

Springtime and Painting are here. Have you ever considered us when you think of

PAINT

Our Paint Department has been growing very steadily. It has some of the best advertised lines that are made. We can help you paint anything. If it is a Barn, we offer you a good

RED OR BROWN at $1.25 a gal.

We put it against anything on the market as high as $1.50 a gallon

A good house paint of Lead and Oil at $2.50 a gal.

There is nothing offerer on the Shore to beat it for less than $3.00 a gallon.

OUR INTERIOR FINISHES

are creations of the artists skill in blending colors. When you finish a room with our you have a creation of art that is hard to excell. Ask for our book on decorations.

NO LUSTRE FINISH

When you need anything in the Paint line let us figure on your estimate.

Jones & Satterfield

CHESTERTOWN, MD.

PHONE 51

Always Think Before You Act But Don't Think Too Long

Easter will soon be here with us and maybe you need a new suit of clothes and a pair good shoes.

We have the best values offered anywhere and priced at the lowest possible figure, qaulity and service considerer.

We have our suits tailored to fit each individual and we use only All-Wool Fabricks.

A Few Words About Shoes

Advance showing of newest Styles Conceptions in Men's, Ladies and Children's footwear FOR SPRING.

It is our aim to make this department one of special interest to every man womau and child in the community by producing a stock and variety of styles of exceptional interest.

Dainty Oxfords and Pumps. Fine Dress Shoes and Easy Comfort Shoes. Men's fine Dress Shoes and Work Shoes are all to be found here at most reasonable prices.

"'Tis a feat to fit the feet," We can do it.

F. A. HURLOCK & CO.

STILL POND, MD.

PHONE 17

CULP Lumber

Everything to Build Anything

WORKING PLANS FREE

AT OUR OFFICE

Full Stock Building Material

W. S. & A. M. CULP

Yone 5. CHESTERTOWN, MD.

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

—The run of herring in the river is large at this time.

—A large force has been engaged in laying a sewer along Maple avenue.

—A special session of the Orphans Court will be held Thursday next, April 19.

—A play, the "Lonely Social Club," will be presented in the Town Hall at Millington Friday, April 20.

—Asparagus growers are preparing for the coming season, which is usually a most profitable one.

—We understand that extensive improvements and additions will be made at the Voshell House in the near future.

—Centreville reports a big boom in building. From a $50,000 armory down a long and encouraging list is their program.

—With numerous new social features and addresses, the Eastern Shore Society of Baltimore held their annual dinner Wednesday evening.

—Oliver C. Jones, County Farm Demontsrator for Queen Anne's, has resigned and will devote his time to the dairy business.

—The Washington College Dramatic Association will make their first public appearance this year on Thursday evening of next week.

—Owners of pea canneries in lower Delaware have commenced to overhaul the machinery and put things in readiness for the coming season.

—Frank E. Bennett, of the First District, Cecil county, was found dead in a corn crib recently. He was 27 years of age. Death was due to suicide.

—Shad are being caught in considerable numbers at Betterton and Rock Hall. They were selling for 20 cents a pound at Betterton Thursday.

—Chestertown may have a woolen mill in the future. An option has been secured on Mr. Walter T. Bramble's lot, at the foot of Mill street, as a site.

—It is reported that Governor Ritchie will appoint former Governor E. C. Harrington as successor to the late W. W. Beck on the State Tax Commission.

—Charles Hodkins, who has been janitor of the Third National Bank for a number of years, has tendered his resignation because of impaired health.

—Mr. S. G. Granbery has contracted with the Duyer Brothers to build him a home on the lot purchased from Mr. Lawrence Brown as soon as the materials arrive.

—The spring term of the Circuit Court for Kent County will convene here next Monday. The term is expected to be short, as but few cases are on the docket.

—The Applegarth Co. of Baltimore are contracting for tomatoes at Brown's wharf in Quaker Neck for 25 cents per basket, which will be the ruling price here this season.

—Mr. Charles N. Satterfield announces his candidacy for re-election as town commissioner of Chestertown in this issue. Mr. Satterfield is the only candidate in the field to date.

—G. E. Noland & Son have a half-page adv. on page 8. Every reader of this paper should not fail to look for the advertisement. This firm always has bargains on display, but this sale will bring forth some exceptional ones.

—Messrs. S. J. Coleman, G. T. Dewberry, R. F. Elburn, R. F. Collins, W. F. Malin, Edgar Pennington and Ellsworth Newcomb attended a class initiation of the Jr. O. U. A. M. at Sassafras last night.

—Dr. H. Benge Simmons has been elected a member of the Board of Directors of the new company which has been organized for the purpose of taking over certain assets of the Clevelanc Discount Co.

