Motor Truck Lines For Shore

Initial steps looking to the eventual honeycombing of the Eastern Shore of Maryland with motor truck lines to supplement the handling of freight was put into effect Thursday by the Pennsylvania Railroad. This was announced through A. E. Beck, traffic manager of the Merchants and Manufacturers Association.

The first installation of these trucks was made at Cambridge. They will operate from there to Salisbury, Easton, Denton and intermediate points. These trucks will meet the boats of the Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic line at Cambridge, and will carry freight to its destination. The trucks will return with freight consigned to Baltimore from these sections.

The Pennsylvania which owns the boat lines as well as the Maryland, Deleware and Virginia, and the Philadelphia, Washington and Baltimore Railroads have contracted with the Stone's Express Company, of Boston, to install and operate the truck service.

Harry Gladding, formerly of the Gladding Express Company, which until recently operated on the Eastern Shore, has been engaged to supervise the installation and the operation of the service.

In office at Chestertown every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday; other days by appointment.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE

January 11, the Senior basket ball team defeated the Preps by the score 13 to 6. That same day the Specials defeated the Juniors 18 to 9. With one more game to be played in the first round of the series, there is nothing that can be done to change the first place team. The Specials have held undisputed sway in the league so far, having won every game they played. This gives them 100 per cent. in the first part of the series, but the fight is not yet settled, as there shall be one or two more rounds in this series, and it is hard to predict as to which team will win the greatest number of games out of the fifteen.

The nightof January 15, was election night at the Adelphia Literary Society and the following officers were elected for the second scholastic term: J. Messick, President; A. Bischopf, Secretary, E. L. Kaiser, Corresponding Secretary; P. Timmons, Treasurer; E. Nuttle Chaplain; C. Wingate, Critic; E. Griffith, Seargeant at Arms. They will assume their duties of office after examinations, sometime in February. That will conclude a very successiful term for the Adelphia. The last thing of importance under this old administration is yet to come up. January 27, beginning at 7.30 P. M. comes the semi-annual Adelphia Frolic. The full program has not yet been announced, but from the hints that are being passed around, the Adelphians have good cause to expect a fine time that night.

The entire student body was addressed by the Rev. D. O. Smith during the chapel priod of January 12. Despite the fact that the Rev. Mr. Smith is an alumnus, he was a student again when he got up to speak to the undergraduates of his Alma Mater. His speech was simply overflowing with good humor, bubbling up here and there with excellent witticism and, in general, the kind of a speech that a young student appreciates. But spiced with that humor came hard, cold facts and sound, mature advice that found a ready lodging place in the heads and hearts of the whole student body. The time spent listening to Rev. Smith was composed of really enjoyable minutes.

When Saturday, Jan. 13, rolled around, the students started an exodus from the Hill to Baltimore. They went by every route that was possible to bring them to their destination By 2 o'clock at least 95 per cent of the students were on their way. What was the attraction, you may want to know. Why, wasn't that the day upon which the Collegians were to play Loyola College the first game of the state championship When the students reached Baltimore the first thing they did was to go up to the Emerson Hotel and greet their victorious team, whom they hadn't seen for over a week. Right glad were both parties at that meeting. When the crucial moment arrived later that night every student was there cheering his lungs out to their fullest capacity. And now we shall refer you to the sports section for the outcome of this holiday.

Having digested that column you may well undrstand the causes of the student's parade on the night of the 15th. To win six straight games in as many consecutive days is no small matter. To prove that the student body appreciated the magniture of such deeds they turned out in full force, and in their pajamas also, to have a holiday. After they had had enough of cheering and fun they hunted up the team and all contributed towards a supper at the restaurant for them.

