Kent News

SATURDAY, - - - SEPT. 14, 1895.

In Society Realms.

One of the most successful meetings of the Episcopal Sewing Circle of St. Paul P. E. Church was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Bell on Wednesday evening. About one hundred persons were present and a most enjoyable supper was served.

Miss Marie Camp, of Rock Hall, entertained a number of her friends on last Friday evening in honor of her guests Miss Wright and Mr. Nathaniel Wright, of Baltimore. Notwithstanding the terrible down pour of rain during the entire evening quite a good many were present. Dancing was indulged in until near twelve o'clock when we were invited to a table laden with all kinds of fruits, melons, cakes, etc., to which all did justice.

Among the many bright and smiling faces we noticed were: Miss Mamie Wright, Mrs. J. Mallory Taylor, Miss Edna Taylor, Miss Edna Ringgold, of Baltimore; Miss May Rogers, of Frederick; Misses Marie Camp, Violet Beck, Georgia Wallis, Mary Willson, Anna Wilson and Elva Friel, of Kent; Mr. Nathaniel Wright, of Baltimore; Dr. W. O. Selby, Messrs. Horace Beck, Bennett Wilson, Charles Willson, Tom Wallis, William Camp, George Camp, Scott Beck, Fred Holmes and others. Messrs. Willson and Ayres furnished the music.

Miss May Hurlock tendered a delightful sailing party to her friends on Wednesday evening. Supper was served on the vessel. The start was made from Buck Neck and the journey continued as far as Steelton.

A yachting party from Baltimore arrived at Chestertown Thursday on the tug Major Allen and took in the "sights" of the town. The party comprised: Mr. George W. Corner and daughter, Mr. Geo. W. Corner, Jr., wife and son, Mr. Thos. Seal, Miss Carrie Matthews, Mr. John Bear, Miss Marian Sanner, Mr. Jas. Fenhagen, Misses Brown, Mr. Morris Grape, Mr. Earnest Betsworth and wife, Mr. Charles Long and wife, Mr. Frank Foshenner, Miss Alice Fenhagen, Mr. Lee Martin, Miss Katie Seal, Mr. Reuben Lee and wife, Mr. Robert Bear, Mr. Ralph Taylor and wife, Miss Laura Evans, Miss Rena Evans, Mr. Frank Diggs, Miss Nellie Diggs, Mr. J. G. Creamer, wife and son.

CHURCH NOTES.

Rev. W. L. S. Murray, of Dover church, has received a call to Salisbury M. E. Church and has expressed a willingness to make the change at the next conference. He has been at Dover several years and is very popular at this place.

The removal of Mr. Lawrence J. Smith from Kennedyville to Delaware left the Christian Endeavor Society without a leader, but the vacancy has been filled by the appointment of Rev. Jesse Shreeve for the remaining three months. The society is in a flourishing condition and is doing much good.

The Chestertown M. E. Sunday school held their reunion Sunday afternoon. Rev. W. P. Compton made the opening address after which Misses Fannie Stuart and Annie May Downey sang a pretty duet. The superintendent, Mr. M. A Toulson, then made an address followed by a sweet song by Miss Laura Thomas.

The monthly missionary meeting of Christ Church Sunday school, was held Sunday, the collection amounting to over $15.

Dr. S. C. Roberts occupied his pulpit Sunday and was welcomed by a good congregation. A notice of regular meetings is noted elsewhere.

Mr. Edw. Hubbard is attending the Seventh Day Adventist Theological College in Massachusetts preparatory to entering the work of that church.

Rev. Edw. Burke preached a fine sermon in Millington M. E. Church Sunday morning on the "Voices of the Sea." He also talked at night.

Dr. S. R. Murray, pastor of Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown, has received a call to a large Presbyterian church in Pittsburgh at a handsome salary.

The "Baltimore News" under prominent headlines says: "Baltimore has an established reputation as a place for great national gatherings. The Baptists have come and gone. Now the ladies of the W. C. T. U. are preparing for their National Convention, which will meet in Baltimore October 18th. Committees have been appointed and the preliminaries are being looked after. Five hundred delegates are expected including Miss Frances Willard and several prominent English ladies. Our county of Kent is grouped with Worcester, Wicomico, Dorchester and Caroline to furnish and serve the luncheon on Tuesday the 22nd. The Maryland State W. C. T. U. will hold its annual convention in Easton, Sept. 24, 25 and 26. Last year it was held in Centreville. When will Chestertown invite the convention?

The Sunites claim they are bolting their party for their party's good. Well we expect in one sense they are correct. Surely the party, if it can stand the desertion and retain its majority, is better off without weak principled members. Yes, they are leaving the party for the party's good.—Cecil Democrat.

YOUNG DEMOCRATS!

