Lectures Are Big Success

Those who do not attend cannot know what pleasure and information they are missing by not hearing the Current Event Lectures by Mr. A. Vantier, of Philadelphia. These lectures were secured by the Literary Club and while those who attend feel it is well worth the effort they made, yet it is a disappointment that there are so many vacant seats. There are four more of these lectures on the first Monday of the month and it is to be hoped that there will be many new faces to welcome him on the first Monday of the New Year.

The Oyster Business

Judging from the news columns of the Baltimore City press, the oyster business is on the decline in that city. There was a time when Baltimore's harbor was filled with oyster boats, but now Cambridge and Crisfield have drawn most of them away from the state's metropolis. Crisfield and Cambridge have large packing houses and oyster boats find it much easier to get there than to cross the bay. Fifteen years ago Maryland marketed eight to ten million bushels of oysters; then, about seven years ago, the amount dropped to about six million, and last year we did not reach the four million mark. This indicates that there is a decrease in the amount gathered. A few years ago the tongers received from 30 to 60 cents a bushel; today these same tongers are getting from $1.10 to $1.40 a bushel.

Sees Fraud In Dollings Co. Plan

Kent stockholders in the Dollings Co. will be interested in statements of Judge Dickinson in the United States District Court in Philadelphia last week. He said the Dollings Co. was a stock jobbing fraud, and he denied the application for a continuance of the business. According to Judge Dickinson, the scheme of the Dollings Co. to reorganize and refinance from the corporations was fraudulent from the beginning. Victims included not only the 5,100 stockholders who invested their money, but the companies that were Dollings controlled. He said, in an opinion, the proper action for the Court to take was to permit the receiver, Thomas Raeburn White, to wind up the Dollings Co. affairs, distribute its assets among the creditors and help free the subsidiary companies from the Dollings influence.

—Thieves broke into the store of L. A. Pennington at Kennedyville recently, stealing hinges, several kegs of nails and other articles. Urieville Mill was also robbed of window frames and other parts of a building.

BETTERTON

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Owens, Mr. and Mrs. William Sykes, and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Moore entertained at family dinners on Thanksgiving day.

Among those at home for Thanksgiving were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sykes, Misses Grace Tull, Bessie, Alice and Mary Taylor, Beulah Unruh, Messrs. John Owens and Walter Crew.

When Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brice and Misses Crew, Pinder and Leager were returning from a visit of several days from Easton, Penna., when they had the misfortune to have two suit cases and two hand bags stolen from their car while making a stop in Philadelphia. Not only were their clothes taken, but practically all of their Christmas gifts they had purchased.

Mr. and Mrs. James T. Crew have closed the Betterton House and gone to Wilmington for the winter.

Mr. Harris Crew has had a very attractive cement driveway made up to his home, "Bayside Inn."

Very interesting Bible study classes are being held at the church every Wednesday evening at the close of the prayer service. Everyone is cordially invited to join the class.

Mr. Floyd Crownhart has purchased the house on Main Street from Mr. Edward Myers.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sykes were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sykes for Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Harry Crew is spending the week with her son in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brice entertained several friends on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Anna Smyth Brice spent the Thanksgiving holidays with friends in New York.

Mr. John Brice is having his house enlarged and a bath room added.

DODGE BROTHERS

have not simply brought out a complete new line of motor cars. They have done something infinitely wiser and better than that.

They have brought out New Beauty, New Riding Ease and New Mechanical Perfection to the Product on which their Reputation as Builders has been Founded.

They have built a better and a more deservable line of motor cars—yet basically and fundamentally the idenity of their product remains the same.

The same Sturdy Engine is under the hood, the same dependable chassis, improved in numberless details, underlies the body.

But the rear springs--now underslnng--have been materially lengthened. The wheelbase, too, is longer, and the combined result is a notable improvement in riding qualities.
