A MAN'S PRAYER

By Will Thomas Withrow, in Christian Advocate (M. E. Church)

Lord, if one boon alone be granted me,
Let me but choose what that one boon shall be;
I shall not ask to live 'mid sheltered bliss,
In soft security,—but only this:

Let me be not a coward in the strife
That sweeps across the battlefields of life;
Let me leave not for other lives to bear,
The burdens that were rightfully my share.

Let me not whine, nor ever seek to shirk,
But cherfully bear my full load of work,
Then, place a friendly shoulder 'neath the load
Of one who, fainting, falls beside the road.

Let me, oh Lord, be clean and unafraid;
Let me, go forth to meet life, undismayed;
Until the final hour of life's brief span,
Let me walk upright—let me be a man!

Thus, let me live; that when the day's work done,
I pitch my tent, toward the setting sun,
Lie down to rest, and from my labors cease,
My soul, within its house, shall be at peace!

Hog Cholera Days Approaching

The time of year is at hand when the farmer and swine raiser needs to be particularly vigilant in keeping out his arch-enemy, Mr. Hog Cholera Germ.

Statistics gathered by Dr. I. K. Atherton, in charge of hog cholera work, indicate that on the average 70 per cent of the hog cholera outbreaks in the state during the year occur in the period from August 1 to Dec. 1.

There is undoubtedly a reason for this and in the opinion of the specialists, it is due to the fact that a large number of farmers usually run short in their meat supply during these months and make a practice of buying market pork. The scraps of this reach the hogs through the table refuse and garbage and produce cholera in the farm herd, if the meat happens to be infected. This practice, together with that of bringing in new hogs, accounts for approximately 95 per cent of all primary cases of cholera.

It costs nothing to keep your herd free from cholera—stop feeding kitchen refuse which may contain scraps of raw pork.

An ounce of hog cholera prevention is worth a ton of hog cholera "cure." BE WARNED—BE CAREFUL.

SPORTS

Items Of General Interest Gathered Here And There

Sports are at a low ebb in Chestertown, swimming and autoing being the only enjoyments of a sporting nature indulged in to excess here. However, there are a few who have launches, which are seldom out. September is coming fast, as it were, and with it will come the call to football practice. With that in view one can well weather the hot days and wait patiently for the coming of frost and the calling out of numbers behind a maroon and black line.

Dempsey and Firpo are training for their big fight in New York on Sept. 14. Firpo has been getting quite a good bit of advertising from the defeat of a few fourth-raters recently, but when he faces the champion he will meet an entirely different type of battler, one who knows every trick of the game—and, by the way, one who will likely take his measure for the count in a very few rounds after the gong begins the fracas.

Enrique Tirabocchi, Argentine swimmer, swam across the English Channel from Cape Griz-nez, France, in the record time of 16 hours and 33 minutes this week.

Cambridge, Laurel and Dover seem to have the edge on the other teams in the Eastern Shore League. Chestertown fans are pulling hard for Cambridge.

Baseball fans in the vicinities of Massey and Sudlersville have definitely determined to settle the argument of which town is entitled to the championship honors for the season of 1923. Arrangements have been completed for a five-game series. In the event of a tie, the fifth game will be played at some point to be decided later.

—Sir Thomas Lipton has decided to challenge for the American cup in 1925 and will use a new boat.
