M. E. AND M. P. CONFERENCE APPOINTMENTS.

The ministerial appointments for the ensuing year in the Wilmington Annual Conference of the M. E. Church, were read at 12:30 Monday afternoon by Bishop McDowell.

This immediately preceded the conference adjournment.

It is said that the bishop and his cabinet had been unable to agree on the appointments, although several conferences were held, and that the bishop took the matter in his own hands and the selections, as given below, are his own.

New superintendents were named for all four districts.

The Rev. Robert Watt, superintendent of the Wilmington district, was succeeded by the Rev. J. W. Colona, pastor of the Wesley Church, Dover.

Dr. William A. Wise, superintendent of the Middletown district, goes to Scott Church, Wilmington. The Rev. William R. Mowbray, superintendent of the Dover district, goes to the Cookman Memorial Church, Wilmington. The Rev. Vaughan S. Collins, superintendent of the Salisbury district, goes to Cape Charles, Va.

The Rev. Omar E. Jones, Chestertown, Md., was named superintendent of the Middletown district.

The Rev. Walter E. Gunby, Cambridge, Md., becomes superintendent of the Dover district.

The Rev. E. H. Dashiell, Cape Charles, Va., was named superintendent of the Salisbury district.

Appointments In M. P. Conference

The Maryland Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, which was held in Baltimore, ended at 1 o'clock Tuesday morning after the pastoral appointments had been read by the president, Rev. G. I. Humphreys, of Washington. Many changes were made among the ministers.

The closing session was featured by the adoption of resolutions indorsing the Eighteenth Amendment, the Anti-Saloon League and W. H. Anderson, superintendent of the New York League.

Following are the pastorial appointments for Delaware and the Eastern Shore of Maryland and Virginia.

Wilmington

First—Calvin Randall.
