SUPPER will be provided for all who attend the Democratic mass meeting.

LOCAL POLITICS.

The fight is now on and enthusiastic meetings are being held all over the county. In Chestertown on Tuesday evening the Young Men's Democratic club held a largely attended meeting in Stam's Hall. It was impossible to seat the crowd and many had to stand. J. A. Pearce, Esq., and Wm. M. Slay, Esq., addressed the club and made a favorable impression on their audience. A local song was introduced and heartily sung. It was composed by a Worton Democrat and is as follows:

"Maryland, My Maryland!"

To the Democratic Club of Chestertown, this is respectfully dedicated.

Tune—"Maryland."

We are the Democratic Club,
Of Chestertown, O, Chestertown.
To make Republicans root and grub,
To gain Chestertown, old Chestertown.
May HURST our watchword ever be
To gain old Kent for Democracy,
Till time becomes eternity
In Chestertown, old Chestertown.

CHORUS:—
But won't Republicans be sore?
In Maryland, My Maryland
When we gain old Kent and Baltimore?
Maryland, My Maryland.

We're in the conflict hot and fierce
In Chestertown, old Chestertown,
To gain the Senate for J. A. PEARCE
Of Chestertown, proud Chestertown.
Into the House goes Nicholson,
And Wilmer, too, will go along
To swell the Democratic throng
From Chestertown, proud Chestertown.

CHORUS:—
Republicans you must make way
In Chestertown, proud Chestertown
For State's Attorney, WM. SLAY,
Of Chestertown, proud Chestertown.
BEN MORGAN will not be behind,
He with the others of his kind
Will be elected, as you'll find
In Chestertown, proud Chestertown.

CHORUS:—

Mr. W. F. Russell addressed the Edesville Democracy Friday night in an able address. His remarks were interrupted by frequent applause and his logical reasoning impressed his auditors. A string band of music made sweet music while the Democratic song was also rendered in fine style. The meeting was the best attended and the most enthusiastic yet held and the outlook in the old fifth is growing brighter and brighter.

John Wilson, Clarence Greenwood, Harry Clark, Frank A. Coleman, William Sanders, George Stevens, Columbus L. Kendall, Wash. Atkinson, Frank Wilkins, Richard J. Harris, Amos Crouch, James L. Fogwell, J. H. Kelley, Benjamin Davis, Luther Tarr, Chas. Middleton, Daniel Middleton, Harry Bogle, John and Will Goodman, T. D. Glenn, W. M. Wilson, J. Alfred Cornelius, Geo. P. Orr, Edgar Culley, James Elburn, Thos. O'neal, Wright Robinson, J. C. Wheatley, Simon W. Moffett, Frank Kerr, Jas. C. Culley, Wm. J. Warner, John J. Warner, Samuel T. Urie, James T. Thompson, William H. Creighton, Newton Bogle.

At Galena last Friday night the Democratic hosts turned out in force and gave a hearty welcome to the next senator, James A. Pearce, Esq., who addressed the large audience for nearly an hour. A brass band was in attendance and made good music. State's Attorney W. M. Slay wrote a strong letter to the club which was received with hearty applause. Other addresses were made by Messrs. C. C. Hopper, H. W. Catlin, J. W. Hurtt and Prof. Long.

The Republicans held a meeting at Butlertown Thursday night. Messrs. Burchinal, Westcott and Lucas addressed the audience. Their remarks were on the line of bribery, and the colored voters were urged not to sell their votes.

The Cliff City Democracy were out in force Wednesday afternoon to an oyster roast given by the club at that place, T. E. Neal, president. Enthusiastic speeches were made by W. M. Slay, and H. W. Catlin, Esqs., and Dr. W. F. Hines. The oysters were served in abundance.

Rev. E. E. Hughes, pastor of the A. M. E. Church, Chestertown, closes a local letter to the Baltimore Standard as follows: "Politics is booming; you can see the buttons and hear the red tape, but can't tell where the money goes nor what the result will be."

