DEATHS

On Thursday afternoon, October 18, the gentle spirit of Mr. Thomas Barclay Kilbourne, of Chestertown, Maryland, quietly departed this life, at his home on High Street, after a lingering illness from heart trouble, aged 49 years. He lived a quiet, unpretentious and useful life, and he passed away as peacefully as he had lived.

He leaves a wife, Mrs. M. Eva Waters Kilbourne, and two brothers, Samuel and John Kilbourne.

The funeral services will be held at St. Paul's Church, Fairlee, Saturday at 2.30 p. m., conducted by the rector, Rev. Mr. Sheen, interment in St. Paul's cemetery. The pall bearers will be: Dr. Frank Hines, Dr. Frank Smith, Messrs. Page Gale, Wm. G. Smyth, S. Scott Beck and Thomas Massey.

Mr. Kilbourne had been in poor health for several years, but with each recurring attack Mr. Kilbourne seemed to be able to recover and resume his tasks as usual. And when his last illness caused him to relax his duties, his multitude of warm friends and acquaintances hoped and felt that his indomitable courage would again be sufficient to enable him to weather the storm and brighten the lives of the people with whom he came in contact by his presence. But in spite of the undying devotion of his wife, who was ever at his bedside and ministering to his every want and wish; notwithstanding the fact that medical skill was exhausted to find a remedy to lengthen his span of life; regardless of the fact that countless prayers for his recovery went out for him or for the prolongation of his useful career—the Infinite Mind that swings the sun through its courses; places the moon to lighten and benefit the world and plants the stars in the sky—deemed otherwise.

Mr. Kilbourne was borne in Kent County, near Fairlee, and has spent his entire life here, engaging in business along agricultural lines and continually, year after year, being closely associated with the same patrons, and year after year making more friends and drawing more patrons to him by his fair business methods and genial personality.

Mr. Kilbourne took considerable interest in fraternal work and was an active member of the Modern Woodmen, of Chestertown, and the Junior Order United American Mechanics of Rock Hall.

Mr. Kilbourne was a member of the firm of Kilbourne and Bramble at Fairlee, for many years. About four years ago he came to Chestertown, where he became a partner of Mr. Thomas Massey, and the firm, under the name of Massey & Kilbourne, has been doing an increasing business each year.

Mr. Kilbourne was one of the most popular men in Kent County. Quiet, unassuming, gentle in disposition, affable in manner, kind in his dealings with others, cheerful in spite of his illness, his death will be one of the greatest losses to the business and social life of Kent County that it has suffered in years. He will be missed by his close friends and the public as well in a manner of which there can be no true estimate.

Mrs. Katie O. Finley, widow of the late W. P. Finley, died at her home near Church Hill Tuesday after a long and painful illness. Mrs. Finley was a lady of quiet and retiring nature, but by her unselfish life made many and lasting friendships. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Sallie Babbitt, of Baltimore, and Woodlyn Finley, of near Church Hill. Funeral services were held at her late residence Thursday afternoon, interment at the Church Hill cemetery.

Archibald Mullen, a well-known and highly respected resident of Chester, Pa., but formerly of Kent County, died last Wednesday, Oct. 10, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Daniel F. West. He had been in poor health for the past year or so. He is survived by four daughters and four sons, Mrs. Daniel F. West and Mrs. Steven Call, of Chester, Mrs. M. W. O'Neill, of Twin Oaks, Mrs. M. P. Dunn, of Massey, Charles and Daniel, of Chester, and John F., of Massey. Funeral services were held at St. Michaels R. C. Church on Saturday morning, Oct. 13, at 10 o'clock.

Poultry Culling Demonstration

In order that as many people as possible may get real help from the poultry culling demonstration planned for Monday, Oct. 22, those who are planning to attend should notice carefully the time set for the meetings. It will require about two hours to cull a farm flock, and as there are three meetings planned between 10 a. m. and 5.30 p. m., the culling will start at the times set and will not last over two hours. A number of these demonstrations were carried on in Maryland last year, and resulted in greatly increased profits. Club women in planning these meetings have a higher per cent of profit in mind and it is hoped that the farm people will make use of this splendid opportunity. Mr. Rice is not a stranger to many of our club women, as he gave a demonstration a year ago at the County Council meeting in Chestertown. His work, through the state, has been outstanding.

Meetings will be held as follows:
Monday, Oct. 22, 10 a. m., Mrs. Harold Baker, Quaker Neck.
Monday, Oct. 22, 1.30 p. m., Mrs. Harry Williams, Worton.
Monday, Oct. 22, 3.30 p. m., Mrs. Howard Rees, Fairlee.

Old Kent Chapter, D. A. R., Elects

The first meeting of the season of Old Kent Chapter, D. A. R., met Saturday at the home of Miss Emma A. Knight. The following officers were elected for 1923-24: Regent, Mrs. Wm. G. Smyth; Vice-Regent, Mrs. Wm. T. Brown; Recording Secretary, Miss Emma A. Knight; Cor. Sec., Mrs. P. V. Hendrickson; Treas., Miss Laura R. A. Thomas; Registrar, Miss Fannie E. Stewart; Historian, Miss Sarah Elisabeth Stewart; Librar'n, Miss Elizabeth Stewart. In November the Old Kent Chapter will be the guests of the Capt. Jeremiah Baker Chapter of Cecil Co., Mrs. H. Benge Simmons, Regent. There will be a meeting and luncheon in the Club House at Federal Park.

—John H. Barroll, Esq., who has been on a trip to Bermuda, which has lasted several weeks, has returned to Chestertown and will resume his law practice here.
