AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS

Former Kent Countian Killed At Cumberland—Young Lady Injured In Chestertown—Boy's Leg Broken—Other Accidents.

This community was deeply shocked and grieved yesterday when news was received here of the sudden death by automobile accident at Cumberland on Thursday of Mr. Lawrence Wilbur Strong, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Strong, of Kent County. Mr. Strong was in the employ of the State Roads Commission when the accident occurred. Funeral arrangements had not been completed when we went to press. He leaves the following sisters: Mrs. Paul Massey, Mrs. Joseph Downey, Jr., and Miss Anna Strong; and the following brothers, Messrs. Howard, Ruthwyn, Herbert, Miller and Buddy Strong. Mr. James Crouch, of Chestertown, is his uncle. Mr. Strong had many warm friends in all parts of Kent County and his untimely death is a decided shock to the community.

Miss Ruth Clark, one of Chestertown's most popular young ladies, was struck by Mr. Joseph Lewis' automobile Wednesday evening and badly, though, it is believed, not seriously injured. She was crossing at Bordleys corner when the accident occurred. Miss Clark was taken to the office of Dr. H. G. Simpers, where an examination disclosed the fact that she was badly bruised and cut about her head. Her many friends hope she will recover completely without any serious complications.

While playing with some boys returning from school Thursday afternoon, John Goodman, eleven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Goodman, of Quaker Neck, the former candidate for sheriff on the Democratic ticket this fall, fell in front of an automobile driven by Mr. Hackety, of Kennedyville, and sustained a broken leg. It is stated that Young Goodman was wrestling with one of the boys and neither realized the closeness of the car until too late. Mr. Goodman took his son to Easton Hospital after the accident and left him with the physicians there in a most comfortable condition, returning the same day.

Miss Zora Tillett, County Nurse for Kent, had a narrow escape the other day on the state road near Chestertown. When opposite the farm of Mr. James T. Dixon, Miss Tillett narrowly missed being turned over when she struck a cow, but avoided doing so turning into a bank, also keeping from injuring the animal badly.

CHESTERTOWN HAS NEW POSTMASTER

Mr. Thomas D. Bowers Retires After Eight Years Of Active And Efficient Service

On last Friday morning Mr. John N. Bennett, one of Chestertown's most well-known business men, received notice from the Postoffice Department of his appointment to the postmastership of Chestertown to succeed Mr. Thos. D. Bowers, whose term expires Oct. 29. There were two other applicants for the position, viz, Rev. A. H. Covey and M. W. Thomas. Both of these gentlemen had many influential and commanding friends, while Mr. Thomas had quite a lengthly peitition, but Mr. Bennett had the unanimous endorsement of the State Central Committee of Kent County of the Republican Party and the support of Mr. Wm. P. Jackson, National Committeeman, in addition to numerous personal endorsements. His appointment meets with general satisfaction to the patrons of the office and his party constituency, all of who recognize his general ability and service to his party. Both the other gentlemen are numbered among the leading citizens of the town.

Mr. Bennett is a gentleman who is well fitted for the duties of the postmastership, having wide and varied experience in business affairs, as well as work pertaining to the public. He was for many years a successful farmer and dairyman, and has served the community as County Commissioner, member of the School Board and the Board of Supervisors of Elections, all of which positions he filled with enviable credit, and will no doubt fulfill the duties of his new office with the same degree of efficiency and satisfaction. For the past four and a half years he has been president and manager of the Noland-Bennett-Russell Motor Co., one of the leading organizations of its kind on the Eastern Shore. While the term of the present incumbent expires October 29, Mr. Bennett has asked that his appointment be dated as of Nov. 1, to avoid the necessity of double checking and accounting for the brief interval of the month end.

Mr. Thomas D. Bowers, the retiring postmaster of the Chestertown office, has served the public in a most efficient and courteous manner for eight years, being appointed to the office in 1914. He has made a most progressive and courteous officer, having served the public well. Many advances have been made in the Chestertown postoffice during his incumbency. He retires with the best wishes of the patrons of the office and the public generally.
