VOTERS, in the election on Monday, don't be influenced by the Old Organization and Anti-Organization propaganda. Those two distinctions have no bearing on this election.

THE Copper ticket in this primary fight stands for good, economical, sound and efficient principles. It stands for low taxes and for the best interests of the taxpayers. Every man on the ticket is well-fitted for the office to which he aspires.

ON Monday the Democratic primaries will be held in this county. It is the duty of every Democrat to go to the polls on that day and express his choice of the candidates to represent the party in the general election in November. Remember, that you cannot aid any particular candidate or your party by not voting. Go to the polls on Monday and vote.

THE great disaster in Japan, in which, according to the latest reports, 200,000 people lost their lives, is the greatest single calamity which has occurred in the history of the world from natural forces. The sympathy of the whole world is extended to the friendly nation of Japan in this hour of great distress.

IT has been our endeavor during this campaign to sling no mud at the opposition, but to base our fight on a clean basis. There are many things which we might have written, dealing with personalities and criticizing the opposition ticket. We believe, however, that this is the wrong attitude in a primary campaign. We believe that the Democratic voters of the county agree with us on this point and we close our fight accordingly.

FROM the best sources of information that we can get, and from reports from all parts of the county, all indications point to a clear victory for the Copper ticket in the primary on Monday. In fact, we confidently believe that Mr. Copper and the ticket he is heading will be nominated. It is a very strong ticket and seems to have appealed greatly to the Democratic voters throughout the county. After a careful study of the situation as it stands today, and the additional strength that it is gaining day by day, we believe that the Copper ticket will be nominated on Monday.

MR. COPPER, having held important positions in the county affairs as President of the Kent County School Board, Chief Judge of the Orphans Court and intimately familiar with the financial conditions and needs of the people of Kent County, if nominated and elected to the Senate will go to Annapolis to represent the county as his broad experience and sound judgment tells him they should be represented. His mind will not be closed as to any important issue that comes before the Senate. He will study that issue and then determine what the desires and best interests of the people of Kent County demand. A man should certainly not form his opinions on a particular issue until that issue has been thoroughly studied. He should not close his mind on an issue until he see just what form that issue will take. Mr. Copper will be open to sound reasoning and good judgment. His mind will not be closed and he will be in a position to thoroughly study and carefully weigh each issue.

We believe that the Democrats of Kent County have sufficient confidence in the judgment of Mr. Copper to nominate and elect him to the Senate.

CIVILITY A GOOD TRAIT

Costs Nothing And Adds A Great Deal To Human Existence

There is an old copybook maxim to the effect that kind words cost nothing and are worth much.

Anything that costs nothing and is worth much as a good investment. We know of no better investment than civility.

Civility is your best introduction to a job. It is your best introduction to success. The genius, perhaps, can dispense with it. But geniuses are rare. No ordinary man can afford to do without it. No matter how great your ability or how extensive your education, without civility you will be set down at the start as a gloom, and nobody wants glooms about the place.

Salesmanship, which plays an important part in any business—whether it is the merchant's, the doctor's or the laborer's, cannot be successfully managed without civility.

From your own experience you know how often you have gone into a store, intending to buy, and have been driven away by the bad manners of a stupid clerk.

The great salesmen practice civility as their cardinal principle. They are never servile, but they are always civil.

Whatever your business or trade, you are selling your services. To sell them you must first make a good impression. And to make a good impression you must be civil.

We repeat the word over and over again because of its great importance. You have only to look about you to understand how important it is.

Who is the man given first chance at new work in any office? The man who, by his activity, has attracted the interest of the man higher up.

Whom would you prefer to have around you, in case you were a boss—the man who is civil or the man who seemed always sullen and discontented?

Civility, the cheapest of all commodities, is also the most valuable. It is, of course, not the only requisite of success. To succeed you must have first, brains, than industry an dapplication.

But it is civility that advertises your qualities, gains them a hearing and keeps them constantly before the minds of the men who are their purchasers.

Cultivate it, if you lack it. It will prove worth more than you will ever believe until you get a little business experience.

Board of Education of Kent County, Md.

LOUIS C. ROBINSON, Sec'y.

Who is Omar D. Crothers, Candidate for Judge?

Omar D. Crothers is a native of Cecil County where he was born in 1881. His father was a farmer, and he spent his early youth working on his father's farm, and attended the public schools, the Jacob Tome Institute and University of Delaware. His mother died while he was an infant, and his father died also while he was in his youth. He was raised and educated by his uncle, the late Governor Austin L. Crothers, read law under him, and graduated from the University of Maryland Law School before he was twenty years of age, was admitted to the Bar on his twenty-first birthday, and practiced law with his uncle until his death, since which time, he has continued the practice of law alone. Before he had been practicing law a year, he was recognized as an able lawyer, and his reputation as a lawyer of ability has steadily grown until now he is regarded as one of the ablest lawyers on the Eastern Shore.

Early in his life he entered politics. and was elected to the Maryland Senate from his County at the age of twenty-six, being the youngest Senator ever elected from Cecil County He has served two terms in the Maryland Senate, where his record in advocacy of clean, wholesome and economical legislation attracted the attentionof all good thinking citizens throughout the State.

Mr. Crothers has held other political positions of trust, and is now serving as a member of the State Roads Commission, to which position he was appointed by Governor Ritchie, who stated when he made the appointment, that he did so in recognition of the great work his late uncle, Governor Crothers started in the construction of good roads throughout the State, and in order that Senator Crothers might aid in the continuance of that great constructive work.

The people of Cecil County recognize that Mr. Crothers is fully qualified in every way for the exalted position of Judge, and I am writing this letter in order that the voters of the other Counties, who may not have followed his career may know who it is we are asking them to nominate for Judge.

Respectfully yours,
EDW'D. M. JOHNSON
