County News.

Fairlee Locals.

Death ensued Mr. Lemuel Clark's illness and he was called to his "home beyond the skies" on last Thursday morning. A kind hearted man gone to rest.

Some of our ladies have been deeply interested in entomology, hoping that in the study thereof to learn something to put to route those little ants. Since you published the letter, Messrs. Editors, last week written by a lady stating that elder leaves would do it, armsful have been gathered and spread around several of our dwellings.

A telephone pole fell against Henry Walley's, colored, house near the colored mission church and knocked a hole in the weather boarding. It will be repaired at the expense of the company.

Mrs. Hepbron and children who spent the summer with their parents, Rev. J. B. and Mrs. Merritt have returned to their home in the city.

Miss Stella Cleaver is visiting Mrs. Wm. G. Smyth.

Quite a large lot of fruit is being shipped from Buck Neck.

St. Paul P. E. Church is very apt to be the first to hold their festival and invariably they lead in the amount realized as net proceeds. The one last week was a success in every way, $118 being the sum realized.

Master Robert Lewis has made an investment by buying a goat. He is being trained to harness and has a number of drivers.

Death entered the household of Mr. Perry W. Gears last Monday at noon, calling to rest his faithful wife. She was sick but a few days. Since her demise Mr. Gears has been prostrated and his life is almost despaired of.

Belmont races, Philadelphia, were witnessed by Mr. Wm. Barnes and his brother Walter.

A most elegant sermon was delivered by Rev. Mr. Cooper, of Bond Chapel, at Salem last Sunday.

An auction sale will be the center of attraction next Saturday night at our P. M.'s store, Mr. Jno. Lewis'.

WEST END.

Piney Neck Locals.

Oystermen report oysters poor, and prices very low.

The public schools opened with a large enrollment. The popular teachers Miss Wallis and Vandyke seem to have no difficulty in winning the affections of the children.

Mrs. Sarah Edwards who has been sick for a long time is better. Mr. Lewin Hyland who has been ill with typhoid fever is slowly improving.

There has been quite an exodus of visitors to the cities.

Miss Mamie Mann who has been a faithful worker in the Epworth League, returned to Philadelphia this week.

Mr. Spencer Walls and wife, of Sudlersville, and Miss Katie McGuire, of New Castle, Del., are visiting at the M. E. Parsonage.

Hunting's show at Chestertown was liberally patronized by folks at this place. People not only went in private teams but one jolly crowd arranged a straw ride, and also visited the show. The following persons were included in the party: Nathaniel Ashley, Willie Edwards, Harry Lake, Romie Crouch, Lew Craft, Mrs. Lake, Miss Annie Couley, Mrs. Annie Rose, of Baltimore, Miss Mamie Mann, of Philadelphia; Miss Jennie Lake and Mrs. Mary Lake, of Trenton, N. J. The driver and manager, was a good old colored brother, Uncle Simon, who, of course was careful to keep in the "middle of the road." They were off early at the singing of the native song, and

"Such a merry, merry chorus
Ringing through the balmy air,
Music all around and oe'r us
Thrills and quavers everywhere.
Songs of gladness, songs of pleasure
Till the joyous day is done."

The thermometer registered about 95 degrees but the dust they thought must surely be 100 degrees. It was an occasion brimful of pleasure, and not

"Till the twilight shadows fall,
Like gauzy curtains over all,"

did they return.

The Epworth League is increasing in interest and members all the time.

The M. E. Sunday school will hold a picnic on the church green Saturday afternoon, Sept. 14th.

Crumpton Items.

The extensive canning establishment of Messrs. Richardson & Arthur is running on full time with a large force. Tomatoes are plentiful and of good quality.

The peach season is at its height over a thousand packages being shipped daily from this point besides many which are sent to Millington. Strange to say, fruit retails higher here than in Baltimore.

Rev. W. H. S. Loller has returned from his summer vacation.

Miss Carrie Bradley has been visiting friends in Wilmington.

Spencer Merrick is spending a few weeks at Mountain Lake Park.

The ladies of the M. P. Church will hold a Sunflower fete on next Saturday, Sept. 21st. All are invited.

A few country bumpkins who imagine they have fast horses still hold to the contemptible practise of racing through our streets on Sunday evenings endangering the safety of pedestrians. If their parents were wiser they would keep them at home until they learned to drive.

Still Pond Notes.

A most delightful dance was given in Still Pond Hall on Monday night, Sept. 9th in honor of Miss Luck Richardson, of Denton, Md. Miss Richardson has been the guest of Miss Bonwill for a month, and during her stay she became extremely popular. Music was engaged but the violinist has yet to come, therefore home talent was called upon. Dancing began about 9 P. M., and lasted until 2 A. M. The committee of arrangements consisted of Messrs. Wm. Crow, Elmer Jarman and L. Harris Crewe.

