DEMOCRATIC

Meetings

Millington

COMEGY'S HALL

—ON—

Saturday, October 27

AT 8 P. M.

James M. Mullen and other State candidates will speak.

Rock Hall

—ON—

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3

AT 8 P. M.

Clarence W. Perkins, Esq., and other speakers will be present.

Both ladies and gentlemen are cordially invited to all these meetings.

THERE is no doubt in the minds of those who are observing the drift of politics that the current is swinging strong to the Democratic ticket throughout this state and especially so in this county.

WE wish to urge upon every Democratic voter in this county the importance of going to the polls on Tuesday, November 6, and voting the entire Democratic ticket. A large majority of Democratic affiliated voters does not count in the election unless they vote and you may depend upon it the Republican voters will be on hand and cast his or her vote for the Republican candidates, and the only way the Democrats can win is for the Democrats to go to the polls and vote. If the Democratic voters will do their duty to their party on November 6, there will be but on result—a large Democratic majority. Voters, don't imagine the ticket is going to win anyway and stay home, thinking the rest of the voters will put the ticket over. Your vote is needed to make the victory decisive. Democrats, do your duty!

WEDDINGS

The wedding of Miss Olive P. Kent, of Wilmington, formerly of Chestertown, daughter of Mrs. Charles H. Blanchfield, of this town, and Samuel C. Sparklin, of Wilmington, took place Saturday in Christ M. P. Church, Baltimore. Miss Kent has many warm personal friends in Chestertown.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Townsend, of Millington, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Margaret E. Townsend, to Alfred E. Buck, of Boston. The wedding will take place the latter part of this month.

All Halloween

Monday night will be Halloween night, the night when young and old forget their troubles and the serious side of life to visit the lond of spooks, witches and black cats.

The question arises, "What and why is Halloween?" Like all traditions, it dates back for many centuries and there is a number of differences in opinion, but in view of the fact that it comes the night before All Saints Day, the tradition holds that on that night the ghosts and spooks of all the saints come out for their annual maneuvers.

GOV. RICHIE AND PARTY SPEAK IN CHESTERTOWN

Arrive Here About 1.30 Thursday Afternoon

MEETING WELL ATTENDED

Governor Ritchie and his running mates on the Democratic ticket arrived in Chestertown Thursday on schedule time and after luncheon at the Parish House of Emmanuel P. E. Church went to the Lyceum Theatre, where a large crowd awaited them. Governor Ritchie, as has been his policy in his talks throughout the state, made plain the progressive program he has in store for the state. One of the principle things the Governor is now interested in is what the state has done and is planning to do for the farmers in the protection of their live stock from tuberculosis. The Governor's administration has surely been a progressive one. He has put into effect more progressive ideas and efficient polices than any other Governor in our recollection and has a number on the program for the future. The other state candidates also spoke along the same lines and promised continuation of the progressive policies already in effect.

—Some fishermen, thinking that fish abounded in Radcliffe Creek, now that the paper mill has not been discharging its poisonous pulp into the stream for several years, went to the old fishing grounds recently, but did not catch aa single fish. There was a time when Radcliffe Creek abounded with fish like Morgan Creek, but that day seems forever past.
