To Organize Boy Scout Troop Tonight

There will be a meeting tonight, Saturday, at 7.30, in Firemen's Hall, Chestertown, for the purpose of organizing Boy Scout troops in Chestertown. All boys of 12 years and up are urged to be present at this meeting, as Mr. Goldsborough Bradford, Scout Executive for the Shore, will be there.

Mr. Bradford has been organizing troops throughout the county this week. A meeting was held at Galena Thursday and at Still Pond Friday.

Every boy in Chestertown should be at Fireman's Hall Saturday evening and become a scout as soon as possible.

Pastor's Life Threatened

Renewed efforts were made at Pocomoke City Saturday to put a stop to the reign of outlawry which culminated last month in the burning of the home of the Rev. J. R. Bicking, pastor of Salem M. E. Church. Everett Bevans and his son, Andrew, were arrested after the former is said to have gone to the home of Mr. Bicking and made threats against him. Andrew, the son, was placed under a peace bond and the father was taken into custody on warrants alleging carrying openly a deadly weapon and acting disorderly. He was held for action of the Grand Jury.
