ESTABLISHED 1841.

W. B. USILTON. FRED. G. USILTON.

WM. B. USILTON & SON,

EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.

CHESTERTOWN, MD., - - JUNE 15, 1895.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND has accepted an invitation to attend the great Southern Exposition at Atlanta, Ga., in August.

THE ticket nominated by the Queen Anne's Democracy is first class in every respect, and it will receive the full support of all the factions. This indicates the grand metal of which our neighbors are made. The Observer thus counsels: "Every man, irrespective of faction, should hurry to place himself in line, and when the word comes to "charge" let him bear down upon the enemy with a song of glorious triumph."

A Few Last Words.

Every Democrat in Kent should take sufficient interest in his party to vote today in the primary. Whether there is any contest or not, go out and honor the candidates by voting for them. The promise is for a good ticket, and, headed by such men as Pearce and Wilmer and Nicholson for the Legislature, and other equally good Democrats for county offices, and keeping clear of factional issues, there should be no apprehension of a reverse in November. There can hardly be anything but the most perfect harmony in Tuesday's convention, as the nomination plan is so plain that entanglements are hardly possible. The delegates have simply to record the result of to-day's election, and that, as above stated, has for some time been clearly foreshadowed as placing upon the ticket men of special ability and high character. Candidates having the highest vote in their districts must receive the support in good faith of the delegates elect in such district, whether said delegates are personally in favor of such candidates or no, so that in every case the matter will all be settled by to-day's ballots.

Again, we say, go to the polls and help swell the aggregate number of participants. Some good Democrats may consider this a trifling matter, but it is not. The party needs every incentive all can give in the great battle upon which we are about to enter, and any neglect—any indiscretion—at this important hour may be fraught with ruinous consequences to the cause we all profess to love.

COUNTY DEMOCRATIC CONVENTIONS.

Talbot County.

The Talbot County Democratic Convention met in Easton on Tuesday last and nominated a ticket and elected delegates to the State convention, instructing the delegates to vote under the unit rule for State nominations. The convention also adopted resolutions indorsing Senator Gibson and Gorman and instructing the Delegates to the Legislature nominated to vote for Senator Gibson. The ticket, which was nominated unanimously, is as follows:

State's Attorney—Wm. E. Stewart.

Orphans' Court Judges—Jerome B. Bennett, Francis A. Benson, Wm. C. Dudley.

County Commissioners — Robert G. Dawson, (six years;) Samuel A. Harper, (four years;) Thomas A. Dudley, (two years.)

Sheriff—Edward G. Lowe.

House of Delegates—Wm. Thos. Harrington Lee, Wm. Collins, Alga Smith.

The delegation elected to the State convention are Chas. S. Carrington, Chas. R. Wooters, J. Frank Turner, of Easton, district; John Thos. Harrison, of St. Michael's district; Wm. T. Merrick, Jas. H. Willis, of Trappe district; Harry J. Hopkins, Chapel district; Frank G. Wrightson. The delegation as before stated, was not instructed, except to vote under the unit rule for State nominations.

Queen Anne's County.

The Democratic convention of Queen-Anne's county met in Centreville on Tuesday and nominated the following ticket:

Senator—Woodland P. Finley.

House of Delegates—Jno. O. Phillips, Eugene Dudley, Geo. M. Vansant.

State's Attorney—J. Frank Harper.

Judges of the Orphans' Court—C. H. Jefferson, Chas. R. Walls, Louis Hergenrather.

County Commissioners—John F. Godwin, (six years,) J. B. Bright, (two years.)

Sheriff—Jas. L. Wooleyhand.

Surveyor—Thos. B. Johnson.

Delegates were elected to the Democratic State convention as follows: John R. Cook, Thomas J. Keating, Jr., Arthur Reed, Edward F. Hammond.

The convention met in the courthouse and was called to order by State Tax Commissioner Thomas J. Keating, as chairman of the State central committee.

George Vansant was elected temporary chairman. He appointed as the committee on credentials Messrs. Hart, Rochester, Wilmer, Cook, Hammond, Sparks and Chairs, one from each district. The committee reported.

The nomination of the ticket was proceeded with.

Woodland P. Finley was nominated for State Senator from the Keating faction and W. W. Busteed from the Brown element. Mr. Finley was nominated by a vote of 22 to 13. These figures represent the comparative strength of the two factions, in the convention, and were unchanged during the proceedings except that the selection of Mr. Harper for State's attorney was unanimous.

No resolutions were passed.

