FAIRLEE NOTES.

"Hurrah! hurrah! we are on a load of straw!" were the ejaculations of a happy company on a straw ride Thursday evening, 8th inst. They came from Mr. S. H. Todd's and made our citizens feel like taking part in their gleeful pastime.

Mr. Allie Baker's little boy, Henry, was hurt badly by being thrown from a horse on Thursday, 8th inst. He soon rallied and is all right now.

Mr. Wm. Klein has trimmed his thorn hedge here in the village, and it looks much better. Oh, that others would follow suit in the east end of town.

Mr. Somebody has a lot of hogs running rampant, and they are giving trouble.

Rev. J. B. Merritt preached at the colored camp in Georgetown Thursday evening, Aug. 8.

Mr. A. M. Kendall lost a valuable young horse on August 5 with lockjaw, produced by lameness in front foot, though there couldn't be anything found in it, even after death ensued.

Mr. James Bramble lost a good horse the same day.

A big consignment of fruit went over to Baltimore from Buck Neck on the Sassafras last Monday.

Rev. H. Clay Turner and family visited friends in Kent last week, and preached for Rev. J. B. Merritt at Salem last Sunday. His sermon was logical and treated on our personality with God.

The Trumpeter, the evening boat at Buck Neck, is a great convenience to fruit shippers.

A brother correspondeut of the NEWS calls attention to the fact that somebody in his neighborhood—Rock Hall—does not seem to like it because one of our ministers didn't jump right out of bed one night of the late blizzard and submerge himself into the depths of a snow bank to help him get his blockaded team out. I have an idea the divine does not desire to commit suicide, or by his own action to contract pulmonary trouble, even for a wayworn traveler in a (reported) debauched condition. A "courting man," however, was on his "way home" and rendered material aid in the extrication. Well, brother, you know "courting" people are apt to be humane, and very often expose themselves to wintry blasts and often get into just such corners as did your benighted wayfarer. Never, never, call a preacher out of bed to help you out of a snow bank, for they are not salamanders, neither are they Icelanders.

Rev. W. W. McKnett, stationed in Baltimore county, came over by Tolchester last Monday to visit his parents at Urieville. He started from the beach about sunset on his bicycle, and when a little beyond Fairlee, on the Worton road, collided with a team in the darkness, damaged his wheel to the extent of $25 and was badly hurt himself. He didn't blame the driver, as he was without his lamp on the wheel. He hired a team to carry him to Urieville.

Rev. Mr. King, of Boston, who is with Mr. S. H. Todd, Chantilly, was at Salem Sunday morning and took part in the services.

The thermometer registered 109° at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, in the sun and out of the wind, and remained there for an hour or so.

Mr. A. W. Fetzer, an artist of Washington, has bought of Mr. Chas. Stevens the house here in the village tenanted by Mr. Spencer Leaverton; also, Mr. Stevens' farms on Swan creek.

Mr. Joseph E. Gilpin, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with his son Frank, on the Baker farm.

Mr. W. F. Sparks and Mr. Wm. E. Keyser are said each to have threshed 11,000 bushels of wheat this season. Mr. T. E. W. Crew, it is reported, went beyond this limit.

Whooping cough is still very prevalent.

Bicycles have rights—so do pedestrians. Now, don't run over us, boys.

I venture to assert we have more travel through Fairlee than any village the same size in the county.

Bicycle caps, russet shoes, belts instead of suspenders, for warm weather, etc., are in style and in use with us; and we say use such things if they are comfortable. Keep up with the times—it does'nt cost any more than to dress in the suits of "ye olden times," and thereby make ourselves to look like cranks. "Don't be out of the world by being out of style." Would not, however, advise foppishness.

Ball night at Tolchester—team after team passing by—some with bells—and all kinds of rigs are in use. Well, it is better to be merry than sad.

Henry Hobbs, colored, stuck the tine of a pitch-fork in his forehead Tuesday, and has suffered since. WEST END.

Millington Notes.

The business here is on the jump. Sixty car loads have been shiyped from this station station up to this date, prices ranging from 50c. to $1.15. Competition makes things lively. Besides our local buyers, Thos. J. McWhorter, J. E. and John Hurlock, Stevens & Moffett, we have with us W. B. BiTgs & Burgenhoff, of Scranton, Pa., Tonkin & Co., for New York; New Haven Co., Providence, R. I.; R. W. Kennedy, Phila., Pa.; Grant Goodman, Pottsville, Pa.; A. F. Waitt, Boston, Mass.; J. D. Prickherd, Buffalo, N. Y.; A. Marks, Hartford, Conn.; J. Leitch, Buffalo, N. Y.; O. C. Whitney, Binghamton, N. Y.; Mr. Williams, Philadelphia and New York.