POISONED AT A WEDDING.

Great Affliction of the Town of Sabula, Iowa.

A telegram from Des Moines, Iowa, October 8, says: "The State Board of Health has received an appeal from Sabula, where a large part of the population is suffering from the wholesale poisoning at a wedding three weeks ago. Two more died yesterday, making 4 dead. D. C. Gage, groom at the wedding, will die, and others are almost certain to do so. The wails of the victims can be heard all over the town day and night. Over 100 are now confined by the complaint. The doctors believe it is trichinosis, but the symptoms reported to the State board, which has sent a representative to Sabula, are those of cholera morbus. The doctors there are exhausted and the town is in a condition of panic.

OWEN JONES, a lunatic from New York State, called at the White House last Tuesday to see the President. He presented a newspaper poem, the burden of which was that a boy was wanted by the executive family, and in all seriousness offered himself for adoption or employmen in that capacity, together with a letter stating that he could wash dishes and make himself useful in other ways. He was taken into custody by the police.

THE BEST THING YET!

OUTCOME OF A PARTIZAN PERSECUTION!

Gov. Brown Condemns the Republican Supervisor! The Charges Against Democratic Supervisors Unfounded.

The best thing that has yet occurred during the present campaign is the result of the investigation in Baltimore by Governor Brown of the charges against the Democratic Election Supervisors. The Baltimore Republican newspapers have been filled with reckless charges against the Supervisors, and profuse advice to the Governor of the State, until the prosecution assumed the character of a downwright persecution. We referred last week to the foolish proposition of one of the Republican partizan ministers of the city to turn the supervisors out whether or no. Another reverend gentleman named Harcourt, who is also a bitter partizan, disgraced his cloth last Sunday by delivering a stump speech filled with reckless utterances.

Governor Brown, after a long and patient hearing of the case, astonished the whole persecuting horde by deciding to remove the Republican Supervisor! The two Democratic Supervisors were not found guilty of misconduct, although it is understood that Dr. Cairnes, one of the members, has asked to be relieved of the duties of the office because of his professional duties. Col. William H. Bians, the Democratic president of the board, against whom the hot wrath of Republican place-seekers has been hurled, is retained with the approval of an honest and fearless Governor, and the plaudits of at least the Democracy of the State—"well done, good and faithful servant!"

Gov. Brown was right beyond question in asking Col. Holland, the Republican Supervisor, to step down and out. The Col. refused to do so and now the Governor will proceed to remove him, on the ground of utter incompetency, because of extreme age.

All good citizens, we would think, would rejoice at this result. That is, that this important official board have been found faithful, and that the only dereliction is caused by the infirmity of the minority member of the board.

The result is specially gratifying to the Democracy. It casts to the four winds the mammoth fabric of falsehood and villification built up by partizan Republican newspapers and speakers. Not only so, but it clearly gives the lie to other like campaign capital attempted to be used by the American, Sun and other enemies of the Democracy.

THE CITY ALIVE!

STATE AND CITY TICKETS ENDORSED WITH TREMENDOUS APPLAUSE!

Cleveland's Friends Appeal to the People!

A representative of the KENT NEWS was present at the great mass meeting in Baltimore last Monday night. The thousands of Democratic voters of that city who crowded the seats and aisles of the big hall was not so much an evidence of the favor with which the Democratic ticket is received as was the spontaneous and repeated outbursts of applause that greeted the speakers and candidates. Governor Hurst had a perfect ovation. His greeting must have been particularly gratifying in his first appearance in his home city. So great was the applause when he was introduced that he stood silent for some minutes before he could be heard. Indeed the enthusiasm throughout the meeting was almost unparalleled.

Mr. Williams, the Democratic candidate for mayor, also had a magnificent reception, as did the other candidates of the Democratic State and city conventions.

The speech of Senator Gray, of Delaware, was recognized as voicing the views of the Cleveland Democracy, as he is well known as one of President Cleveland's warmest and closest friends.