IN Lowell, Maine, last Saturday night a safe in a store was robbed of $50,000. The thieves had discovered the combination to the lock and after gathering the valuables relocked the safe so that the loss was not discovered until late next day.

LOCAL POLITICAL NOTES.

Last Tuesday brought many country Democratic politicians to town (and a few Republicans, who seem to take a lively interest in the doings of their opponents,) and during most of the day the Court House green was alive with the caucusing crowds. There were some surprises. Chief Judge James S. Harris, who was conceded a renomination by every one in recognition of his faithful service in the Orphans' Court, announced his determination to refuse another term, and all efforts to prevail upon him to change his purpose were in vain.

The interested ones then began to look around for the right man to fill the gap in the prospective ticket. Numbers of names were suggested. Commisioner Rodenhiser, from the same section of Mr. Harris; Mr. Lucas Alrich, a candidate for Commissioner, Mr. George Reese Beck, Richard C. Smyth, all prominent Democrats from the same district, were named as excellent material for the vacancy; also from the fourth district, ex-Judge Wm. S. Walker, Messrs. S. Vannort, John Brice and J. M. J. Byron. All of these, who were present, refused positively to enter the field for the position, but finally the friends of Mr. Byron succeeded in pursuading him to withdraw from the contest for commissioner and accept a nomination for Orphans' Court.

Before the above matter was settled another surprise was announced in the withdrawal from the commissioner fight in the fifth district of Mr. Horace Willson. This gentleman is the "young" member of the present board and for a time has had almost a clear field in his district for renomination, although there has been much bitter comment against him for not more liberally parcelling out the road mending business. Opposition candidates began to come out until there were no less than five in the field. Mr. Willson thought this an indication of party trouble, and, desiring above his own interests the success of his ticket at the election, determined to withdraw. His numerous friends regret very much to lose him from the ticket. His withdrawal does not stop the contest in his district for the commissioner nomination, although the number of candidates is thereby lessened.

The withdrawal of Mr. Byron from the contest for county commissioner in the fourth district simplifies the situation here greatly. It bid fair to be very animated, though it was good natured on both sides and the petty personalities so often indulged in such contests, was almost entirely eliminated from this. An agreement, significant of this good spirit, had been entered into to the effect that neither side would use money, whiskey or other corrupt means to influence voters on the day of election, and we believe it was the determined purpose of both sides to strictly carry out this understanding.

The hottest fight in the county probably is for the position of County Treasurer. But two candidates are in the field, and both in Worton, to which district this office is conceded by the Democrats. These two candidates are Messrs. James T. Ireland and Samuel F. Cooper. They are both good men and either would make a strong candidate. The friends of each in the several districts are hustling for votes, and the result of the count to-day will be awaited with much interest. The "outlook" is about this: Both are confident of carrying their own district—the third—and both are fighting for and claiming all the other districts; but Mr. Cooper seems most confident of the first and fourth and Mr. Ireland most sure of the second and fifth. A close contest in the home district we believe is conceded by all.

Another interesting fight is that for the sheriffalty nomination. The situation on this line is the same as that outlined in our last issue. Mr. Benj. P. Morgan is hoping to carry his own district, and also the second, third and fourth, while Constable John F. Voshell is hopeful also of his own and two other districts. Mr. Thos. J. Fletcher, of the fifth, was in town on Tuesday and urged his friends to make his fight all along the line. He is certain of his own district and hopes for success in at least two others. He says his district is entitled to the sheriff. Mr. J. C. Biddle also announces himself a candidate for sheriff, and wants his friends to vote for him.

THE heated primary contest in our neighboring county, Queen Anne's, as stated elsewhere, resulted in a victory for the "Keating wing." They carried four of the seven districts, namely: Sudlersville, Church Hill, Kent Island, and Queenstown, and elected two of the delegates in Crumpton. The surprises were in the Keatings carrying Queenstown and the Browns partial capture of Crumpton. Money is said to have played a conspicuous part in the election, both sides spending large sums. This is the worst feature of the contest.

AN explosion of fire-damp occurred in a mining pit near Antonienhutte, Prussian Siliesia, while over five hundred men were at work in the mine. Only forty have been rescued, leaving 460 entombed.

IT took four 200-acre farms in Delaware to pay the expenses of a law suit in settling a man's estate.