On Sunday last a swarm of bees entered the room where D. N. Comegys was lying sick. and took up quarters behind a bureau. The doctor was compelled to vacate and take another room. On Monday the bees were evicted by our undertaker, Thomas M. Britton. Dr. Comegys is much improved at this writing, having been at his office twice.

Our sick are all reported convalescing.

Miss May Booker, of Sudlersville, and Miss Eva Booker, of Wilmington, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. W. H. Scotten, at the Frame Hotel.

Miss Edith Britton is visiting her sister at Winchester.

Read Moody & Lusby's ad. and look at the low prices they have marked their stock. A special sale of broken lots in Men's, Boy's and Children's suits, separate pants. Hats and furnishing goods are the special attractions they offer.

Still Pond Notes.

Rev. J. D. Kemp and wife were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Crewe on Friday. They are stopping in Chestertown and drive from there to visit their friends in Kent. Their friends at Still Pond, who are numerous, gave them a very cordial reception.

Miss Pauline Nelson is visiting in lower Maryland.

Miss Bonwill is visiting friends in Caroline county.

Miss Lillian Busick and brother Harry are visiting friends here.

Masters Charley and Howard Dodd, of Chestertown, are guests of Master Walter Harris.

Miss Parrish, of Baltimore, is on a visit to Mrs. T. J. Lockard, of Betterton.

Mr. Frank Howard, of Florida, has been visiting his mother, Mrs. Howard.

Mrs. L. Wilmer Ford has as her guests Miss Daisy Moffett, Misses Carrie Brown, and Mr. Layman and son of Baltimore, and the Misses Jarman, of Phila.

Miss Scott, of Galena, has been the guest of Mrs. Nelson.

Messrs. Mifflin and Jennings Wood, of New Jersey, were guests of L. Harris Crewe on Friday. They were graduated from Drexel Institute with honors in June. The former took the first honors and prize given the Business Department of this fine school.

We are delighted to hear of the appointment of Mr. Arthur L. Harris as Principal of Kennedyville school. He is the third son of Judge James S. Harris, and is an intelligent and highly cultured young gentleman. He was graduated from Abington's Friend School, Jenkintown, Pa., after a three years course, with honors, and during his course was noted for his bright mind and dilligence. We feel sure that he will prove invaluable as a teacher, and that his career in the future will be a marked success.

Galena News.

The workmen have commenced on Mr. Peacock's building. Everything seems moving on the corner. Colored men digging cellars; bricklayers building the foundations; the Messrs. Pippin laying off the work; teams hauling bricks and the county authorities putting in curbing.

Rev. Mr. Fletcher, of the M. E. Church here, is spending his vacation at Ocean Grove Campmeeting.

Mrs. A. Nickle and daughter are on a visit to Mrs. Ireland.

Miss Helen Gooding, of Baltimore, is at the home of Mr. H. J. Gray.

Weather continues warm and dry and farmers say corn is suffering. Thermometer stood 100° in the shade here on Sunday at 3 o'clock P. M.

Democrats in and around here are all satisfied at the ticket nominated, more especially since reading Mr. Hurst's letter of acceptance. We anticipate an old time majority for it in November. P.

Chesterville Notes.

Mr. Wm. King and family, of Wilmington, have been on a visit to Mr. King's mother.

Mr. Raymond Duhadaway, who has been the guest of his friend, Mr. Charles G. Carey, has taken a trip to Kent Island. Raymond graduated with honor from Delaware College in class of '94.

Miss Ethel Solloway has been appointed teacher of Quaker Neck school, and we think will prove an efficient teacher.

Mrs. E. E. Myers, of Philadelphia, is on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Sallie Spry; and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Foster, also residents of the City of Brotherly Love, who have been sojourning at Mrs. J. W. Stephenson's, a sister of Mrs. Foster, have returned home.

The pattering of rain drops on our parched vegetation would sound sweeter than the strains of an Æolian harp. C.

Crumpton Item.

