TO OUR FRIENDS IN KENT COUNTY.

Having opened a LARGE and SELECT BOARDING HOUSE at 412 West Fayette St., near Ford's Opera House, Baltimore, we solicit the patronage of our friends and others visiting the city for a long or brief stay. We are situated near Lexington, Eutaw and Charles streets, making it convenient for shopping. Ladies contemplating a visit, and unaccompanied by gentlemen friends, by sending a postal card, will be met at the boat. The Carey street cars, corner of Conway and South Charles street, one square from boat, run direct to our door. Accommodation first-class and "home-like," and rates reasonable.

Very respectfully,
MRS. ALBERT I. DUGAN,
o12-3m. No. 412 W. Fayette St., Baltimore.

WM. MEDDERS & CO.,

STILL POND, MD.

House Sold.—W. W. Beck, Esq., assignee of mortgage, sold the house in Lynchburg, last Tuesday recently owned and occupied by Ezekial Tilghman, to Mr. R. F. Parks for $300.

New Store.—Mr. Jacob F. Thompson, formerly with Mr. R. F. Parks, has opened a general store in the Wickes building in the room recently vacated by Moody & Lusby.

A disease, supposed to be cholera, is proving very fatal among the hogs in Westminster and surrounding country to the south and southeast. Thirteen of the animals, among those being fattened for the use of the county almshouse, have died of the disease.

Painfully Injured.—Mr. Sam'l Nickerson, a young farmer of Morgan's creek, received painful injuries last Wednesday. He was driving a pair of horses attached to a farm wagon when they took fright and ran away. The wagon was overturned and Mr. Nickerson received painful but not serious injuries.

Shad Caught.—Mr. Lawrence Biggs has 4 pounds off Worton Creek. He was very much surprised the other day when fishing them to find that he had a fine white shad in one of them. The shad weighed four pounds and a-half and was a beauty. It is very rare indeed that shad are caught at this season of the year.

Shell-Fish Curiosities. — Lewin Wheat, of Edesville, caught a curiosity in the shape of a fine large oyster so fixed in a broken bottle that it appeared as a part of the same.

Mr. Wm. Coleman, store keeper, of Pine Neck, wears an oyster shell curiosity as a watch sharm. It is about the size of a silver dollar. It was caught by one of his oystermen customers and was such a beautiful and curious specimen of the bivalve that he had it polished and banded and now wears it as stated.

Vacant Scholarship.—Owing to the enforced resignation of Mr. W. E. S. Thomas, on account of ill health, the Orphans' Court on Tuesday examined eight young men to fill the vacancy. The following took the examination: Walter H. Davis, Still Pond; Harry B. Moore, Betterton; Unit Rasin, Locust Grove; J. Wilson Sutton, Blacks; Harry D. Anthony, Noland Wilkins, Chestertown; H. M. Beck, Lankford; Tilghman Hudson, Fairlee. Some of the boys say the examination was rather hard. The court will examine the papers and award the scholarship next Tuesday.

Prolific Pears.—Mr. J. W. Jarman, near Chesterville, got 2,000 baskets Keifer pears from 500 trees, and sold the whole crop to a Dover firm, to be shipped West. Dr. Jarman showed us a sample of these pears—the largest we have ever seen—45 filled a basket.

The largest load of pears ever shipped in one car from Kent county went from Kennedyville on Monday of last week. The car contained over 50,000 pounds! They were bought and shipped by T. J. Shallcross, Esq., at about 25 cents per basket for Northern parties.

Town Improvements.

This fall is witnessing some changes about town and the painters and carpenters are quite busy.

Mr. Samuel Vannort is having his handsome residence on High street repainted. Messrs. Frank Howard, Alvin Willis and Samuel Crouch are doing the work. Mr. Howard has also painted the residence of Capt. Jack Anthony.

Messrs. Wm. Sappington, C. T. Howard and Elwood Baker are painting Mr. H. M. Brown's house on Water street.

