REPORTS from all sections of Kent County indicate a decided swing of the Democratic voters toward Mr. Copper and the Copper ticket

THE moving of Mr. C. A. Goodwin from Chestertown to Baltimore loses from this town one of the most progressive and up-to-date minute men that has ever been located in this section during our recollection. Mr. Goodwin took a keen interest in every move to better the conditions of Chestertown and Kent County and his departure is much regretted by a large number of our business men. The Transcript extends to him its best wishes for a greater success in Baltimore than he has had here. We regret to see him leave. In a letter to the Transcript Mr. Goodwin says:

"It is a source of deep regret to me that it is necessary for me to leave Chestertown.

"There comes a time in the life of each of us when an opportunity presents itself and we must either take it or leave it.

"We have striven for a united Chestertown, a town where the people will pull together for the common good in all cases.

"I will take with me pleasant memories of my stay here and trust that I have in at least a small measure been a benefit to our town."

WHO'S WHO?

There is a persistent effort on the part of certain parties in Kent County to name the ticket headed by Mr. W. B. Copper, the "Anti-Organization" ticket, and that headed by Mr. W. F. Russell, the "Organization ticket. This is certainly a false classification as many of Mr. Copper's chief supporters are "Organization" men. In fact at a meeting of the Copper forces last week there were as many organization men present as anti-organization followers. In the last campaign conducted in Kent County, as pointed out by a voter in this county in a letter to the Baltimore Sun published elsewhere in this issue, Mr. Bruce, who was certainly the State and County organization candidate, received the support of such men as Messrs W. B. Copper, Walter Hadaway, Ellsworth Leary, T. B. Durding, R. H. Collins, and others, who have been known as anti-organization leaders, who worked under the leadership of the late Senator William W. Beck. Mr. Beck held many important conferences with Mr. W. B. Copper and a large number of Mr. Copper's so called anti-organization friends. The Transcript was the only paper in Kent County supporting Mr. Bruce in the primary fight. Messrs William F. Russell, Fred G. Usilton and Charles L. Dodd, who term themselves the organization leaders in this campaign, led Mr. David Lewis's fight in this county. Some of the former Norris leaders in the past campaign have yielded to the leadership of Mr. Russell, but many of them are leading Mr. Copper's fight in this campaign. The present campaign is certainly not an organization and anti-organization fight here, as many of the leaders in Mr. Copper's fight are district leaders of the old organization. Some days ago one of the present Russell leaders in talking with a voter and appealing for support for the organization ticket was met with the question, "Who is the organization?" This is a question which has presented itself to many of the voters and the simple answer is, there is no longer an organization and anti-organization ticket in Kent County. They have died the same political death as the old Federalist and Anti-Federalist party, as the old Whig and Greenbacks, as the old Silver and Bull-Moose tickets of not so long ago.

The Democratic voters in Kent County in the present fight have one ticket headed by Mr. Copper and another headed by Mr. Russell. There are so called organization and anti-organization men on each ticket. Voters take your choice and do not be influenced by any organization or anti-organization propaganda. There is no such thing in Kent County at the present time. In the latest fight held in this county the present so-called organization leaders, Messrs. Russell, Usilton and Dodd, bolted the so-called organization ticket and led the Lewis ticket. What ticket are they leading now? Certainly not an organization ticket, certainly not an anti-organization ticket, but a ticket headed by Mr. David J. Lewis' chief supporter in Kent county.

Voters choose between the Copper ticket and the Russell ticket in this campaign and vote accordingly. Don't be prejudiced by any organization or anti-organization propaganda.

The Political Situation in Kent County

The following letter appearing in the Baltimore Sun on Sunday is in reply to an article written by the Sun correspondent here in Chestertown on the political situation in Kent County.

To The Editor Of The Sun—Sir:

To Tht Editor Of The Sun—Sir.

We note an article in your paper of this date stating local politics is taking an old time appearance in this county, that Senator William F. Russell is heading the organization ticket and that Mr. William B. Copper is heading the anti-organization ticket.

For the benefit of the voters of Kent County and the public in general, the writer will be obliged if the author of today's article will explain just who represents the organization faction in Kent County.

Senator Russell, Fred. G. Usilton and Charles L. Dodd, now posing as the organization leaders, surely slipped a cog last summer in the Senatorial fight for United States Senator when United States Senator Bruce carried this county over W. I. Norris and David J. Lewis, under the leadership of the late W. W. Beck.

S. Scott Beck was with Norris, and the three above mentioned, posing as organization leaders, were great Lewis men.

On the other hand, Mr. William B. Copper, Walter Hadaway, Elleworth Leary, T. B. Durding, R. H. Collins and numerous other so-called anti-organization workers were right in the rank and file working, backing and voting for Senator Bruce. Voter.

Wilmington Man Wins Betterton Meet

L. S. German, of Wilmington, topped the amateur and professional marksmen at the first annual shootng match held at Betterton Tuesday, under the auspices of the Betterton Gunning Association. German, who is a professional gunner, broke 148 birds out of a possible 150. Henry Winchester, of Delaware City, was the professional runner-up, with a score of 147 targets. Fifty-two crack shots toed the mark and dieal weather condtions favored the shooters, and consequently high scores were the order of the day. Dr. Merritt Brice of Millington, carried off the honors in the amateur ranks, when he smashed 147 targets out of a possible 150. The doubles event was won by George Simon, of Wilmington, who brought down 48 clays out of a possible 50. The final event of the shoot was staged on Wednesday.
