CAMPAIGN BONUS OFFER CLOSES TONIGHT

60,000 Extra Votes Allowed on Each $15.00 in Subscriptions Turned in

The beginning of the third week in the big subscription drive running on THE TRANSCRIPT shows practically all candidates in the race still exceedingly busy gathering votes. The pace has been a little too strong for some and these have withdrawn, but enough active contenders remain to make this a most interesting and hard fought campaign.

Hundreds of new and renewal subscriptions have already been added to the list and before the campaign closes on August 8, almost everyone in the trade territory through which this paper circulates will be a reader of The Transcript.

To choose any of the winners at this stage of the campaign, would be an impossibility, as over half a dozen of the leaders are very closely bunched and even those who are running at the bottom of the list can be in the lead by having a good report tonight.

LAST DAY OF BONUS OFFER

As previously announced, the largest extra vote offer to be allowed during the remaining days of the campaign comes to a close tonight. On each and every club of $15.00 in subscriptions turned in, an extra bonus of 60,000 votes will be issued. The importance of this offer can be readily seen when it is taken into consideration that a one year subscription turned in, on or before tonight, averages 8,000 votes. It is readily understood therefore just why it is so imperative that a candidate get as many subscriptions before the close of this offer as possible.

The one who fails to get their full share of bonus votes this week are inviting themselves to a small prize or cash commission as no doubt this week will have direct bearing on the race, as it would indeed be difficult for a candidate who falls behind this week to catch up, especially after the votes on subscriptions have decreased.

CAMPAIGN CLOSES AUG. 8.

In just a few days over two weeks the campaign will close and all prizes will be awarded. Do you want to drive away the beautiful Studebaker or are you willing to win just some minor prize? Of course all the prizes are nice and very valuable, but there is a vast difference between the big touring car and the other prizes to be awarded.

If you wish to be a winner, then get everyone that has promised you a subscription togive it to you before the close of this offer. Make to-nights report the largest you ever had. In this way you are sure to get advantage of the largest number of votes which will be awarded at any period of the drive. By getting a large lead this week you can gain an advantage over any other candidates, so be the one who polls the largest number of votes this period.

Out of town workers who will not be in Chestertown on Saturday are allowed to mail in their report any time Saturday and the extra votes will be allowed if the subscriptions are mailed before their local Post Office closes. However, all reports must bear the postmark of July 21st., or the extra votes cannot be issued. All candidates are advised that there can be no exceptions to the rule, and all candidates should see that their report is mailed in time to bear the correct post mark. This gives the out-of-town workers the same chance as those living in Chestertown.

REPORT TWICE WEEKLY

Candidates are advised that all subscriptions collected should either be brought or mailed in twice weekly, on Wednesdays and Saturdays. By getting the report in regularly the subscribers begin getting their paper at once. When the subscriptions are held back many complaints reach the office about failure of subscribers to receive their paper.

The rules of the campaign are that every candidate that wishes to remain in the race must report at least five subscriptions each week. This rule has not been invoked as yet, but all who fail to get in their quota will be dropped from the list of candidates, so everyone who wishes to stay in the campaign are advised to get their subscriptions as early as possible.

Disastrous Fire Narrowly Averted

The quick work of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Department, assisted by others, prevented what would have been a most disastrous fire had it gotten fairly started on Wednesday morning. At about 9.30 the first signs of the fire were discovered in the apartments of Mr. W. H. Thawley and family, over the large department store of Mr. Geo. E. Noland & Son, on High Street. Within a very few minutes the local fire company was on the scene with hose and ladders and in a few minutes the fire, which had gained some headway, and threatened to break forth with wide destruction, was extinguished. The origin of the fire is said to have been in a pile of old combustion or may have been caused by combustion or may have been cause by children playing with fire in the same room. While the fire burned but very little, the stock of goods of the Noland Store was somewhat damaged by the volume of water which was poured on the blaze.

The succession is agreeable not only to Dr. Wade but to John Walter Smith, Frank A. Furst, Governor Ritchie and other party leaders.

REGATTA TO BE INTERESTING

Many Local Boats Enter Races To Be Held In Easton Bay

The Easton Yacht Club will hold a regatta in Easton Bay Aug. 11, just one week before the Chesapeake Bay work boats will race in the same waters.

The regatta to be held on Aug. 11 will include power and sail boats, classified so as to make things interesting, and will be made up of mostly pleasure boats, which are excluded from the work boat races on the 18th.

There will a number of boats entered from Chestertown, both sailing craft and motor boats. Among those already entered are:

Harriette L, skipjack, owned by R. Hynson Rogers.

Clatonia, skipjack, owned by Herbert Hartman.

Sausy, sloop, owned by Wm. H. Truslow & Son.

Power boat, owned by Wm. H. Truslow & Son.

The Hariette L is a typical Chesapeake Bay skipjack, sometimes referred to as jib and foresail. Before coming to Chestertown she was used as a dredger in Tangier Sound and around the mouth of the Potomac, and is a sturdy, able little sail boat. She is built to stand most anything she will encounter in these waters.

The Claytonia was built for a race, which she won with a cat boat rig. After the race she was changed and rigged as a yawl, with which rig Mr. Hartman and some friends sailed her from Boston, Mass., to Chestertown. At the end of last season her owner had her changed from a yawl rig to a skipjack, which has proved to be a success in every way.

The Saucy is a spoon-bow, keel, knockabout, and was formerly owned on the Western Shore, with the Chesapeake for a cruising ground. She has a very able skipper in Mr. Wm. H. Truslow, who is an old hand at the small-boat game.

The power boat referred to in the list is a new 41-foot dead rise, built at Honger, Md., with a 20-60 horse-power motor. She is the most likely prize winner on the list. The boats will be manned with a more or less green, one-armed crew, and the races will be quite different from the work boat races, the latter to be manned by men who make their living on the water.

Plans For Big Day at Galena Complete

August 1st. will be a big day in Galena with base-ball, speaking and lots of music. The Massey and Galena teams have been great rivals for diamond honors and will play a five game series for the championship. The first game of the series will start August 1st at Galena. There will be a prominent speaker present to address the farmers on a subject of interest to them. The Cecilton Band will be on hand and the various candidates for office, including Messrs. W. B. Copper, W. F. Russell, Omar E. Crothers, H. C. Legg and others. Further details will be announced later..

WEDDINGS

Miss Olive Ruth Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony A. Peterson, was married to Thomas H. Mogle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Mogle, on Thursday night at Kennedyville by the Rev. B. B. Staats. After the ceremony they motored to the home of the groom, where the supper was held. Mr. and Mrs. Mogle received many useful presents. They will reside at the home of the groom's parents for the present.
