BY THE WESTERN WINDOW

From the Christian Advocate

I sit by my western window,
At the passing of the day,
As the evening shadows lengthen,
And the daylight fades away;
But the hills are draped in purple,
And the sky is steeped in gold.
For the sun his crowning glories
Keeps till the day is old.

I sit by my western window,
And think of the long ago,
When the eastern hills were lighted
In the morning's rosy glow;
Bright were the hours of the morning,
And brighter the hour of noon.
But better still is the gloaming,
And the best is coming soon.

I sit by my western window,
As the white-winged memories throng
Into the silent chancel,
To chant their evensong;
And the hills are all empurpled,
And the skies are steeped in gold,
For life her crowning mercies
Keeps till the day is old.

MEETING OF KENT COUNTY TEACHERS

On Friday, March 9, both the High School and Elementary sections of the Kent County Teachers Association met in separate sessions to consider problems of interest to their respective groups.

Mr. Roy Dimmitt, State Director of Vocational Education, addressed the high school group in the morning and presented a strong argument in favor of a course in Agriculture in at least one high school in each county of the State. He invited attention to the fact that, in the public educational scheme of the past, the basal industry of the county and state, Agriculture, has been almost entirely overlooked. He also outlined in brief the nature of the course of study in agriculture as recommended to the counties during the past few years and pointed out the small cost to the county of Agricultural Departments in the high schools due to the federal and state governments paying three-fourths of the salaries of the instructors each year. The facts presented by him were most convincing and the concensus of opinion of those who heard him was, "If the high schools of the county are to serve its interests as they should, a course of study in agriculture should be included in their curricula."

Mr. E. Clarke Fontaine, District Supervisor of High Schools, was present and participated in the discussions throughout the afternoon. Among other subjects the following was considered: "Should a high school pupil be permitted to take more than the four units of work required in any one year?" After thorough discussion, it was the unanimous belief that no set rules can be made by which one can always determine what pupils can or cannot successfully cover more than four units of work in one year; that the individual case of each student desiring to take more than the required number of units can best be determined by the teachers of the school in consultation with each other

A demonstration lesson in music was presented to the Elementry Teachers Association in the morning by Mr. Thomas L. Gibson, State Supervisor of Music. Mr. Gibson was asked to give this lesson for the sole purpose of presenting to the teachers the correct method to be applied in teaching the subject to the elementary grades. The writer feels that no one will question the importance of vocal music in the schools and it is hoped that the very limited way in which this subject has been taught in the past will be replaced by definite plans definitely carried out.

During the latter part of the morning, Miss Mina M. Langvick, Supervisor of Schools, presented to the teachers the "False and True" test. This test consists of a series of false and true statements to be marked by the use of X or — signs. The great need for careful wording of the test whenever it is used and the time saving elements were impressed upon the minds of the teachers by a false and true test in silent reading being given them. Although it was not Miss Langvick's intention to test the teachers ability to comprehend in reading it is gratifying to be able to report that they made excellent records on the test.

Plans for Play Day activities to be carried out during the week of May 21 were presented, and rules governing the Essay Contest for which prizes have been offered by the Old Kent Chapter of the Daughters of American Revolution were discussed.

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE RECORD IS LOW

Percentage Of Attendance Of White Schools For Month Of February, 1923

The attendance record of the white elementary schools of the county is very low for the month of February. In spite of the earnest effort made by the teachers and pupils to keep their records at least as high as the per cents. for January they fell below in many instances. The lower average attendance of these schools was due to epidemicc in several sections of the county continuing to increase throughout the month and the unusually bad weather and road conditions.

Those boys and girls who have had to be out of school so much time during the winter months are determined to make good their loss. They ask too that all those who are interested in their education watch the records of their schools grow with the coming of spring.

—Fire of an unknown origin destroyed all the out buildings on the farm owned by William T. Bradley, of Felton, and tennanted by his son, Samuel Bradley late Monday afternoon. The farm is located about half a mile from Rice's School, near Felton.

JUST GOT OVER A COLD

Look out for Kidney troubles and backache. Colds overtax the kidneys and often leave them weak. For weak kidneys—well, read what a Chestertown man says:

John R. Hadaway, 700W. High St., says: "I I can give Doan's Kidney Pills the highest praise. They have never failed to straighten me up whenever my kidneys trouble me. The jolting of the truck is trying on the back and kidneys and at times I suffered so with my back, I could hardly straighten and often came home at night tired out and nervous. The action of my kidneys was irregular and colds made the trouble worse. I used Doan's Kidney Pills from Sterling's Pharmacy and they soon put my kidneys in good shape."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Hadaway had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

"Well! Strong!"

Mrs. Anna Clover, of R. F. D. 5, Winfield, Kans., says: "I began to suffer some months ago with womanly troubles, and I was afraid I was going to get in bed. Each month I suffered with my head, back and sides—a weak, aching, nervous feeling. I began to try medicines as I knew I was getting worse. I did not seem to find the right remedy until someone told me of

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

I used two bottles before I could see any great change, but after that it was remarkable how much better I got. I am now well and strong. I can recommend Cardui, for it certainly benefited me."

If you have been experimenting on yourself with all kinds of different remedies, better get back to good, old, reliable Cardui, the medicine for women, about which you have always heard, which has helped many thousands of others, and which should help you, too. Ask your neighbor about it; she has probably used it.