CHARLES T. WESTCOTT, ESQ., of this county, has a very lively boom for the Republican Gubernatorial nomination, notwithstanding the indifference of Mr. Westcott himself for such an honor. His friends captured the "prizes" at the recent State Central Committee meeting, and fixed the time and place for the State Convention. The Baltimore Herald of last Sunday says:

"It's reported that this combine proposes to accomplish, if possible, the nomination of Charles T. Westcott, of Kent county, for Governor; Henry Stockbridge, for Attorney-General, and some man on the Western Shore for Comptroller, while in the municipal fight its candidate for Mayor would be Wm. T. Malster."

The American says:

"The surprise of the week was the strength shown by Mr. Chas. T. Westcott, of Kent. His possible candidacy was boomed by shrewd and able politicians from across the bay, and assumed considerable proportions. Mr. Westcott has not made any effort to forward his own interests, but it is probable he will prove a considerable factor in the coming race."

SENATOR GIBSON won a signal victory in Talbot Saturday. His enemies made a tremendous noise—they started an "anti-Gibson movement" early, and said they were fully organized in every district, and to judge from the communications in the Baltimore Sun from its Talbot correspondent the "antis" were going to carry everything before them. Here is the result: Every district in the county goes overwhelmingly for Gibson, and the county convention on Tuesday nominated delegates in his interest.

The Easton Star says the party in general in Talbot will be satisfied with the ticket nominated and give it a hearty support.

THE convention of the "friends of silver" at Memphis, Tenn., this week was a tremendous demonstation. Fifteen hundred delegates attended, including about a dozen United States Senators and many others of the most prominent officials of the South and West. Stirring speeches were made and the whole tenor and work of the great gathering indicated the determined spirit of the people they represent in very wide sections of our country. It will require the wisdom of the wisest of both the old parties to steer safely through the "financial breakers" next year.

GEN. WADE HAMPTON is for "sound money" and thinks President Cleveland should be nominated for a third term. The general holds a good fat office.

No More of McKinley.

The improvement in business, the rise in prices, the advance in wages, everywhere show how well the Senate tariff suits the country. Business men are now saying that the tariff as it is was not only "the only possible revenue measure," but that it is the BEST possible revenue measure; and that the patriotic people of both parties are those who do not propose to disturb it essentially in the future.—Easton Ledger.

THE CHESTERTOWN ICE PLANT

Is now in complete working order, and on June 17, and thereafter, will turn out ice from distilled water, perfectly filtered and pure. Wishing to accommodate the town with this commodity, and to serve all as early as possible in the day, it is kindly requested that customers so arrange as not to delay, but will have their refrigerators ready to receive the ice, or allow it to be laid at their door. The capacity of the plant is sufficient to supply the town and surrounding country. And it is open for contract for the season. The factory will not be run on Sunday's only under compulsion. No ice will be delivered on Sundays by the wagon, or at factory, only in case of sickness or absolute necessity.

Respectfully, R. G. NICHOLSON.

A CARD TO VOTERS!

The undersigned would respectfully announce himself a candidate for commissioner from the third election district, subject to the Democratic primaries.

j8-3t. LUCAS ALRICH.

A CARD.

I am not a candidate for County Commissioner in the Fifth District. I desire to express my sincere acknowledgements to the many friends who have urged my candidacy and promised me their support, and hope that my withdrawal may tend to harmonize existing differences. I hope all my friends will give the ticket nominated next Tuesday a hearty support.

Respectfully, HORACE A. WILSON.

A CARD.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF KENT CO.:

I hereby announce myself a candidate for Sheriff. I am in the fight to stay, and shall not withdraw under any circumstances unless I am defeated at the primaries. If nominated and elected, I shall perform my duty fearlessly and impartially. I solicit the votes of the Democrats of the First District in the primaries, as it is generally conceded throughout the county that the man who carries the first will be the nominee.

Respectfully, JOHN F. VOSHELL.

A CARD

TO THE DEMOCRATS OF FIRST DISTRICT:

It is reported to me that as a candidate for county commissioner I am influenced by one certain man, and that if elected the same person, or a few others, will be my "chief advisors," &c. I desire to say that there is no truth whatever in such reflections. It is very unjust to me. I have been made a candidate by numerous friends in every part of this district, and if I shall be fortunate in securing a nominalion and election I shall know no one man, but shall, "without fear, favor or prejudice" endeavor conscientiously to discharge the duties of the office. My enemies I expected to use every means to defeat me, but I hardly supposed they would resort to such unfounded and unjust slanders. I trust none of my friends will be influenced by any such things, but on the 15th instant I shall have a general and hearty support, and I assure them all that I shall show my appreciation by my acts.

SAMUEL TODD.
