AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS

Mishaps That Resulted Fatally And Some That Did Not

Rural Carrier D. B. Kendall and his son-in-law, Mr. W. A. Brotemarkle, figured in an auto accident Saturday night which came near resulting seriously for several people. Mr. Kendall and his son-in-law left Harrington, Del., at a late hour for their home here and when nearing Camden they met a team approaching without lights. A collision resulted in which the automobile turned turtle, throwing the occupants out and injuring Mr. Kendall. Mr. Kendall has been out this week, but unable to run his rural route from the postoffice for several days. Mr. Brotemarkle, who is employed in Harrington, was not injured.

Mrs. Tillie Pinder and brother, Edward Kimble, of Galena, Kent county, narrowly escaped death last Sunday morning when their automobile turned over on the state road from Church Hill to Centreville, pinning Mrs. Pinder under it, painfully injuring her arm and throwing Mr. Kimble heavily to the road. Mrs. Pinder was removed to the office of Dr. N. S. Dudley, of Church Hill, and later to Emergency Hospital, Easton, where it was found no bones were broken.

George B. McManus, a senior at the University of Delaware, was killed almost instantly in an automobile accident just south of Cecilton, Md., about 9 o'clock Monday night. Earl E. Lloyd, of Wilmington, owner of the car, who sat alongside of McManus, escaped with slight cuts and bruises. McManus and Lloyd were cousins. McManus, who was driving the car, swerved the machine to the side of the road to avoid striking a buggy, which was not seen by the occupants of the automobile until they were almost upon it and the car crashed into it and also hit the bank alongside the road. Mrs. Robert Gonce, of near Cecilton, who with her husband, occupied the buggy, was painfully injured. The Gonces were thrown from their vehicle in to the road. Mrs. Gonce was cut, bruised and shaken up.

—Next Monday is Maryland Day and a legal holiday. The banks will be closed on that date.

—Numerous Kent countians who own radio sets are now receiving the daily weather fore-casts, broadcasted from station NAA, by the Chief of the Weather Bureau, Washington. The reports are sent out at 10.05 a. m., 3.45 p. m. and 10.05 p. m. Broadcasts are made on a wave length of 710 meters. The Weather Bureau Chief is anxious to communicate with all radiophans who receive the broadcasts, with a letter from them advising as to clearness and which schedule is most frequently used.

—The Maryland Public Athletic League has selected May 15 as the date for holding the annual field and track sports among the public school students of the county. The meet will take place on Washington College athletic field, and will be preceeded by the annual parade of school children in which from 1,200 to 1,600 children participate.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE

"The Arrival of Kitty," a farce in three acts, is progressing rapidly towards presentation under the direction of Dr. C. P. Gould. The play is extremely humorous and highly entertaining. The cast includes some of the stars of last year's highly successful production and several new actors who are displaying unusual talent. Cast of characters: William Kinkler, Mr. Preston Heck; Aunt Jane (his sister), Miss Helen B. Jones; Jane (his niece), Miss Mary E. Simpers; Bobbie Baxter (suitor to Jane), Mr. Emerson Russell; Benjamin Moore (suitor through mistake), Mr. T. H. D. Knight; Ling (a bell boy), Mr. James Galvin; Sam (colored porter), Mr. J. K. Stewart; Kitty (an actress), Miss Dorothy Shriver, Suzette (a maid), Miss Helen Bradshaw. Most of the cast need no introduction to the people of Chestertown. Their fine past performances have kept them in the memories of all who have seen them. A word or two ought to be said regarding the three new actors. Mr. J. K. Stewart has earned for himself the enviable title of the comedian. As the colored porter in the play he should be delightful. Mr. Galvin and Miss Bradshaw are both gifted in the art and execute their parts in fine manner. All in all, this play promises to be the best presented by the college for some time. You may anxiously await "The Arrival of Kitty."

Tuesday, March 27, 12.20 p. m., the Easter Recess begins. Wednesday, April 4, 8 a. m., Easter Recess ends. And there is no telling what wonderful stories might be inserted between those two sentences.

The following is the program of the Mt. Vernon Literary Society for Mar. 26: Five Minute Talk, Miss Helen Bradshaw; open debate, Resolved, That the Klu Klux Klan is a benefit to American citizens; solo, Miss Margaret Crew; impromptu session; Awguan, Langham; Critic's Report.

CHURCH NOTES

Wesley Chapel M. P. Sunday School held their annual Decision Day Service last Sunday. After the lesson the pastor took charge and Mrs. Raum sang a solo, then the call came for those who had make or would make a life Service Decision and about 10 responded by walking to the front with the Pastor. Next all Christians were asked to go to their teacher and stand grouped in classes, then the call for additions to the ranks and two adults made the decision. It was one of the most impressive services ever held at Wesley Sunday School.

Next Sunday the ladies of the pastor's Bible Class will have charge of the Sunday School and promise to have special music, etc. Every body invited to come out and hear and see what the Ladies have arranged.

Mr. Milton Maslin was elected delegate and Mr. M. T. Miller alternate to represent Wesley Chapel M. P. Charge at their coming conference in Baltimore. They have been instructed to secure the return of their pastor for the 6th year.

Kent County Council To Meet At Still Pond

The plans for the all-day Council meeting, to be held at Still Pond on Monday next, have been completed. Everything possible has been done to make the day a success—good speakers, attractive program and plans for transportation and meals.

We sincerely trust that all Kent Co. women will avail themselves of the opportunity of being present. There will be an evening program, which will be of interest to both men and women.

An attractive feature of the day will be a luncheon at noon served by the women of Still Pond. In the evening the Still Pond Grange will serve a supper for the nominal sum of thirty-five cents.

For women living at a distance who do not drive cars or have no means of transportation, the Council have arranged with Mr. Vernon Barnett to take passengers who care to go. Mr. Barnett will reserve a seat for anyone who will call him by telephone, 212W, or drop him a card at Chestertown, Md. He will meet all passengers from the rural districts at the office of Home Demonstration Agent, in the Court House at 9.30 a. m. For the return trip Mr. Barnett will leave Still Pond at 9.30 p. m. The charge for round trip will be $ .00.
