Great Christmas Treat in Store for the Youngsters

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION TO EXTEND OVER FULL WEEK, BEGINNING SATURDAY, DEC. 16, TO FRIDAY, DEC. 22

The programme of Christmas Celebration by Chestertown people this year will be as follows:

SATURDAY, DEC. 16.—Old Kris arrives in town on the 11 o'clock train and is escorted to the park, where he distributes toys and oranges to each and every boy and girl there to receive one.

MONDAY, Dec. 18.—Two crates of guineas will be let loose in the park. You remember last year the fun this created. There will be a mad scramble, climbing of trees and then the catch. Come and join the chase or watch the fun. Catch a guinea for your Xmas dinner.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 20—Six squealing, greasy, wiggly pigs will be turned loose in the park. This promises to be even more fun than the chase for the guineas. Get on your old clothes and catch a pig for dinner.

FRIDAY, DEC. 22—Mr. L.Bates Russell has donated the Lyceum Theater to the Business Men's Association and will have a free matinee for the boys and girls. An extra fine programme will be given. Everyone come out and enjoy this picture.

All above events will be at 2 o'clock each afternoon.

With Our Advertisers

We call attention to advertisements in this issue of John H. Clendaniel, Jr., on page six.

Auditing Committee's report on page three.

Abe Cohen's on page six.

Noland's Christmas store on page seven.

Gill Brothers tell you on page eight of this paper the service they will give for Christmas. This hustling firm are always on the job and keep step with the most progressive business concerns of the county.

Old Kris Letters

We have received a number of letters from our little friends since our last issue addressed to Old Kris. Some of these letters are from Warwick, some from Middletown, Del., and the rest from Kent and Queen Anne's Co. We have sent all of these letters to Old Kris at his headquarters in Fairyland and he will read every one of them and will visit each little girl and boy Christmas eve night.

You Are Invited To Come To Chestertown

The Business Men's Association has arranged a fine program of entertainment for the people for next week. This program will be found in another column of this page. They have gone to much trouble and expense in their endeavor to give the public amusements and to please the children. Therefore, it is to be hoped the parents will come to Chestertown today and every day next week and bring the children to see and enjoy the fun.

Mr. Vickers Gets Good Appointment

Ex-States Attorney Harrison W. Vickers, of Chestertown, who has been Chairman of the State Conservation Commission for about two years, has been appointed Conservation Commission, which takes the place of the above named commission.

The governor has also announced the appointment of John N. Mackall, the present chairman and chief engineer of the State Roads Commission, to be the new Director of Public Works at the same salary, $7500 a year.

Harvey L. Cooper was reappointed State Insurance Commissioner.

It is understood George W. Page will be reappointed Bank Commissioner.

Emory L.Coblentz has been appointed Welfare Commissioner.

Lewis M. Milbourne has been appointed State Auditor by Governor Ritchie.

County-Wide Meeting Great Success

The meeting of the Woman's Clubs of Kent County, held at the Chestertown High School on Wednesday, was a great success, according to reports from Club Women. Eight clubs were represented. The morning was given over to a business session, which was followed by a demonstration in arts and Crafts by Miss Elizabeth V. Hodgson, Home Demonstration Agent of Cecil county. Immediately after the lunch hour, Mr. W. H. Rice, of the University of Maryland Extension Service, gave a demonstration lecture on "Culling the Farm Flock." The next speaker on the program was Miss Venia M. Kellar, State Home Demonstration Agent.

A most creditable exhibit of renovated clothes and household arts were exhibited by the women.

Mrs. William Medders, of Still Pond, president of the Council, presided at the meeting.

Worton Grange Notes

Grangers please take notice! Worton Grange will hold its regular business and social meeting on next Monday night, Dec. 18. Much business is to be transacted at this meeting,—the election of officers being one of the principle things; report of the State Grange meeting by our delegates, Bro. and Sister Harry T. Williams and Brother and Sister Ralph P. Williams, and other matters of equal importance. Our lecturer will also have her share of the good things for us in the way of a most interesting program. Then, too, the graces will be ready with a feats of good things for the inner man.

This being the last meeting of the year, a good attendance is earnestly requested.

The Epworth League service will be in charge of Bro. W. M. Hadaway Sunday evening. A delegation from St. James Christian Endeavor has been invited and a good time may be expected.

Mr. Harrison Finley Dead

A report has just reached us of the death of Mr. Harrison Finley, formerly of Church Hill, who died on the west coast last week. He was a former student of Washington College and assistant purser on the steamer Ford.

—On the seventh page of this paper will be found the prize-winning letter, answers to the questions compounded by the Third National Bank.
