JUST IMAGINE SUCH A CALAMITY!

Here is a little picture drawn in '87 by a newspaper in Baltimore which now is bending its every effort to beat the Democracy. It was honest then, but now the editor is simply employed for a selfish purpose:

"Let any intelligent man think what the situation will be if the Republican State and city tickets are elected.

"It is perfectly well known that the possession of all the political patronage of a State is a tremendous lever of power. However it may reflect upon the public virtue to state the proposition, we know from all the experience of the past that men see their political duty only too often from the standpoint of their own interests.

"Suppose the entire municipal administration is placed in the Republican hands and the control of the oyster navy, the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, the Legislature and all other sources of political power in the State officered and manned by this hungry political organization, is there any sentient being in the State who supposes they would hesitate to employ the forces at their command in the peculiar ways they so well understand and continue their grasp upon political power and especially to carry the State for the Republican Presidential candidate?

WOULDN'T WE FEEL CHEAP?

Unanswerable logic is found in the following, though it was written several years ago. It is from the Balto. Sun, of Oct. 27, 1887. The conditions now are precisely as then:

"Hand us over now to Republican control, and a shout of triumph will go up from Republican throats all over this broad land.

"But how will our Democratic friends feel toward us? What answer shall we make when they point to the common ruin in which we have involved both them and ourselves? shall we say: "There were political abuses in our chief city which we needed a new election law to reform, and our party was fully awakened to its importance, and its most solemn pledge was recorded that if successful at the polls it would redeem its pledge, but we were told by a corporation attorney, who has nothing in common with ourselves, a fellow bloated with conceit and the impersonation of infinite "cheek," and a half score of others who never cared for the Democratic party or rendered it the slightest service, but who, on the contrary, have tried time and again to defeat it, that the only remedy for our ills was to turn to the Republicans and trust them to do precisely what our own party has promised to do? What answer may we not expect to hear? 'Fools you have been betrayed by your hidden foes into the hands of your enemies. You have parted with your birthrights without receiving even a mess of pottage in return.'"

EXACTLY WHAT IT IS!

This is what the Sun said of the campaign of '87, and that of the present year is precisely the same. Hear it—

"There is no pretense that this is anything but a contest between the Democratic and Republican parties, the latter aided by deserters from the former, who offer neither apology nor excuse for their conduct except that they cannot trust their own party to keep its promises but can trust the other. The logic of this would, of course, land those who present it permanently in the Republican fold, but they tell us in the same breath that they propose to rescue the State next year and hand it over to the Democratic candidate for the Presidency. This is precisely what they cannot do, even if they so desire, which may well be doubted.

EVERYBODY KNOWS IT!

The following was the deliberate declaration in '87 of a man who is now employed to write Republican editorials for the Baltimore Sun:

"Who does not know that a Republican triumph here will not only disarm the Democratic party and place it at the mercy of its Republican adversaries but that the blow aimed at the President will be taken up elsewhere and pressed as a reason for his defeat in other States.

"Maryland stands at the head of the Democratic States of the South, which have been called in derision the 'solid south.' We know that it has been the unremitting effort of the Republican leaders to break this solid front to pieces and thus capture part of its electoral vote. Are our own people prepared to do for them what they have not been able to do for themselves.

A Duck Farm.

Mr. O. J. Schneck, of Peninsula Hotel, spent a day recently viewing a Pennsylvania duck farm, located near Allentown. Mr. Schneck gives a very interesting description of the industry and the methods by which it is made a financial success. There are over ten thousand birds on the premises where Mr. Schneck viewed them. The ducks are thoroughbred Pekins hatched in incubators, on the spot, and their plumage made an aspect of snowy whiteness of acres of ground. To feed these birds a ton and a half of mash is daily consumed. The birds are marketed at the age of six months and upward in New York, Philadelphia, Boston and elsewhere at twenty cents per pound.

Mr. Schneck visited the farm having down in his mind the idea of starting a similar industry at Salisbury. A shallow running stream with clear gravelly bottom and a hard gravelly soil are the first essentials to the best success of such an enterprise. These Mr. Schneck has not been able to find here hence he hesitates.—Salisbury Advertiser.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY

For the Cotton States and International Exposition, Atlanta, Georgia.

The Southern Railroad operates nearly five thousand miles of road in eight of the Southern States and its lines enter Atlanta, Ga., from five different points of the compass. Washington, D. C., is the Northern or Eastern terminus of one of its lines, which is operated in connection with the Pennsylvania Railroad, "the standard railroad of America," between New York through Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, D. C., Lynchburg and Danville, Va., Greensboro and Charlotte, N. C., Spartensburg and Greenville, S. C., Atlanta, Ga., Montgomery and Mobile, Ala., and New Orleans, with connections at Salisbury for Asheville, Hot Springs, Knoxville and Chattanooga, at Charlotte for Columbia, Augusta, Savannah and Jacksonville, and at Atlanta for Birmingham, Memphis, Macon and Southern Georgia. Solid vestibuled limited trains, with through day coaches, Pullman Drawing-room Sleepers and Dining-cars. Time between Washington and Atlanta, eighteen hours, without change of cars of any class.

The Southern Railway is the only line which enters and lands passengers in the Exposition Grounds, and no effort or expense has been spared by the management in the improvement of its roadbed, increasing the number of its coaches and inaugurating its own dining-car service preparatory to handling expeditiously and comfortably the heavy travel to and from Atlanta during the Cotton States and International Exposition, which opens September 18th, and closes December 31, 1895.

On Tuesdays and Thursdays, from Sept. 17 to December 24, inclusive, excursion tickets will be sold from Washington, D. C., to Atlanta, Ga., at $14.00, good for 10 days from date of sale.

Excursion tickets will be sold every day from September 16 until December 15, inclusive, from Washington at $19.25, good for 20 days from date of sale, and excursion tickets for the entire Exposition season with final limit of January 7, 1896, will be sold from September 19 until December 15, inclusive, at $26.26.

Map folders furnished and Pullman Sleeping Car reservations made upon application.