The Morning Herald says: The meeting was held under the auspices of the Business Men's Association, and Mr. I. M. Parr, the president, called the meeting to order, and in a very happy speech introduced Mayor Latrobe as the presiding officer of the evening. The applause that greeted His Honor demonstrated how strong his hold is upon the good will of the masses. His allusions to Messrs Hurst and Williams were received with prolonged applause. There was another outburst when the Mayor introduced Mr. Hurst as the next Governor of Maryland.

After Mr. Hurst came Senator Gray, then Senator Faulkner, then Ex-Congressman Hemphill, and then Messrs. Crothers and Smith, the candidates for attorney-general and comptroller. Mr. Williams, the candidate for Mayor, was introduced as the last speaker.

The members of the Hurst Association were delighted with the success of the meeting, which was a big success in numbers, quality and enthusiasm. All agreed that it was full of good augury for the success of the ticket.

RELIGIOUS NOTES.

Rev. C. S. York preached both morning and night Sunday in Wilmington for Rev. Mr. Watt. Large congregations were out at both services. Rev. W. P. Compton preached at Zion M. E. Church.

Rev. Wm. Stengle, pastor of Dover M. E. Church has been conducting successful revival services for the past two weeks. Nearly a hundred conversions have resulted from the meetings.

Revival services are in progress at Lynch's M. P. Church under the direction of that fearless man of God, Dr. J. L. Mills.

"Maryland Day" was observed by the Endeavor society of Wesley Chapel last Sunday. A program of special merit was produced by the earnest band of workers.

Rev. S. C. Roberts attended the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Minneapolis the past week as a delegate from the Diocese of Easton.

Rev. T. L. Price, of New York, has been visiting his home in Millington. While in Kent he delivered his lecture "My Neighbor and I" for the benefit of the Epworth League, of Galena, and other organizations elsewhere.

The laymen's division of the General Episcopal Convention, called the House of Deputies, has concurred in the resolution to divide the diocese of Maryland. The division as arranged by the diocesan convention puts Washington, Montgomery, Prince George's, St. Mary's and Charles counties into one diocese, and Baltimore and the rest of the present diocese of Maryland into another. Bishop Paret will choose one of the two and a new bishop will be selected for the other.

Republican "Argument."

The following conversation between two citizens of the upper part of this county was actually overheard a few days since: It is like some other Republican campaign argument:

First citizen:—Who is this Gorman that everybody is talking about?

Second citizen:—Well, he is a man who lives about Washington, and is trying to overthrow the Democratic party. They say that he is the wickedest man in the country. He wants to be Governor of Maryland, but he will not get it by my vote.

First citizen:—Well, who is Aunty Gorman, I hear a great many people talking about her?

Second citizen:—She is Gorman's father's sister of course, and they say she is not a whit better than Gorman himself. Indeed, people say that Gorman got all his wicked training from this old aunt.—Harford Dispatch.

The price of oysters took an upward jump this week and sold at 60 and 70 cents per bushel. This has been a very satisfactory week for the oystermen in consequence of the advance.

Dear Sir:—In regard to Masury's Paints they are first-class in every respect and their Combination Lead is the best on the market. It will go further and cover up better than any Combination on the market. We have been using these goods for 20 years and they have given entire satisfaction, and I think we ought to know a GOOD LEAD in that time, being the largest users of Lead and Oil in the county, we know what we are talking about, and we have used some of their Ready Mixed Paints, and think they are the best in the market. You always get a full gallon when you buy their Paint.
Yours respectfully,

Gentlemen:—I have used Masury's Goods for the past ten years, and I believe Masury Coloring Matter to be the best manufactured. I have used John W. Masury & Son's Pure Combination White Lead to my own satisfaction and to the satisfation of the owners of the property on which I used it. It has stood on my work as good as Pure White Lead and Zinc. I haven't had one single job to crack, peel off, blister or chalk. I have do..e some jobs with Masury's Combination as far back as 1887 and a number all the way along to 1895. Respectfully yours,