Getting in Shape to Fight Republicanism.

Pursuant to call a largely attended meeting of Democrats met in the Court House, Chestertown, Tuesday night, and formed an organization of strength and character, which will lend their aid in electing the full Democratic ticket this fall.

Wm. F. Russell was made temporary chairman, and in accepting the honor, in a few but well chosen sentences outlined the duty of the hour for the young and sturdy manhood of the party in the fight which is already on. On motion of W. W. Beck, Wm. A. Wheatley was unanimously nominated the permanent chairman, with the following vice-presidents: J. Cordray Loud, Alwyn M. Willis, Samuel O. Crouch, John G. Roland, D. Arthur Bacchus, J. Hydie Thompson, T. Romie Byron, W. T. Maslin, Wm. R. Clough, Emory Crouch and Wm. Goodman. Wm. F. Russell and G. Hines Thomas were made secretaries; Eben F. Perkins, Jr., treasurer; and D. Arthur Bacchus, Wm. R. Pippin, L. W. Wickes, W. Harper McFeely and H. W. Catlin were named as members of the executive committee.

Messrs. Charles L. Dodd, Frank H. Howard, H. M. Wallis, L. W. Wickes and W. B. Copper, comprising the committee on resolutions, made the following report:

WHEREAS, By an organization of Young Democrats assembled for the purpose of forming a Young Men's Democratic Club of the Fourth Election District of Kent county—

First, be it resolved, that we do heartily endorse and promise to give our undivided support to the election of the Democratic ticket this fall.

Second, That we believe in the true principles of Democracy and pledge ourselves to use our energies and influence in carrying out and fulfilling those principles.

Third, that this club shall be known as the Young Men's Democratic Club of the Fourth Election District of Kent county, Md.

A committee was appointed which has secured the supper room of Stam's Hall for weekly meetings of the club. The executive committee will arrange to have speakers at many of the meetings, and the outlook is for earnest action and successful work. The following members were enrolled:

Republican Convention.

The adjourned Republican nominating convention reassembled in Stam's Hall on Tuesday and named the following ticket:

For Senator—Charles T. Westcott.
For House of Representatives—Joseph C. Kendall, James H. Baker.
For States Attorney—John D. Urie.
For Sheriff—James A. Casey.
For Orphans' Court—I. R. Leaverton, Wm. H. Lambert, F. H. Harper.
For County Commissioners—J. C. Turner, Daniel Hill, Geo. W. Owens, J. Davis and S. J. Vickers.
Surveyor—Henry Tonkin.

James H. Baker, chairman of the adjourned convention, called the reassembled delegates to order. Joseph H. Harper, secretary of the first meeting, assumed his duties as secretary, and business was promptly commenced.

James H. Baker placed in nomination Charles T. Westcott for the State Senate, and Joseph C. Kendall and Capt. W. D. Burchinal seconded the nomination in speeches strongly endorsing the candidate, and the nomination was made by acclamation. James H. Baker and Jos. C. Kendall were nominated for the House of Delegates by acclamation. Willard Scotten, of Millington; James A. Casey, of Rock Hall, and John C. Davis, of Pomona, were nominated for sheriff, the vote resulting as follows; Casey, 15; Davis, 3, and Scotton, 7½, and resulted in Mr. Casey's election. For the orphans' court, Messrs. I. R. Leaverton, W. H. Lambert, F. H. Harper, Clarence Price, W. P. Crosby and Samuel Mallalieu were put in nomination, but Crosby and Mallalieu withdrew their names and the vote resulted as given above. For county commissioner there was but one candidate named in each district, and upon motion of Mr. Harper, the secretary was instructed to cast the ballot for the convention, making the nomination unanimous. Franklin H. Harper placed the name of John D. Urie before the convention for the State's attorneyship. This nomination was seconded by Messrs. Westcott and Burchinal, and was unanimously endorsed. County surveyor, Henry Tonkin.

Messrs. Westcott, Baker and Kendall responded to calls for speeches and declared the outlook for Republican success throughout the State and in Kent as excellent. Frederick Nicols, colored, also spoke.

DIED.—Sept. 10, 1895, near Lynch's Kent co. Md., MARY A. BRIGHT, daughter of Thomas Bright, aged 20 years.

THE taylor fishing at Tolchester this year has been very poor, owing it is said to the large number of sea nettles that are in the bay. On Monday Col. Wm. P. Howard took a party of ladies to the beach as did also Mr. John N. Dodd but they report poor luck. They caught one taylor, a rock, an eel and a barrel of crabs.

Mr. J. W. Howard, our expert harness maker, spent last week at Rock Hall. He succeeded in catching six taylors and several bay mackeral on Friday night and was very proud of his catch. The sport at Betterton is fine. Our reporter says it never was better. Several boxes of fine perch are shipped to market daily from the place, all caught by hand line. Dr. Barnard was out fishing with a party last Saturday and caught a large number of perch and rock.

