Slay, Esq., and Col. Wm. Henry Legg, of Baltimore city, will speak. Col. Legg is well and favorably known by every man interested in the oyster industry in the State, and particularly is he known by the oystermen and Democrats of Kent county. Let the Democracy of the Fifth and other districts attend.

The Democratic Club of Worton will have a grand rally at the WORTON HALL, on WEDNESDAY, Oct. 16, at 7½ o'clock. Messrs. Pearce, Slay, and others will address the club.

The Young Men's Democratic Club of Chestertown well meet on TUESDAY EVENING NEXT, at 8 o'clock. The executive committee will secure speakers, and an enthusiastic and interesting meeting is expected. All are invited.

"WHOLESALE FRAUDS!" are declared by the Baltimore Sun to be shown "by enormous registration in a revision year." Is that good logic? If so, who are committing the frauds? We say the Sun's conclusion is not correct, because the very same activity in registration is found in every county in the State. And, secondly, if frauds have been committed they are as likely to be by Republicans as Democrats. Of course the Sun believes now that all Democrats are rascals and the Republicans are saints!

THE latest thing out is the employment of Pinkerton detectives by the Republicans in Baltimore to watch registration! At least this is the boasted declaration of Capt. J. Frank Supplee, a leading Baltimore Republican. Nothing better illustrates the desperation of the city Republicans than this. And no greater reflection has yet been cast upon a well goverened city than this. Pinkerton detectives set to watch free American citizens!

ACCORDING to the Baltimore Sun and Evening News the "Maryland press" consists of the Republican newspapers of the State only. Now and then they find a sweet little mugwumpian article in some sour "independent" (?) sheet and add that to their selections from the Maryland press! The Sun and News, since they have turned Republican, ignore the existence of the country Democratic press altogether. They reflect upon the intelligence of their readers by thus persistently trying to mislead them. The Democratic county press of Maryland is second in high character to no State in the Union, and it reflects honestly the sentiments of the great intelligent masses of the State. But the Sun and News seem to think their readers care only to know the views and movements of Republicans!

THE biggest mass meeting ever held in Chestertown will be that of the 22d.

A SIGNIFICANT feature of the Democratic mass meeting in Baltimore on Monday night was the great speech of Senator Gray, of Delaware. It was a masterly effort and worthy the mind and heart of the Delaware statesman. He is well known to be the close friend of President Cleveland, and he clearly showed the duty of Cleveland Democrats. He said the issue in Maryland is as clearly defined as any political issue can be. It is Democracy against Bepublicanism. A vote against Hurst is a vote against the Democracy—against Cleveland—against every political interest of every Democrat in State and nation. It is especially a vote against Cleveland because the Democratic State platform, upon which Mr. Hurst stands, endorses the President.

THE Democracy of Baltimore have made a happy hit in the selection of HENRY WILLIAMS for Mayor. If there ever was any doubt about the Democracy carrying the city, there is none now. Williams will get from ten to fifteen thousand majority. The Democratic State ticket is also greatly strengthened by the happy outcome of the city convention, and the majority for Hurst and all the State candidates in the city will without a doubt be a splendid endorsement of the Democratic cause.

THE Democracy of Worcester county had a big meeting at Snow Hill last Tuesday. Indeed the account states that nothing like it in numbers and enthusiasm has been seen in recent years. The issue there, as everywhere else in Maryland now, is recognized as Democracy vs. Republicanism.

HON. I. LOBE STRAUS, who is to speak at the mass meeting on Tuesday, the 22d, is a nephew of Hon. Isidor Rayner, and is said to be even more eloquent than his dintinguished uncle.

EVERY mention of the Baltimore Sun was hissed by the Democratic hosts at the great mass meeting in Baltimore on Monday night. Democrats of the city universally spurn the traitor sheet.

A Registration "Meddler."

Mr. Thomas J. Parsons, the registration officer in Worton, received the following letter through mail last Monday. It was postmarked "Melitota, Oct. 7, 1895," and the envelope was directed in the same hand as the letter, so that the month "Nov. 6," is evidently intended to be Oct. 6. We give the letter verbatim:

Nov 6th 1895.

Mister Thomas Parson

We hear you dont want Mr Riley and Mister Freeman around you when you Regester. I reckon you want to cheat us an you feered they will ketch you I wish thay cold, you are feered if the dimcrats loose your children will hav to go to School With ours I wish they would our children good as yourn or any other white trashs an I spects thay will go to white schul soon fur we going to ellect our our men from top to botton, an next yere won of our men will be Regster an won't hav to ask you to Regster us but we can turn down white men same as you turn down colered men, there aint no jestis in you no more is Jedge Weeks we are glad his time is most out and then we can ellect Mr Wescot and then we can expect justis caus Mr Ure is going to beat Mister Slay an you fellers orfises will belong to us and we can have our say. so you better not git to smart for you be sorry thay say you is a detektive now fine out who wites this artickel ever word is true mister

Mr. Parsons would give something pretty to know the author.

