GENERAL ELECTION RESULTS

Democrats Elect Governors In Three States—Vermont Elects Republican Senator—Other Election News

Three states elected Democratic governor Tuesday—Maryland, Kentucky and Mississippi.

Vermont, where the only senatorial contest was held, returned a Republican—Porter H. Dale—who defeated P. H. Pollard, cousin of President Coolidge.

In the seven contests for the House, the Democrats won four and the Republicans three, one of the Republican victories being an upset in which former Rep. Fairchild defeated his Democratic opponent for the place made vacant by the death of J. Vincent Ganley in the 24th New York District. Party alignment was unchanged in the other congressional elections.

The victory of the Democrats in Kentucky, where Rep. W. J. Fields defeated C. I. Dawson, represented the shifting of a pendulum which at the last election swept Gov. E. P. Morrow, Rep., into office. Mr. Fields' majority was decisive and he will have a Democratic legislature to support him.

Governor Ritchie is now being spoke of as a possible candidate for the Democratic Presidential nomination in 1924.

Philadelphia returned W. F. Kendrick, Republican, as mayor by about 225,000 majority.

H. L. Whitfield, Democratic candidate for Governor, had no opposition.

In New York State, the Republicans retained control of the General Assembly, but the Democratic judiciary ticket in Manhattan and the Bronx was swept into office, overwhelming the Republican and Independent ticket supported by W. R. Hearst. The Soldiers' Bonus was carried and the hydro-electric project beaten.

Local issues were voted on in various sections of the country. Virginia tourned down a $50,000,000 bond issue for good roads.

Ohio elected mayors supported by the Ku Klux Klan in several cities.

In Illinois Miss Mary M. Bartelme, the first woman to be elevated to a Circuit Court judgship, was elected in Cook county. She is a Republican and led the ticket.

The New Jersey legislature remained in the Republican column, notwithstanding the vigorous campaign waged by Governor Silzer, Democrat, for a Democratic law making body.

American Party candidates, who waged a fight in Utah under the slogan "separation of church and state," were beaten.

Mayor Rolph, Republican, of San Francisco, was re-elected.

The results of the senatorial and the congressional elections will leave the two Houses of Congress with this line-up: House, Republicans, 225; Democrats, 204; Socialists, 1; Independent, 1; Farmer-Labor, 1; Vacancies, 3; Republican majority, 18. The Republican mojarity in the Senate will remain at 6.

The election in Maryland resulted in the victory of the entire State Democratic ticket by over 40,000. Baltimore gave Governor Ritchie a majority of about 50,000, which was cut down considerably by the Republican majorities of the Western Shore and Eastern Shore Counties.

The Eastern Shore gave Armstrong a majority of about 2500 over Ritchie, Kent and Queen Anne's being the only counties on the Shore to give the Governor majorities.

Both parties had a hard time in this county in getting out their vote, which was about 20 per cent short.

Topheavy Democratic majorities in both the Senate and the House are the results of Tuesday's election. The next State Senate will have 22 Democrats and 7 Republicans. Nine of the Democrats and two of the Republicans are holdovers. Two more Democrats—Roe, of Queen Anne's, and Copper, of Kent, were elected without contests. In the House the Democratic majority will be almost 4 to 1. According to present returns there will be 93 Democrats and 25 Republicans.

Governor Ritchie's plurality over Armstrong in Baltimore city was 41,119. His fight in the counties was a standoff. The Governor's colleagues on the state ticket carried the counties by large majorities.

In the next three years there will be but one regular session of the General Assembly of Maryland, that of 1924.

Robinson's plurality in the counties was smaller than either Young's or Gordy's.

Speaking of Governor Ritchie's victory last Tuesday in regards to its effect nationally, the New York World says: "The Maryland result will put Governor Ritchie in the minds of many Democratic convention delegates as a liberal candidate. He was re-elected by the largest majority on recent record in a State, part agricultural and part metropolitan, which does not have the habit of re-electing Governors. Being ardently wet, anti-klan and pro-racing, Governor Ritchie edges into the national spotlight with Governors Smith, of New York, and Silzer, of New Jersey, who also won some measure of personal success yesterday."

Both the wets and drys are claiming control of the State Legislature of this state.

Complete returns from Baltimore county give Governor Ritchie a majority of 3,604 votes.

THE MODERN FUNERAL

The methods and systems in vogue a few years ago, and still adhered to by many, are no longer applicable in this age and generation.

A better understanding of the duties of the funeral director has changed the old order.

One of the most difficult problems confronting the modern funeral director will be solved when the public realizes that SERVICE is the principal, and, in fact, only commodity which we have to offer.

The casket and funeral appurtenances are negligible, or practically so, requiring little or no experience, and, in the matter of expense, consistent with the cost of production.

SERVICE is the main considerataion—the care and disposition of the body of the one who has passed on, knowledge or ability, and a readiness to relieve the burdens of the ones who are left to mourn.

The principal reasons for EMBALMING are: (1) Sanitation, for it is an absolute prevention of communication by infection; and (2) the restoration of color and form.

Embalming is not, as is generally supposed, a lost art. The modern EMBALMER is a thoroughly trained sanitarian, a student of anatomy and chemistry. In his work he employs none of the crude and barbarous methods used by the ancient Egyptians.
