Misses S. Lillian and Ruth E. Townsend, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Townsend, of Centreville, are probably entitled to the honors of being the most successful raccoon and opossum hunters in the Eastern Shore of Maryland. Recently they went out with the night hunters and bagged four opossums and one raccoon.

—"To the Ladies," a Paramount picture directed by James Cruze, who was responsible for the directing of the far-famed picture, "The Covered Wagon," will be shown at the Century Theatre during the week beginning on Monday, Dec. 10. This picture was adapted to the screen by Walter Woods from the very successful stage play by George S. Kaufman and Marc Connelly.

—Senator Johnson and Secretary Wallace may hold their much-talked of "milking contest" in Queen Anne's county.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE

Basketball practice has begun in earnest. Coach Kibler expects to put practically the same team on the floor as last year. Gordy, captain and center 1922-23, was lost by graduation last June and his absence will be felt. Despite this Coach Kibler hopes to round out another championship quint, with either McGrann, a newcomer of high repute, or Bankert, junior varsity center 1922-23, holding the center position. The new uniforms for this year consist of maroon jerseys with numbers on them, white pants and maroon and black stockings. The first game will be played Saturday night (tonight) when a strong picked team from the squad will meet the varsity in the local gymn.

Rev. N. O. Gibson, pastor of the local M. P. Church, spoke at chapel exercises Tuesday morning, Dec. 4.

The students of Washington College have picked an All-Maryland football team for the Collegian. It is interesting to note how the students judge the ability of the men comprising the state elevens. The Collegian containing the team will be out in about a week.

The Adelphia Literary Society will present the following literary program Monday, Dec. 10, in Wm. Smith Hall at 7 p. m.: Scripures, Zimmerman; report of committee on new constitution; reading from Poe, Cooper; vocal solo, Armstrong; talk on "The Varsity Club," by Duffy; Moonbeam, Griffith; critic's report; adjournment.

Physical education, under the direction of Coach J. T. Kibler, began last Monday, Dec. 3. All students excepting Seniors, and the basketball squad, take these exercises. The boys have it on Monday, Wednesday and Friday; the girls on Tuesday and Thursday.

The Mt. Vernon Literary Society presented the following program on Wednesday, Dec. 5: Piano solo, Miss Crew; public speaking class conducted by "Prof." Harry Russell, in which Misses Jewell, Shriver and Wickes and Messrs. Parker, Powell, Culley, Carroll, Chandler and Wilson participated; critic's report, Cullen.

A club known as "The Varsity Club," has been recently organized at the college. All men earning their W in athletics at Washington are eligible for membership. The following were chosen officers: President, C. E. Duffy; V. P., W. E. Griffith; Sec., H. S. Russell. A club room has been fitted up in the gym.

Cheaper By Far Is Oak Flooring

LOOKING BACK OVER OUR RECORDS FOR THE PAST TEN YEARS, WE FIND THAT OAK FLOORING IS MUCH CHEAPER TODAY THAN ANYTIME DURING THE ABOVE PERIOD IN COMPARISON WITH THE RELATIVE COSTS OF OTHER STYLE FLOORING.

Now that you are interested, read the rest of the story.

Nature has particularly favored this splendid and most substantial of all American Hardwoods. Its very name stands for durability, while as a flooring, the natural beauty of the wood is unexcelled. In short, it combines.

"Endurance and Beauty"

THERE IS AN OAK FLOORING GRADE FOR EVERY FLOORING PURPOSE—FROM PUBLIC BUILDING TO PRIVATE HOME AND FROM CASTLE TO COTTAGE.
