ALEXANDER ARMSTRONG, the present Attorney-General of Maryland, and Republican candidate for governor, in his opening speech of his campaign at Belair this week stated that he favors modification of the Volstead Act and favors the sale of light wines and beer.

IF we are to judge from the harmonious expressions heard at the Democratic convention in Baltimore Thursday, Governor Ritchie and his running mates on the state ticket will sweep this state at the election on Nov. 6. The platform upon which these gentlemen stand is rock-ribbed and will stand without indenture any and all attacks made by its opponents. As far as we have been able to hear, the conditions in this state are fine for an overwhelming majority for both the state and county tickets. The clean campaign conducted in the primaries in this county have left no serious sore spots and a united Democracy is confidently looked for. The primaries were fairly conducted; every voter had a chance to select the candidates they wished to vote for and we can see no valid reason for any Democrat to cut this ticket at the November election.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

State Rights Are One of the Important Planks in the Platform.

GOVERNOR RICHIE WAS GIVEN OVATION

The Democratic State Convention at Baltimore Thursday was well attended. Harmony in party ranks throughout the state prevailed and party success in November was the general expression from every nook and corner. The delegates from Kent County were: Ernest D. Briscoe, Morris H. Cooper and Elmer S. Jarman. Besides the delegates we noticed the following from this county in the convention hall: Wm. B. Copper, nominee for the State Senate; Elsworth Bowers, nominee for the House of Delegates; S. S. Beck, nominee for State's Attorney; Charles L. Dodd, Elsworth Leary, T. D. Bowers, Jacob Crowding, A. S. Turner and R. H. Collins.

The Democratic Platform makes the following pledges, beginning each with the statement "We promise" or "We pledge our party." The plank referring to the Volstead act is not prefaced by "we pledge" or "we promise."

Following are the planks:

We promise:

. . . The passage of no "burdensome or unduly regulartory laws," creating "new offices which are not shown to be essential."

The responsibility for the enforcement of the Volstead act should "rest on the Federal Government alone."

To continue bridge building, to eliminate one-way bridges and to eliminate grade crossings on state highways as rapidly as possible.

To make the bridge over the Susquehanna at Havre de Grace toll free.

To reduce motor vehicle license fees when the gasoline tax is 2 cents becomes effective Jan. 1, 1924.

Adequate maintenance and construction of state road system.

To apply proceeds from motor vehicle license fees to maintenance, reconstruction and widening of state roads system, after expenses of Motor Vehicle Department and Traffic Court have been paid.

Of these funds 20 per cent is to go to Baltimore City and 80 per cent to the state roads.

To continuance and proper extension of the state's agricultural activities.

To the proper development of the University of Maryland as a state agency.

To establish local sanitary governments in counties, to extend tuberculosis clinic service, to aid in providing sanitary milk supply, in providing adequate inspection of meat, to extend public nursing service.

To favor such legislation as will "enable women to register for voting purposes upon stating simply that they are over 21 years of age."

Establishment of warehouse facilities for the State Purchasing Department for the storing of merchandise bought under favorable market conditions, insuring economy.

To legislation to "better the conditions of women in industry—and improve the state system of child care."

To the state purchase of oyster shells for replenishing oyster beds and legislation prohibiting seed oysters being taken from the state.

Legislation to stop pollution of the Chesapeake Bay and its tributaries.

Adequate protection for game and fish.

To assure building armories at Hagerstown, Centreville, Cumberland, Silver Spring, Crisfield, Easton and Kensington.

To continue the program for the state care of the feeble-minded and the insane.

To continue support of the state public school system, that Maryland may assume her rightful rank in educational affairs.

To faithfully carry out the state reorganization plan which becomes effective Jan. 1, 1924.

To such further decrease (of the state tax rate) as the most rigid but sensible economy will make possible.

Reciprocity with the District of Columbia in the matter of automobile licenses.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

Mrs. A. L. Woodruff, of Philadelphia, spent the past week with her mother, Mrs. Jonathan Anthony.

To Settle M. D. & V. Dispute

The Merchants and Manufacturers Association of Baltimore moved Wednesday to bring together the state, the Pennsylvania Railroad and other interests concerned for a speedy solution of the problem of railway transportation on the Eastern Shore.

Following receipt by Governor Ritchie of the Pennsylvania' Railroad's counter-proposal to the plan of the Eastrn Shore Railway Commission, the whole situation as it affects Baltimore, the Eastern Shore and other parts of the state was canvassed at a meeting of the Association's board of directors at the Hotel Emerson.

E. Asbury Davis, president of the Association, will name a committee of five to study the matter and make recommendations in an effort to bring about a solution quickly.

Further action on the two plans for disposition of the road is expected to go over until next week.

BETTERTON

That Wonderful "Land of the Sky"

The Hall Mark of Service

8000 SQUARE MILES OF PICTURESQUE PEAKS

Nature has been exceedingly lavish with its majestic handi-work in Western North Carolina.

Within a radius of 50 miles of Asheville there are more than sixty forest crowned peaks over 6000 feet high, and over a hundred mountains exceeding 5000 feet in height.

Among these superb peaks is Mt. Mitchell, 6711 feet high, the highest point in Eastern America, and easily accessible by motor road. Here also are Mt. Pisgah overlooking Asheville; Chimney Rock, the towering sentinel of Hickory Nut Gap, with its marvelous outlook; Hickory Nut Falls, 900 fet high; Kanuga Lake; unique Blowing Rock and Granfather Mountain; Lake Toxaway and the beautiful "Sapphire country."

In this great mountain playground the angler, the camper, the hiker, the golfer, the motorist and the eager lover of nature in her virgin forms will find their fondest desires aboundantly met. It is an ideal country for a mountain vacation. The golf courses are numerous and excellent. The roads are good for motoring, and one-day trips may be made to numerous scenic pionts, passing wonderful views on the way. Mountain bridle paths invite horse back riding, a popular recreation.

Through sleeping car service is provided by the Pennsylvania Railroad in connection with the Southern Railway from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington to Asheville.

Write to D. N. Bell, Passenger Traffic Manager, Pennsylvania Railroad, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia, for most interesting descriptive and illustrated literature of the "Land of the Sky."