Mr. T. W. Eliason's hotel property is getting into shape under the management of the Messrs. Pippin. The big stable was successfully moved by Mr. Sparks, the house mover, to the lumber yard of Mr. Eliason's on Cannon street.

Messrs. Jeff. D. Ayres and Frank Ayres, of Rock Hall have built an addition to the property of Mr. Morritz Asher on Calvert street.

The Smith property adjoining Mrs. D. Gruber's bakery has been repaired and a new roof put on by Mr. Richard Smyth, of Fairlee.

Mr. N. C. Crow has had a new roof put on his house on the corner of High and Kent street. Mr. John Hodgkins did the work.

The extensive improvements to Mr. J. D. Bacchus' residence are nearing completion. The back building, two side porches, the new window sashes, etc., will make a decided change in the appearance of the dwelling.

The Va. Photograph will remain in Chestertown to the 26th on account of a rush of work. Get your pictures before they leave, as they do first class work.

LOCAL POLITICAL DOINGS!

The Young Democracy at Work — The Republican "Still Hunt"—A Prohibition Advocate.

The Young Men's Democratic Club of the Fourth district held a rousing meeting Tuesday night. The room was crowded, many could not get in, but listened from without at the sound Democratic doctrine enunciated by the speakers. The secretary announced that the membership of the club was 130 and they were still coming in.

The first speaker was Mr. Philip G. Wilmer, candidate for the Legislature. Mr. Wilmer made a very favorable impression and his utterances were received with rounds of applause. Mr. Wilmer is the youngest candidate on the Democratic ticket, and the young Democrats especially are rallying to his support with great enthusiam.

Wm. M. Slay, Esq., the next speaker, was surely in the house of his friends. The enthusiastic welcome he received was certainly a good omen of success. Mr. Slay showed the utter fallacy of those howlers who say there is no national issue in this campaign. He referred to the condition of Little Delaware, where they said, in the last campaign "no national issues are involved," and how a Republican U. S. Senator will represent us in the Senate if we turn the State over to them.

Dr. W. Frank Hines was enthusiastically called for and responded with some sound Democratic doctrine. The doctor advised the Young Democracy to stand firm, and showed the inconsistency of Mr. Urie's claim upon any Democrat when his name appears upon the sworn nomination papers of the Republican party as being their nominee for State's Attorney.

Mr. T. Jefferson Joiner received an ovation and told very graphically the condition of the schools in Philadelphia where his own children were compelled to go to school with the colored, or not go at all.

Mr. Wm. Willing told how the Republican protectionists of Pennsylvania promised protection to American laborers and three weeks after election lowered the wages. Messrs. W. W. Beck and W. F. Russell also made speeches.

The club decided to attend the big rally on Tuesday in a body and appointed a committee of twelve to make arrangements for a good showing.

The next meeting will be on Monday evening, Oct. 21.

Republican "Still Hunt."

The Republicans are evidently making a "still hunt" campaign. Their meetings are held mostly in colored churches and are never reported. The colored voters are being organized in squads with bosses to see that all of them vote, and vote the Republican ticket straight! Wm. Riley and Simon Freeman claim to be doing good work in this line in the third district; having put their best licks at the registration, they are now mustering their men for the election. In Chestertown Fred Nichols and Zack Dunn are relied upon to do the same work, and are said to have their forces "well in hand." In the fifth district Louis Henry and Henry Ward Beecher are making a full enrollment of their colored brethren and will turn them over solidly for Lowndes and the whole Republican ticket.

We have heard very little of the Republican mass meeting announced from State headquarters to be held in Chestertown next Wednesday. The colored voters should certainly have one chance for a public demonstration. But will they?

Worton Democracy.