—Mary Elizabeth Lively one of the oldest colored women in this town, died at her home on College Avenue on Wednesday, just a day before she received her March pension check from the government.

—J. Frisby Newcomb, of near Locust Grove, has a fine Guernsey cow, eight years old which has produced seven calves, all of which are heifers. Six of them are still living and are excellent mich cows.

—The run of herring in the Chesapeake bay is the largest for many years and fishermen are making large catches every day. The fish are as large as ever been caught in the bay and are bringing good prices.

—The Jr. Christian Endeavor Society of Christ M. P. Church under management of Miss Mayme Thompson, is arranging to give a play and musicale in the near future. Watch for particulars later.

—Work is progressing on the fine speed yacht of Mr. Wm. H. Truslow & Son. It will be delivered in May. It is said that the boat will be capable of making 30 miles an hour, and will very likely be the fastest boat ever on the Chester.

—Mr. Albert Rawleigh has recently completed a fine bungalow for Mr. Leslie Needles on the Quaker Neck road, near Radcliffe bridge. Capt. Alfred Palmer is painting the home, which will be occupied by Mr. Needles and his parents.

—Prohibition Agent Edwards, assisted by Constable Fred G. Wiley and Chief of Police Oscar James, last week discovered two stills and hundreds of gallons of mash on Ivy Island, five miles from Laurel.

—Mr. George E. Noland has been appointed manager of Tolchester Hotel to succeed Mr. Eliason, the late superintendent. Mr. Noland owns the railway at the Beach. His son, Mr. Conlyn Noland, will have charge of the store while Mr. Noland, Sr., is away.

—Mr. Atwater and family received quite a surprise on Tuesday evening when the congregation visited him in a body, bringing with them tokens of their appreciation and esteem. Refreshments were served and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed.

—Mr. Geo. W. Rash left at the Transcript office this week a number of fine Winesap apples. These apples were grown by Mr. Rash last fall and buried in a kiln. Out of a number of bushels buried he only lost about one dozen appels. This proves the keeping quality of the Winesap apple.

—Legal preparations for the sale of the interests of the Maryland, Delaware & Virginia Railway, involving a sum of $2,444,999, were completed last Thursday, when Judge Morris A. Soper signed in the U. S. Court a decree for the foreclosure, which appears in this paper.

—The state police, while on their way to Easton Thursday of last week to demonstrate the work of their organization to the Rotary Club, fought a fire which destroyed the home of Mr. B. F. Slaughter at Cecilton and did fine work in saving the household goods and other valuables.

—Noland, one of our High Street progressive merhants, will start a Thrift Day sale Tuesday, April 17, which will continue for five days. Many useful articles will be on sale during these days and the thrifty housewife should avail herself of this opportunity to replenish her wants.

—The government is arranging to organize a company of civilians here for the summer camps to be organized at Plattsburg and other places. The total assignment for this county has not yet been made, but the War Department has asked for a number of eligibles and a number of young men may take advantage of a free vacation during the summer.

—Over the shoal water inside the mouth of the Susquehanna and smaller rivers at the head of the Chesapeake Bay, thousands of ducks, geese and swan are "sanding" themselves for migration to the north. For days the water fowl eat nothing but sand, so it is said, until all the spare fat is used up and they are hardened for their great effort.

—Middletown firemen were called to Cecilton on Wednesday of last week when the prevailing strong wind caused fear of a spread of flames from a blaze which started in the frame dwelling of Joseph Cox. The house was destroyed when the firemen arrived, but no further damage was done. A house in the rear of the burned one was saved from the flames.

—Mr. R. H. Rogers and a party of friends went to Princess Anne last week and brought home the former's fine skipjack, which he recently purchased. The party was composed of Mr. Rogers, Messrs. H. T. Hartman, P. M. Brooks, R. H. Collins, Jr., John Collins, W. S. Spielberger and Edward Pennington. The party left Princess Anne on Friday morning and arrived here on Sunday at about noon, sailing only in the day time. The distance covered was about 150 miles.

—A tremendous romance with the Alps of Switzerland, the Gardens of Versailles, and Paris and London estates as the background, written by Elinor Glyn, and starring Gloria Swanson, is "Beyond the Rocks," a Paramount picture which comes to the Lyceum Theatre, Friday and Saturday. The principal roles are capably played by Robert Bolder, Alec B. Francis, Mabel Van Buren, Gertrude Astor, Edythe Chapman, June Elvidge, F. R. Butler, Helen Dunbar and Ramond Blathwayt.