Our Local Prohibs.

That our readers may keep posted in the doings of the Prohibition party, we reproduce the following letter from our particular personal friend and brother, Hon. Geo. W. Covington. It is from the Baltimore Patriot of Sept. 23, and in the spelling we "follow copy."

Fire in Kent.

Cheering reports are heard from all parts of the county. Prohibition is in the air, old party henchmen are canning our movements with amazement. Democrats and Democratic whiskey clubs are in order, and volumns of profanity and caustic fringed sentenels are hurled at "you Prohibs," for breaking the Ring slate of the Boss Gorman type in this county. A few years back, our county press, and the dear whiskey party voters said to us, "you are small potatoes"—"you are throwing your votes away"—the tune is now changed, they are now wincing, and in trembleng accents cry out—you Prohib. Voters are cracking our slay-t. Besides there is defection in Ireland. G. W. COVINGTON.

It is really cruel to analyze Bro. Covington's production closely, and yet we cannot refrain from just a little criticism. First, why should this dinguished Prohibitionist have so much denunciation for Democrats and not one word against Republicans? Does he not thus let his bagged cat loose? Could there be better evidence of the purpose of the Prohibition party in this campaign? Is it not simply to get Democrats to throw away their votes in order that the Republicans may win?

As to the strength of the Prohibs, we can't agree with Bro. C. That ticket is not likely to poll more votes this fall than for their last county ticket. A few Democrats may be caught, but no Republicans!

Again, and finally, if what our good anti-Ring and Anti-Gorman brother says is true, that "the Ring slate of the Boss Gorman type was broken," he ought not to be so anxious to beat the Democratic ticket. If it is an anti-Boss anti-Ring and anti-Gorman ticket, as he claims, then he should be happy! And why not help the good people of Kent to elect such a ticket? Some people are awfully hard to please!

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND and the members of his cabinet will attend the Atlanta Exposition this month. The President has declined an escort.

THE CONTRAST!

A Proud Position for the Democracy.

In the present campaign the Democracy holds a proud position. This is so in both State and county. Let's look at it. We take great pride in referring to the contrast between the two parties.

1st, In the State. The record of the Democratic party, in its long control of State affairs, is wonderful for its purity. The sterling integrity of our present State officials is acknowledged by our bitterest enemies. The superior personal character of the nominees for Governor, Comptroller and Attorney General, must be conceded. The platform adopted by the convention is all that any could desire. Another feature, sometimes overlooked, is the fact that Mr. Hurst did not seek the office—the office sought him. He is the very highest type of a candidate. The people, through their representatives, ask for his services. What for? Certainly not for his own benefit. But for the benefit of his State and party. He reluctantly accepted, and now is before the people as the Democratic candidate. More than that, he is the nominee in the ordinary way, the only way in which parties can nominate, and if Judge Robinson or Judge Fisher, or any other of the gentlemen named for the place, had been chosen by that convention they would have been entitled to just the same honor and support that Mr. Hurst now is—no more, no less. Another thing. The ticket is before the people upon the record of the party. The candidates are not ashamed of their principles. THEY FLOAT THE OLD FLAG OF DEMOCRACY. Under it they will triumph or fail.

2d. In the County. Every good thing said of the State ticket can be reiterated of our county ticket. None better was ever nominated. Who will attempt to impeach the integrity, the moral worth, the legal and representative ability of James A. Pearce? His nomination is well known to have been secured after most earnest entreaty from representative citizens in every section of the county. He didn't want the place and only accepted to serve his party and people. Where could two more intelligent and honest men of the people than John P. Nicholson and Philip G. Wilmer be found? And Sam. Cooper; he has been an old Democratic wheelhorse for years; he never flinched in supporting his ticket; he needs the office and is in every way worthy. How about Wm. M. Slay? Will any sane man say that he is not worthy, or that he is not in the highest degree entitled to every Democratic vote? Benj. P. Morgan will make one of the best sheriffs our county has ever had; he is honest, temperate and upright, and fully able to discharge the duties of this office. The nominees for county commissioners cannot be excelled, and every taxpayer will feel safe in their hands, and so with all the other nominees.

The Reverse.

