Both ladies and gentlemen are cordially invited to all these meetings.

VOTERS, don't forget the Democratic meetings to be held at Betterton tonight and at Chestertown Thursday next, Oct. 25. Issues of interest will be discussed.

EX-SENATOR Henry Brown, who was nominated by the Republican convention of this county for State Senator, and Lemuel Mark, who was nominated at the same time for the House of Delegates, a few weeks ago, we are informed by good authority have declined these nominations. This leaves a clear field for Mr. W. B. Copper, the Democratic nominee for the Senate, and one Republican vacancy on the ticket for the House of Delegates.

WITH the election a little over two weeks off, it is very gratifying to note the progress being made throughout the state by Governor Ritchie and his running mates. Reports are being received each day of the swing of the masses to the Democratic candidates. Most encouraging reports are being received from the counties on this Shore and from Baltimore City. Western Maryland, which is normally Republican, reports inroads being made in the Republican ranks by the Democrats. Kent County is in splendid shape and it now looks like Kent will give the entire Democratic ticket an unheard of large majority. The Democrats have gained hundreds of votes in the registration, besides making other heavy gains in the Republican ranks. A prominent Republican gentlemen told us a few days ago that he knew personally, in his locality, of twenty Republicans that were going to support most of the Democratic ticket. Notwithstanding these splendid reports, every Democrat in this county and state should go to the polls on Tuesday, November 6, and cast their votes. Four years ago the Democratic majority given in this county elected Governor Ritchie and the Democrats of this county should not fail him this time. We want to see Kent County give from 700 to 800 Democratic majority this year and we believe, if every Democrat will do his duty on November 6 the above figures will not be far out of the way. We have a good local ticket, which was fairly nominated at the September primaries and they deserve the support of every Democrat in this county. There is no use in holding primary elections if the successful candidates in these primaries are not supported by the voters at the general election.

FRIDAY

At the beginning of court this morning States Attorney S. Scott Beck made a request to the court to reopen the case of Thomas Hicks, who was sentenced to two years in the Maryland Penitentiary for larceny of hams, chickens, etc. It seems that the testimony had shown that Hicks had a fairly good reputation in the past, but Mr. Beck stated that he had found since the closing of the trial that the court records showed that he had served two terms in the Maryland Penitentiary.

The report of the Grand Jury for Kent County was as follows:

To The Honorable Circuit Court For Kent County, Md.

The Grand Jury of the State of Maryland, in and for Kent County, through its foreman, Jefferson D. Bacchus, respectfully reports to the Honorable Court as follows:

That it has been in session three days; that during that time it has examined fifty-nine witnesses; all the officers of the town and county; has made seventeen presentments, found sixteen true bills and dismissed two cases.

We have visited the Jail and commend the Sheriff on the cleanliness and sanitary condition in which he maintains the Jail, but recommend that the interior of the building should be generally repaired.

We recommend that all store keepers be warned against the violation of the laws regarding the sale of merchandise on the Sabbath.

We also recommend that all officers of towns and county be more vigilant in prosecutting violators of the Local Option Law, as many apparent violations are reported, but no presentments made, due to insufficient evidence.

We desire to thank the Court, its officers, the Sheriff and State's Attorney for the assistance rendered this body.

Respectfully submitted,
JEFFERSON D. BACCHUS, Foreman.
Joseph N. Wheatley, Secretary.

Herbert E. Perkins, executor for R. Groome Parks, vs. Reuben F. Jamar and wife, to recover on a note for professional services rendered by Mr. Parks. Court trial. Verdict for the defendant.

The case of Harry T. Tucker vs. C. A. Goodwin, to recover on a car deal, was before the jury when we went to press.

Klan Meeting In Centreville

Probably one of the largest crowds ever in Centreville attended the K. K. K. meeting on Thursday evening. People from all parts of the Shore witnessed the parade through the streets of Centreville of sixty-eight masked men; the initiation of new members into the Klan and heard a talk by Dr. Hawkins, head of the Klan for the State of Maryland.

The ceremony was held in a large field about one-half mile from Centreville and was enclosed by automobiles which were parked to form a circle. This circle was about 325 yards in diameter which will give an idea of the number of cars in the field.

A large cross was burned in the field, representing the flaming cross, the insigna of the Klan.
