St. Johns presented a well coached aggregation with plenty of beef. They were handicapped somewhat by poor head work on the part of their quarterbacks. There biggest drawback, however, was an inspired Washington team. Spring and Captain Roseberry, for the Johnnies, are a pair of fine backs. The St. John's line averaging close to 180, didn't have a chance to show anything for they never got started.

Flowers To Be

Retained By Robins

The New York HERALD-TRI-BUNE carried a story last week to the effect that Manager Wilbert Rob-inson, of the Brooklyn Robins, had decided to carry Jake Flowers on the 1928 roster. Before the end of the season it had been planned to send Flowers back to the Coast. However, near the windup of the year, Jake Washington-St. John's game is a ALRY. got back into the lineup and played whole flock of things. wonderful ball.

The report on Sunday that Robinson had acquired Dave Bancroft as captain and shortstop of the Brooklyn team for next year probably means that Flowers will be carried game. as pinch-hitter and utility man, a role he filled remarkably well for the pionship of the world.
