THE THIRD NATIONAL BANK

OF CHESTERTOWN MD.

The Only National Bank in Kent County

"THE BANK WHERE YOU FEEL AT HOME."

Many persons persist in regarding all banks as cold and impersonal. We try especially to dispel that feeling. We aim to reflect the genuinely friendly spirit of this institution through courteous servic

A good part of our new business comes to us because of the good words of our customers, who praise our efforts to give them the best service. They know that this is a dependable, friendly bank—and the word is passed along.

The primary thing expected of a bank is that little things as well as big shall be done well. Here at the Third National we watch details, we do our business carefully, accurately and promptly, because we have had over thirty-two years experience. The whole effort of the institution has been to become thoroughly identified with the financial, industrial, agricultural and individual prosperity of the community, and to be an ever-increasing factor therein. Call and see us.

We pay FOUR per cent. to all our Savings Depositors.

Respectfully,

THE THIRD NATIONAL BANK

OF CHESTERTOWN MD.

Asparagus Growers Meet

The Business Men's Association called a meeting of the asparagus growers of Kent County, through a committee appointed, with P. M. Brooks, chairman. Those present were W. I. Derrick, H. B. Derrick, Thos J. Smith, Wm. McKee, Edward W. Emory, Wm. T. Brown, Adam Schauber, J. B. Dunn, Norman Massey. These men met with Mr. E. M. Peck, of Philadelphia, on the possibility of establishing a truck route between Chestertown and Philadelphia to handle asparagus raised in this county. The following officers were elected to act temporarily: Chairman, E .W. Emory; Secretary, W. I. Walker.

Will Of W. G. Russell

In the will of the late Wm. G. Russell, which was probated in the Orphans Court on Tuesday, he leaves to Elizabeth Stevens, a niece, of Denton, $1000; to Inez Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Russell, $1000. The rest of his estate he leaves in trust for his brother, Mr. Lewin L. Russell, during his life, At the death of his brother, Mr. Lewin L. Russell, the trust ceases and the entire estate is left to Mr. L. B. Russell absolutely. Mr. L. B. Russell is named in the will as trustee.

—While returning from Grasonville recently, Capt. Joshua Thomas and family had quite a thrilling experience. Their automobile caught fire in Chestertown, but was extinguished without much damage. They sent for their son in Rock Hall to come here to tow their car home, and en route to that town the car skidded and overturned in a ditch near Sandy Bottom, but no one was injured.

—C. C. Jones, of Chestertown, Wm. A. Hyland, Jr., of Galena; Frank Huey, of Massey; Paul Comegys, of Millington; and Mr. Temple, of Church Hill, attended the meeting of the hardware retail dealers of the Eastern Shore at Denton Thursday.

BANQUET A BIG SUCCESS

Second Anniversary Banquet of the Business Men's Association of Chestertown Draws Big Crowd and Furnishes Pleasure for All Who Were Present

The Second Anniversary Banquet of the Business Men's Association, of Chestertown, was held Thursday night in the Gymnasium of Wash. College with 225 business men, professional men and farmers of the town and county present, including the following guests: Capt. C. M. Dillon, Wilmington, Del.; James T. Knotts, Sudlersville, Md.; Charles W. Anderson, Sudlersville, Md.; Charles B. Chance, Sudlersville, Md.; W. Harry Jones, Sudlersville, Md.; Edward O. Willis, Centreville, Md.; Walter F. Reed, Centreville, Md.; James C. Godwin, Easton, Md.; C. Norman Jefferson, Easton, Md.; Milford Nathan, Cambridge, Md.: Robert W. Matthews, Cambridge, Md.; F. B. Adkins, Salisbury, Md.; Franklin Roatch, Carlisle, Penna.; E. M. Peck, Philadelphia, Pa.

Mr. C. A. Goodwin, president of the association, made a strong plea for the support of the progressive work the organization is doing for the commercial and agricultural interests of the community and stated that it would be necessary to increase the membership list of the Association and to have the full co-operation of all forward looking citizens in order that the plans for community betterment may be pushed to a successful conclusion. The work, he said, could not be done by a small group, and must be entered into by the people generally.

Mr. P. M. Brooks, the retiring president, was presented with a traveling bag as a token of esteem and Mr. M. Wilbur Thomas, chairman of the banquet committee, with gold cuff links. Music was furnished by Whitey's Five and Mr. Roy Schmidt accompanied by Mrs. Lydia Barrett. One of the hits of the occasion was a humorous monologue by Mr. Crockett of Baltimore.

The programme was as follows: Word of welcome; introduction of the toastmaster, Dr. C. P. Gould, president Washington College; toastmaster, Mr. H. Stockton Startt; "Commercial Co-operation," Mr. Charles W. Summerfield, Assistant to General Secretary, Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce; "Wilmington—Its Markets," Mr. Geo. W. Booker, Chamber of Commerce of Wilmington, Del.; "Peninsula Possibilities," Mr. C. M. Freeman, Secretary Sailsbury-Wicomico Chamber of Commerce; "A Little Fun Now and Then," Mr. Charles B. Crockett, Baltimore, Md.; "Produce Markets of Baltimore," John M. Gressitt, Produce Dealer and Member of Baltimore Chamber of Commerce; "Our Association—Its Work,' C. A. Goodwin, Persident Business Men's Association, Chestertown, Md.; invocation, Rev. S. S. Hepburn; state song, Maryland, My Maryland.

The great enthusiasm shown by all present augurs well for even a larger meeting next year and, meanwhile, for a big increase in the membership role throughout the town and county. Get behind the Business Men's Association of Chestertown and make Kent County an up-to-date and progressive community.

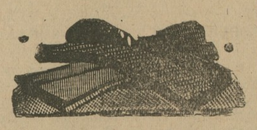

The excellent dinner was served in a most efficient way by the Epworth League of Chestertown M. E. Church and the menu was as follows: Fruit cocktail, turkey, ham, cranberry sauce, cole slaw, chicken salad, olives, pickles, celery, Maryland biscuit, ice cream, cakes, coffee, mints.

A Rumor Corrected

Persistent rumors have been in circulation in this section for some time that Messrs. A. S. Turner & Sons have been informing on violators of the automobile laws. The following letter speaks for itself:

Commissioner of Motor Vehicles,
Baltimore, Md.
Messrs. A. S. Turner & Sons,
Chestertown, Md.
My Dear Mr. Turner:

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your communication of March 16 in reference to the various statements that have been made in an attempt to place you in an embarrassing position before the residents of your county.

In my opinion it is the duty of every citizen of the state to report all infractions of the law. While I cannot recall any instance where you have made such reports to this Department, I do believe that the best interests of the county would be served if recklessness and other infractions were reported in order that some effort could be made to remedy such conditions.

The alleged statement that this Department had reimbursed you for furnishing information is absolutely absurd, and I am sure will be treated as such by all well-thinking citizens.

Very truly yours,
E. AUSTIN BAUGHMAN,
Commissioner.