The Republican position is in many respects the reverse of the above. Their campaign must be to all self-respecting Republicans most humiliating. Such a campaign as that party is making was never before known in State or county. We do not mean in the personnel of their ticket—though in this respect it is vulnerable. But in the general campaign management and discussions. Their organs and speakers go before the people with the pitiful wailings of a few disappointed Democrats, and a soured newspaper which will serve any cause it can boss and turn to its pecuniary profit, and its selfish purposes would very soon be apparent if such a calamity as Lowndes' election should befall the State. This Sour Sun is now bossing the Republican party in Maryland. Day after day it sings its pitiful lullibies. After this order the song is—

O that horrid Gorman!
Save from Arthur Gorman!
The devil's a saint to Gorman!
Good devils! take us unto thyself and feed us with the pure milk from thy Reform bottles!
And—shoot—that—Gorman!

The Evening News follows in the same strain, and then the country Republican press and orators accept the touching ode and grind it out in quantities to suit. It is the old story over again of the white Republicans holding their colored brethren between themselves and the fire! The Republican leaders, no doubt, flattered themselves upon the exercise of more than usual cunning when they put the soured old Sun in the fore front and employed it in pulling their chestnuts from the fire, but the spectacle has become so humiliating to their own party, that they are now losing ground daily. That the G. O. P. which once prided itself upon its principles, should now have nothing to go before the people with better than the disappointed whinings of Tom Hall, the father-in-law of John C. Rose, the mugwump reform pettifogger, is humiliating indeed!

Not that the Republican bosses are worrying themselves over the character of their campaign. That is, they are willing to endure the humiliations of sorehead Democratic leadership if it will bring success to the Republican cause. But they are now beginning to realize their hampered condition, and may yet dump their embarrasing allies. In any event should the Republicans win, it will be accepted as a partizan victory—the mask will be thrown off—the thrill of joy will be felt in the Republican ranks all over the country, and the full force of the blow will be against the Democracy in State and nation.

Locally, the Republicans are in the same pitiful plight as in the State. The Republican organ here takes the Sun's soured milk as readily as a kitten does the sweet. And the orators of that party—whenever they can find any Democrats unwise enough to listen to them—use as their key note and song the same stale yarn about a "Gorman ticket." They would just as quickly flatter Gorman and endorse "Gormanism" if by that means they could get Democratic votes for the Republican ticket. This is the whole object of this "Gorman" talk by the Republicans. It probably deceived some Democrats at first, but it can do so no longer. The Baltimore Sun is now a recognized organ of the Republican party. It is using every means, fair and foul, to beat the Democratic ticket, and turn the State and nation over to Republicanism, and there is certainly not now a single Democrat in Maryland who has any respect whatever for its political expressions. We are not at all surprised that the Republicans throughout the State and country should endorse it and take advantage of its treason. Nor that our local Republicans should do the same. But the end of that sort of "campaign logic" has been reached, at least in effectiveness. No Democrat now pays any attention to such nonsensical clap-trap. All know that as soon as the object is achieved, that is, the securement of votes for the Republican State and county ticket, the advantage will all be reaped by that party.

THAT GOVERNOR BROWN did his whole duty in the Supervisors investigation in Baltimore is best evidenced by the dissatisfaction of the partizan Republican newspapers of that city. The American is as mad as a "March hare," and the poor old Sun is so sick that it makes one tired to read its pitiful wailings!

THE election in Maryland in November will determine her electoral vote next year. A vote for Lowndes is a vote for the Republican candidate for President. There is no rubbing that out!

NO, NO! the big registration in Baltimore and throughout the State is not evidence of fraud, but simply that the Democrats are aroused and getting ready to wallop the Republicans in the most approved style!

THE famous Liberty Bell, on its way to the Atlanta Exposition, had a great ovation at Elkton. Twenty-five hundred people surrounded the railroad train and took part in interesting and patriotic exercises.

EX-PRESIDENT HARRISON can well afford to allow his rivals to take the political cakes, if what is said of his law practice is true, and we have no reason to doubt it. For four services as counsel for corporations recently he has received fees aggregating $85,000!

SAYS the Clayton Call: "Nothing since the memorable contest of J. Edward Addicks for a seat in the United States Senate has caused such a sensation in Delaware as did his trip through the State last week en route to Dover Fair."

THE number of names added to the registration in Baltimore foots up 26,317. In former years the numbers have aggregated from ten to eleven thousand.

GEN'L MAHONE, the noted Virginia statesman and politician, died in Washington last Tuesday. He was in his 69th year.

A Powerful Blow at Gormanism.

From the Baltimore Sun.

A stands for Abell,
S stands for the Sun,
And G stands for Gorman.
That son of a gun!"

That's a fair sample of the Sun's argument in favor of Republicanism.

Apples Plentiful.—John W. Jolls, of Middletown has shipped over 8,000 bushels of apples to a mincemeat factory in Philadelphia. He exects to ship large quantities before the season closes. The apples sell at 23⅜ cents a bushel. James F. Shallcross had 23 acres of an apple orchard that bore thousands of baskets of the fruit.
