus Newsome was baptized in the M. E. Church Sunday afternoon of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brice and Mrs. Mickey attended the wedding of Mrs. Elizabeth Smyth and Mr. Thomas Whaley in Chestertown on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brice were recent visitors in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Mattie Tull is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Elzey, in Baltimore.

Mrs. William Wheeler and Miss Elizabeth Brice are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gooding in Wilmington.

Mrs. Walter Crew and Mrs. Harry Crew are spending the week in Wilmington where their husbands are employed.

Misses Frances Stauffer, Greta Stauffer, Margaret Crew and Jessie Willis are at home for the holidays.

Mrs. Littleton Crew and son are spending the holidays with her mother, Mrs. Dora Green, of Washington.

Mr. John Owens and Miss Virginia Owens are at home for the holidays.

—The public Service Commission refused last week to grant the Bush Company the right to operate busses over a line between Wilmington, Del., Elkton and Chestertown in competition with railway and steamboat companies. One of the authorities of the commission pointed out that if it was to allow the Bush Company to operate a bus line in this section it would throw the field open to competition with the Washington, Baltimore and Annapolis Company's lines.

MAILING AUTO TAGS

Distribution Began Dec. 1—Commissioner Baughman Declares New Method Will Avert Last-Minute Confusion

Beginning Nov. 27 the Automobile Commissioners Office began to mail out auto license tag applications, and immediately after replies are received the 1923 tags will be mailed out, thus avoiding the last-minute confusion of past years.

Commisstoner Baughman has asked that the owners fill out the information blanks, which deal with the type of anti-glare headlights, the chauffer or operator's card number and the other necessary information usually required.

As soon as the applications have been filled out they must be mailed back to the office, accompanied by a check or cash for the amount based on the proscribed fee. Then, it is planned to dispose of each day's request on the same day as received. This will do away, to some extent, with the last-minute rush which has heretofore prevoiled and, which works a hardship both on the owner and the office force.

After the blanks have been mailed out and the answers begin to come in, Commissioner Baughman intends to begin distribution, but he said that only the cards which have been filled out accurately will receive prompt attention, as the others will have to be gone over again. The stub marked "Registration Certificate" must not be detached, he said, and if care is not exercised to see that the required information is not properly filled in the entire application blank will be returned and delays will occur and confusion result.

As an aid to the smooth working of the plans which have been laid in the Auto Commissioners' Office, it has been requested that all owners of motor vehicles who have changed their address since last receiving registration should notify the office of the Commissioner in Baltimore at once. The tags this year will be on a yellow background with black numerals and lettering.