—While the New York slickers are busy trying to steal a few hundred thousand dollars from one another calling the accomplishment a day of good business, while the Broadway lounge lizards are cluttering the streets of our cities and boring us with their silly chatter, the great American farmer comes along with a production of goods worth $14,310,200,000 for the year 1922. When one thinks of this accomplishment in terms of service to America, everything else vanishes from view. The crops harvested during the year were worth $8,961,000,000, while the value of farm animals and animal products footed up to $5,349,200,000.

—Ground has been broken for several new homes on Washington avenue in what is known as the Brown addition opposite Washington College campus. Six or eight room homes will be erected there. Mr. A. M. Culp is erecting three dwellings on his lot on Mt. Vernon street to cost about $5,000 each. Mr. E. L. Pyle will erect on the lot recently purchased by him a dwelling to cost $7000.

—For the third time within two years the motion picture house of Albert W. Saulsbury at Ridgely, Md., was burned last Wednesday. The first fire occurred in September, 1921, and after being twice burned it was to have reopened last week. An investigation has developed that woodwork around the theatre had been saturated with kerosene and the blaze is believed by the Maryland authorities to have been of incendiary origin.

—Rev. W. H. Johns, colored, pastor of Janes M. E. Church, Chestertown, for several years, has been transferred to an $1800 charge in New Jersey. Rev. Johns made many friends while here and built up the church considerably.

Young Men's Suits

BUSINESS

$20 to $35

Tweeds, Homespuns and Cheviots, Two-Trousers Snits at $25 to $35.

PLEASURE

$25 to $50

Golf Models and Sport Models, $25 to $35. Extra Knicker Four-Piece Suits, $25 to $50.

DRESS-UP

Blue Serges, Pin Stripes, Silk Mixtures and Neat Grey and Brown Worsteds.

$25 to $50

New models, new colorings and best makes.

TOP COATS, $20 TO $45

New ones in to-day.

MULLIN'S CLOTHING STORE

WILMINGTON

Lyceum Theatre Chestertown

MONDAY and TUESDAY, April 16-17. ALLEN HOLUBOR PRESENTS

THE PHOTO DRAMATIC SENSATION

"HURRICANE'S GAL"

Starring DOROTHY PHILLIPS. A Greater Sea Drama than ever before. Makes Thrills Thrill. Eight great reels of Surprise Sensation. Also Comedy. Prices 10, 20, 30.

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY, APRIL 18-19

BILL PATTON AND DIXIE LAMONT IN

"ALIAS PHIL KENNEDY"

A Secret Service Western Story that is a knock-out. Also Larry Semon Comedy, Movie Chats and Sports. A Great Program. Prices 10, 15, 25.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, APRIL 20-21 JESSE L. LASKY, Presents

"MORAN OF THE LADY LETTY"

A TINGLING TALE OF THE SEA

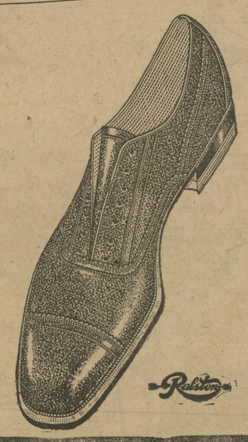

With DOROTHY DALTON and RODOLPH VALENTINO

It's a Paramount Picture. The Tale of a Girl who sailed the seas like a man and taught a pampered son of fortune how to fight for Love and Life. Also Pathe Review and Comedy. Prices 10, 20, 30.

Ralston Oxfords for Spring

HERE ARE YOUR SPRING OXFORDS

We never hesitate to show you and recommend Ralstons—not only because we know the experience of those that wear them, but also because we know that Ralstons are made to live up to their reputation of over twenty years of honest value shoes at honest prices.

THE FENWAY MODEL

is a "Tried and True Ralston." This new Fenway Spring 1923 model comes in Tony Red and Tony Black.

Thousands have worn and liked shoes made on this last. Try it! You'll find it as nice a shoe as you ever wore.

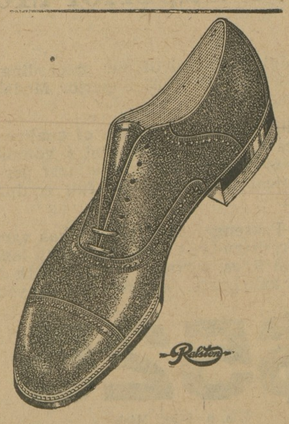

Price $6 & $7.50

THE CLYDE MODEL

This Clyde last is every inch a "Ralston.' Words do not do it justice. You have to see it. Made in Tony Brown and Tony Black Spartan Calf.

They are honestly designed, honestly made and are sold at honest prices.

$7.50

VANSANT & NEWSOME

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND

Head-to-Foot Outfitters for Men and Boys

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc6000_35_1-0545.jpg