When is a lie not a lie? This question was just recently solved in the following manner: Coach Tom Kibler received a 'phone call from the college, on Jan. 15, that his presence was required at a faculty meeting to be held at 10 a. m. Quite innocent and unsuspecting, Coach arrived on the second. Just then the bell for chapel rang. The faculty meeting had to be postponed until after chapel exercises. Coach was invited up on the platform with the rest of the faculty. He couldn't refuse. Soon Coach found out his deception. After the prayers were said, Dr. Gould produced a little gold foot ball and presented it to Coach in the name of the 1922-23 foot ball team. The team, which had raised the money amongst its members with which to buy the emblem, were also very careful to keep it secret until that moment. Coach was greatly pleased with the emblem and the appreciation shown by the team and made a speech to that effect. After having commented upon the football team he launched out in praise of the basketball team. One of the things that he warned the student body against was an excess of confidence. "Don't win a game before it is played," he said. When he concluded there followed a lengthy applause and loud cheering. Now can you justify such a lie as was telephoned to Coach? Those of you who know Coach Kibler know that he is a man who prefers to speak rather more in deeds than in words. It was known that if he had been notified to appear before the student body and receive a gold football from the team that he would have absolutely refused. Hence the ruse about the faculty meeting. Was it really a lie?

New Farm Forestry Film

Suggestions on the forestry for the sandy land former on the southern Coastal plain are embodied in Pines that Come Back, a one-real motion picture made for the Forest Service, with the cooperation of the Maryland State Board of Forestry and recently released by the United States Department of Agriculture.

This picture concerns the problem of a farmer with a sandy field on which there is a stand of young pine. He has decided to clear it, but State forester tells him that the land will pay him better in pine than as plowland—and proves it. A personally conducted trip through neighboring forests that are proving profitable on lands worthless for field crops serves to convince the farmer the forester is right.

Scouts Use Radio

It has not taken active Boy Scouts of the country long to take advantage of the modern radio craze and to harnes this great force and to make it work for them. The National Council Office of the Boy Scouts of America have been sending programs every week over some of the largest broadcasting stations in New York City. Chief Scout Executive James E. West cast the opening bomb in the Anniversary Roundup, which is the national movement to obtain half a million Scouts by February, and reports have come back of his actual voice being "picked up" in fifteen states. One report was from Chicago and one from Pasadena. Besides this, his mesage was relayed from fourty of the largest broadcasting stations.

The Right Way To Breathe

The fundamental of health also of beauty is proper breathing. Most people don't bring remote cells of lungs bring the remote cells of the lungs into use. Reducing the respiration to ten per minute for five consecutive minutes three times a day will insure good breathing. For instance, as you are walking instead of breathing as you ordinarily do, make ten complete respirations per minute (ten inhalations and ten exhalations).

In other words, you breathe in for three seconds and out for three seconds, making a complete respiration every six seconds, at which rate your respiration will be at the rate of ten per minute. To simplify, make fifty complete respirations last you five minutes. At the end of five minutes you will find that you will be breathing deeply and filling your lungs to capacity. This is simply an exercise, and three times a day will be found sufficient.—Delineator.

NO REST—NO PEACE

There's no peace and little rest for the one who suffers from a bad back, and distressing urinary disorders. Chestertown people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Be guided by their experience.

Mrs. Mary V. Elliott, 531 W. High St., Chestertown, says: "I had kidney trouble and was down with lumbago for weeks at a time. I suffered from morning until night with pains through my back. I could hardly turn in bed. My feet became so swollen and painful, I couldn't be on them long at a time. My kidneys acted too often and annoyed me. I used Doan's Kidney Pills from Toulson's Drug Store and they soon had me free from all the distressing symptoms of kidney trouble. I seldom have any sign of the trouble now."

"Well! Strong!"

Mrs. Anna Clover, of R. F. D. 5, Winfield, Kans., says: "I began to suffer some months ago with womanly troubles, and I was afraid I was going to get in bed. Each month I suffered with my head, back and sides—a weak, aching, nervous feeling. I began to try medicines as I knew I was getting worse. I did not seem to find the right remedy until someone told me of

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

I used two bottles before I could see any great change, but after that it was remarkable how much better I got. I am now well and strong. I can recommend Cardui, for it certainly benefited me."

If you have been experimenting on yourself with all kinds of different remedies, better get back to good, old, reliable Cardui, the medicine for women, about which you have always heard, which has helped many thousands of others, and which should help you, too. Ask your neighbor about it; she has probably used it.