Among those present were: Miss Richardson, of Denton; Miss Hampton, of Baltimore; Miss Edith Jarman, Philadelphia; Miss Rose Frazier, of Chestertown; the Misses Morgan, of Galena; Miss Woodall, of Georgetown; Misses Etta Massey and Mamie Comegys, of Millington; Miss McCauley, of Galena; Miss Estelle Jarman, of Chesterville; the Misses Josephine and Sarah Jones, Misses Elizabeth and Mabel Rasin, Miss Bonwill, Miss Theressa Raymond, Mrs. E. M. Bonwill. Messrs. Wm. Crow, John, George and Howard Parrot, Geo. Howard, S. Harris Crewe, Elmer Jarman, Willson Cochran, Eugene and Raymond Bonwill, Clarence Comegys, Jessie Ireland, Mr. Hepbron, Dave Ford J. Roy Roseberry, John Morgan and others.

Miss Bonwill spent part of the week in Baltimore.

Miss Amy S. Baynard is visiting in Baltimore.

Mr. R. Sinclair Turner has been spending a week in Philadelphia.

Miss Richardson returned Tuesday to her home in Denton, after a delightful month visit to Miss Bonwill.

Mr. S. Harris Crewe spent Tuesday in Baltimore.

Our P. M. visited friends in Galena on Wednesday.

Miss Daisy Moffett, of Galena spent Sunday here.

Galena News.

John D. Urie, Esq., was in Galena on Friday, 6th inst. trying to convince the Republicans and radical temperance men how good a Republican and temperance man he was and how quick he would break up these Pear Cider dens if they would only elect him State's Attorney, but we thought as a good citizen, and knowing the law to be violated he ought to try and punish the violators of it. The people don't want our State's Attorney or any other officer running around peering into places as spies or informers (for who in any country is more despised than an informer?) From report he did not get much comfort from Democrats. The Democratic party in Kent county is content to give Mr. Slay another term, for a better they cannot find and I have heard several Republicans say they intend to support Mr. Slay as they have perfect confidence in him. We don't propose swapping horses while crossing this muddy stream. The outlook in this district now is for the largest Democratic majority we have had for a long time, for the WHOLE ticket. If there is any favoritism at all it seems that Mr. Todd for commissioner and Mr. Morgan for sheriff, leads them all as we hear nothing but the kindest words spoken of them even by the Republicans and Prohibitionists.

The Democratic Club did not meet last Friday night as expected on account of the rain but nevertheless they are actively at work; they expect to get every young man into the Democratic fold if possible.

There was instituted here on Thursday 5th inst. a conclave of the improved order of Heptasophs by organizer W. S. Lewis in the Odd Fellows Hall with about 30 members. Officers were duly elected. This conclave gives promise of a large membership.

The public school will hold a festival on the sight of the old hotel in a large tent.

Andrew Vansant, son of Mr. J. N. Vansant was overcome by the heat on Tuesday last while working in the cornfield. Drs. Latimer and Kelley relieved the young man and he is now doing as well as could could be expected.

PUSH!

YES, THIS IS A REQUISITE, AND AN ACCOMPLISHMENT DEVOUTLY TO BE WISHED.

WE ARE in the field this season under more favorable conditions than during our Seven Years Clothing Experience. Increased facilities, more varied assortment, better accommodations and with becoming pride we say are better equipped to furnish the trade of Kent and Queen Anne's counties with greater variety of patterns, and lower quotations than has been presented heretofore. Our line of

Men's Suits

Start at $7.35 and slowly climb in price with quality to harmonize every time. We have a Good Suit for $5.00, and a Real Dressy One for $7.50 in eight different patterns, then they graduate up to the English Goods, of which we have a line that should please most anybody, comprising Clays, in Sacks and Cutaways, Narrow Checks, Pin Stripes, &c.

Children's and Boys' Suits:

We have an enormous line, the patterns and qualities are too numerous to tire you with an enumeration. You cannot fail to be suited right here. They Begin at $1.00 and go up slowly with the qualities.

Hats for Boys, Men and Children in endless variety, and cheaper than we ever knew them to be. Having bought low we offer the trade the advantage of same, just as we do in our Clothing transactions.

Underwear, Neckwear and Hosiery

Has also been looked after and we can show you all the novelties in Ties, and some good things in Hosiery and Underwear.

Our Juvenile Department is worthy of attention. Suits for little fellows, 4, 5 and 6 years of age. We have some beauties in Jersey, Velvet and Broadcloth. Chinchillas, Reefers, &c., &c.

Come and see us and believe we can save you something.

Respectfully,

MOODY & LUSBY,