Crumpton is surely in the swim. With plenty of crabs and watermelons, and our streets alive with city people, and two steamboats a day, what more could mortal wish?

Mrs. John Newnam, Mrs. Wm. Newnam and Misses Pearl and Delma Newnam are visiting at Dr. Wallis' and Mr. George Butler's.

Mr. Wm. S. Atkinson has a house full, among whom are Misses Emma McClain and Rosa Shroeder, of Baltimore.

Miss Amy Hubbard is stopping at Mr. John Hubbard's.

Mrs. Florence Merritt, of Philadelphia, is visiting her father, Dr. F. N. Sheppard.

Mrs. Carr, Mrs. Lindsay and Mrs. Clifton are summering in Mr. Earnest Sparks' house.

Rev. W. H. S. Loller and wife, of this place, are spending their vacation with their parents, in Pennsylvania.

Mr. E. M. Brown and family have returned from a few weeks' visit to Harford and other points.

Misses Euginia and Mamie Davis are visiting friends in Baltimore.

Mr. E. Jewell and daughter, Estella, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Davis.

Miss Gussie Godwin, who so efficiently filled the position of assistant teacher in our public school for a number of years, has resigned.

Mr. Obe Man, who had his foot badly crushed while operating a horse-power for Mr. Samuel Coppage, is improving rapidly. It was amputated by Doctors Chairs, of Crumpton, and Hines and Whaland of Chestertown.

A successful wood's meeting is in progress at Double Creek. Sermons were delivered on Sunday by Revs. Chairs, Sullivan and York.

Messrs. J. P. Hartley and Chas. Holden have each had the misfortune of losing valuable horses recently.

Mr. Jas. Potts has the best peach crop in this vicinity. He will get 2000 baskets from 10 acres. Next week we expect to report who has the best flavored peaches judging from samples left at our office, adjoining the drug store.

Mr. Thomas White had two of his fingers badly located in a threshing machine.

The bridge at this point will be closed for a few days pending repairs.

Mr. Chas. Bradley is suffering from a sprained ankle.

We deeply sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Clements who lost their little three year old daughter, May, on on Tuesday, of diphtheria. She was buried on Wednesday at Chestertown.

We hope it will not be more than necessary to call the attention of the parents to the half nude condition in which a few of their boys daily appear on the public wharf and bridge while bathing. STANLEY.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity.

R. Oscar Roe and Carrie B. Roe, administrators c. t. a. of Emily F. Edwards, deceased, defendants, versus
John L. Smith, administrator of James A. Edwards, deceased Charles Edwards and Frank Yates Edwards, defendants.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain mortgaged premises in Kent county, Maryland, which were on the 20th day of April, 1883, mortgaged by James A. Edwards, since deceased, unto Emily F. Edwards, his wife, since deceased, of whom the complainants are administrators c. t. a., as aforesaid.

The bill states that on or about the 20th day of April, 1883, the said James A. Edwards conveyed certain real estate, which is particularly described in the bill and its accompanying exhibit "A," unto the said Emily F. Edwards, his wife, in her lifetime, by way of mortgage to secure the sum of $1,800, with interest from the 20th day of October, 1882, which was then due and owing from said James A. Edwards unto the said Emily F. Edwards, on or before the First day of January 1884.

That said mortgage was assigned by the said James A. Edwards and Emily F. Edwards to Thomas H. Gill, administrator of William C. Gill, deceased, and by said Thomas H. Gill, administrator, assigned to the said Emily F. Edwards.

That the said Emily F. Edwards died on or about the 26th day of March, 1895, leaving a last will and testament naming R. Oscar Roe, her executor, who renounced his right to act as such executor, and the Orphan's Court appointed the complainants administrators c. t. a. of said estate.

That the said James A. Edwards died intestate on or about the 9th day of February, 1895, and the Orphans' Court appointed John L. Smith, his administrator, who is a party defendent to this suit.

That James A. Edwards left surviving him the following heirs at law, who are non-residents of this State, Charles Edwards, who resides in the State of Pennsylvania, and Frank Yates Edwards who resides in the State of New Jersey.

It is thereupon, this 8th day of August, 1895, adjudged, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county, in equity, that the complainant, by causing a copy of this order be inserted in some newspaper published in Kent county, Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks before the 2d day of September, 1895, give notice to the said absent defendants of the object and substance of this bill, warning them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor on or before the 18th day of September, 1895, next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not be passed as preyed.
