SYMPATHY

By Edgar A. Guest

Queerest side o' grief an' care
Is I can face my own an' bear,
Without whimpering too much,
All I feel of osrrow's touch;
But to see a friend forlorn,
Sufferin' hurts which I have borne,
Griefs which I know all about,
Somehow seems to knock me out.

I can stand to what is mine
An' not grumble much or whine,
I can take what comes to me
An' a soldier try to be;
But to see grim sorrow strike
At the folks I love an' like,
Though I know it has to be,
Takes the good right out o' me.

Words don't come in times like that,
An' the finest speech seems flat,
And' I murmur "Let me do
Something that will comfort you."
But they stammer out somehow
"There is nothing, nothing now."
An' it's true, because I know,
I have answered friends just so.

Hardest griefs to bear are those
Which a friend you're fond of konws;
I can stand my touch of grief
An' find strength in my belief;
But to see another share
Sorrow's hour an' have to bear
Griefs which I know all about,
Somehow seems to knock me out.

Miss Adelaide Lambert Wins Swimming Title In New York—Other Notes of Interest

In a swimming contest in New York Monday, over a distance of 100 yards, Miss Adelaide Lambert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kent Lambert, of Panama, now visiting in Chestertown, won the swimming title for this distance. Her victory was the surprise of the day. The New York Times states the candidates got off well together, but the centre girls soon swerved outward and the crowding started. Miss Lambert came out of the melee in the lead and held it to the end. Miss Lambert won again the following day in the same city over the same distance.

Negotiations are on foot to hold the Dempsey-Firpo fight in Buenos Aires, South America, for a $800,000 house. If this takes place, it will relieve the American public from witnessing what, to our minds, will be a human slaughter such as has not been seen in a prize ring since the champion cut the giant Willard to pieces at Toledo four years ago.

Shortstop Flowers, of Cambridge, has been sold to the St. Louis Nationals for $1500 and a player. He will report at the close of the season. He is a former Wash. College player and has many warm friends here. Here's hoping he lands on the top of the heap.

—The age of young Bobby Jones, the new open golf champion of America, has been a matter of much speculation. He is twenty-one and will be twenty-two on St. Patrick's Day next.

Milford team, in the Eastern Shore League, having disbanded, the team has been distributed about the circuit, most of them going to Crisfield.

Carlton Lord, a Ridgely boy, is now holding down third base for the Philadelphia Nationals. Hummer is another Eastern player slated for faster company.

Archibald, Kent county twirler, is now playing for Newport.

Galen W. McCoy, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. McCoy, of Ceeilton, and Miss Blanche Huhn, of Massey, were quietly married in St. Michael's Church, Chester, Pa., on June 27, at 4.30 o'clock. They will reside in Chester.

Millions Lost Through Bad Eggs

Department Records in Washington show an estimate of $100,000,000 lost in 1922 through broken and spoiled eggs. This loss is due almost entirely to careless handling. At leats half of the loss was sustained by poultry men and wholesale and retail dealers through broken eggs; the other half largely thorugh neglect to candle eggs before delivering them to consumers. Millions of eggs reached customers either broken or decomposed, and usually the retailer had to make good.

Four million cases, or 120,000,000 dozen more eggs, were consumed in 1922 than in any previous year. This year, it is said, promises an even greater excess. Figuring an average of one egg a day for each person in the United States, which is a conservative estimate, our country ate 36,500,000,000 eggs last year.

Won Livestock Judging Contest

For the second time in two years a Maryland team has won the international livestock judging contest. The team is composed of three 17-year-old farm boys from Harford county—Hubert Snodgrass, Richard Wills and Charles Fendall Cushing. They were chosen through State and national elimination contests to represent the United States. The results showed the English team, which won second place, to have been defeated by 395 points.

Last year three Cecil boys—Warren Rice, George Warlow and Joseph Glacken—carried it away from Cambridge, where the contest was held.

—Alexander Armstrong, Republican candidate for governor, in making a tour of the state, was in Kent county last week, accompanied by Mr. A. Parks Rasin, Mr. R. R. Hill, Ex-Senator Brown and others.

KEEP YOUNG

People with bad backs and weak kidneys are apt to fel old at sixty. Many old folks say Doan's Kidney Pills help them keep young. Here's a Chestertown case:

Thomas Clements, retired farmer, 108 S. Mill St., gave the following statement August 16, 1916: "I suffered from attack of backache and whenever I bent, I had sharp pains in the small of my back. As Doan's Kidney Pills had been used in my home for several years, I took some and haven't been troubled since. I bought this excellent medacine at Toulson's Drug Store."

On January 25, 1921, Mr. Clements added: "Whenever my kidneys trouble me, I use Doan's Kidney Pills and they always do me a great deal of good. I have never found anything equal to Doan's."