Matrimonial. — Miss Mary Elizabeth Ruth, daughter of the late Thomas DeC. Ruth, was married on Wednesday, Sept. 4, to Mr. John Cummings, of Baltimore. Miss Betty Ruth has a wide circle of friends in town.

The wedding of Mr. James H. Brice, son of Mr. James Brice, Chestertown, and Miss Florence May Watkins, of Baltimore, is announced to take place at St. Barnabas P. E. Church, Baltimore, next Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock.

At six o'clock last Wednesday one of the prettiest weddings of the season took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Bergner, 225 Market st., Harrisburg, Penn., where Miss Catharine M. Bergner became the wife of Dr. W. S. Hurlock, formerly of Kent, but now of Harrisburg. Promptly at 6 the bride entered the parlor, which was handsomely decorated with potted plants, on the arm of the groom. The bride's gown was of heavy corden silk, en train, trimmed in real lace, with veil caught back with orange blossoms. She had no attendants except Miss Ethel Bergner, her niece, who held her bouquet during the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Dr. Gilbert, dastor of Zion Lutherian Church. Immediately after the ceremony supper was served. At 8 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Hurlock left for an extended trip North, after which they will visit their parents in Snow Hill. The bride's going-away-gown was of dark blue camel's hair, tailor made. The presents were numerous and handsome. Those present out of town were Mr. J. J. Hurlock, father of the groom; Miss Eugenia Hurlock, his sister, of Snow Hil; Miss Ellen Massey, of Millington, and Mr. and Mrs. Abbott, of Baltimore.

A REPUBLICAN SPLIT.

Denouncing Mr. Graham, the Candidate for Comptroller.

[Special Dispatch to the Baltimore Sun.]

SALISBURY, MD., Sept. 10.—The Parsons-Owens faction of the republican party of Wicomico county met in Salisbury to-day and adopted resolutions condemning the action of the committee on credentials of the late republican State convention at Cambridge in seating the delegates of the opposing faction, who favored Robert P. Graham for State comptroller. To-day's convention repudiated the action of what it alleges was the bogus convention of the party in Wicomico county in the election of delegates to the State convention and in the nomination of the county ticket. Concluding the resolutions say: "The delegates to this convention and also to the State convention believe it to be their duty to arraign publicly the record of R. P. Graham, the republican nominee for comptroller, as a candidate unworthy of the support of the republican party of Wicomico county and in the State." The resolutions charge that Mr. Graham "helped to rough the county convention;" that "he was a party to the betrayal of Malster," "that he has frequently denounced the republican party," that "he refused two years ago, when a delegate to the State convention, to take part in its proceedings because of the presence of a colored man." The resolutions are signed by L. A. Parsons, chairman, and Peter Bounds, secretary, and seven of the ten districts of Wicomico county were represented. The delegates represent the faction which had a spirited contest in Wicomico prior to the Cambridge convention to control the complexion of the State central committee. A split took place and two conventions were held. There were two sets of delegates to the State convention at Cambridge.

MASURY'S HOUSE PAINTS!

THE MOST ECONOMICAL AND DURABLE in the MARKET.

They are not an experiment but have been in use fer more than twenty years in Chestertown and vicinity. In adopting the same, no error of judgment can be committed, as the goods are established facts, which is best proven by the attached testimonials from Frank H. Howard and W. J. Sappington.

CHESTERTOWN, MD., May, 13th, '95.
MR. PERCY T. MCFEELY.
Dear Sir:—In regard to Masury's Paints they are first-class in every respect and their Combination Lead is the best on the market. It will go further and cover up better than any Combination on the market. We have been using these goods for 20 years and they have given entire satisfaction, and I think we ought to know a GOOD LEAD in that time, being the largest users of Lead and Oil in the county, we know what we are talking about, and we have used some of their Ready Mixed Paints, and think they are the best in the market. You always get a full gallon when you buy their Paint.
Yours respectfully,
Signed, FRANK H. HOWARD.

CHESTERTOWN, MD., May 17, '95.
MR. PERCY T. MCFEELY.
Gentlemen:—I have used Masury's Goods for the past ten years, and I believe Masury Coloring Matter to be the best manufactured. I have used John W. Masury & Son's Pure Combination White Lead to my own satisfaction and to the satisfation of the owners of the property on which I used it. It has stood on my work as good as Pure White Lead and Zinc. I haven't had one single job to crack, peel off, blister or chalk. I have do..e some jobs with Masury's Combination as far back as 1887 and a number all the way along to 1895. Respectfully yours,
Signed, W. J. SAPPINGTON.