Worton was alive with Democratic enthusiasm on Wednesday night. The big hall in the old fair grounds held one hundred and fifty staunch, unwavering Democrats, who applauded to the echo the good hits made by the speakers. Dr. J. H. Hessey was chairman of the meeting. Mr. W. F. Russell made the first speech in his characteristic manner and was received with enthusiastic applause.

W. W. Beck, Esq., the next speaker, made a hit when he said his maiden speech was made in this hall with Mr. John D. Urie, the present Republican-Prohibition candidate for State's Attorney, and little did he think after hearing his simon pure Democratic doctrine that he (Mr. Urie) would soon be fighting those same grand principles. But such is the case!

James A. Pearce, Esq., made an eloquent appeal to the Democracy to stand firm. His telling blows at Republicanism and Republican tricks to catch voters were enthusiastically received. He said the idea that the Republican party would give up the State after having possession of it a year, was folly supreme! No sane man is foolish enough to believe these Republican tricks to catch unwary Democrats. He told his hearers that Democratic defeat this fall means Democratic defeat in '96.

The Unterrified Fifth.

The Young Men's Democratic Club of the fifth met Friday evening, 11th, at Edesville Hall. The hall was crowded to overflowing and to say that it was an enthusiastic meeting is putting it mildly If the Democratic meetings in this district are any criterion, then the old fifth will be heard from in no uncertain voice on the 5th of November.

The club endorsed the appointment of Capt. Wm. T. Urie as captain of the Chester river police boat. It also commended the action of Governor Frank Brown in his action in regard to the Supervisors of Election for Baltimore City.

Richard D. Hynson, Esq., made a telling and forcible speech which was received with the greatest enthusiasm. The oystermans friend is the Democratic party, said Mr. Hynson, and he warned them to beware of their old enemies and take care of their interests. If the Republican advocates of leasing the Chesapeake oyster bottoms get in power the oyster tonger is robbed of his living. He urged the young Democracy to stand firm and buckle on their armor.

The names of the following were added to the club roll:

A. F. Williams, W. B. Strong, Samuel Sewell, John H. Gibson, B. F. Sewell, T. A. Connor, Frank E. Stevens, George T. Sewell, Thomas M. Fowler, Isaac Gale, Edw. Beck, Sam'l D. Leaverton, Duly Gale, Thomas Hyland, Sr.

The club decided to attend the big mass meeting in Chestertown on the 22d.

The Prohibition Party.

The Prohibitionists held a meeting in the town hall at Kennedyville on Wednesday evening. Presiding Elder Smith was the only speaker and had a fair audience. The Presiding Elder also spoke at Millington last week.

BRILLIANT ORATORS!

HON. JOHN J. HEMPHILL, ex-Congressman from South Carolina, writes that he will attend the mass-meeting in Chestertown next Tuesday. This gentleman is one of the most brilliant orators in the South, and as a campaign speaker is not excelled anywhere because of his inimitable and pointed humor. He was not put down for the Kent meeting, because it was not thought possible to secure his services. A telegram just at hand, however, states that he will positively be here. This, with those heretofore announced, all of whom are expected, makes an array of speakers never before surpassed at a meeting in this section.

Every voter should attend.

"Think It Over and Over."—Mr. Charles S. Smith, the enterprising, hustling proprietor of the big cash store in Chestertown, omits his double column adv. this week, but asks the readers of the KENT NEWS to look out for next week's issue! He tells the people to "think it over and over," and not to forget that he is thinking for them. The public's interest is Mr. Smith's interest. He is a genuine cash buyer and cash seller, and therefore has a great advantage over others. The power of cash dealing is wonderful! Try it once and you'll never go back to the old credit system. If you want to realize the greatest good in store purchases just make an investment at Charley Smith's and you'll be sure to continue with him.

Festivals.—Mobray Chapel had the most successful festival in its history last week. The amount netted will foot up over $175.

The festival on Saturday evening under the auspices of Salem M. E. Church, was a decided success. A good crowd was in attendance and a few candidates mingled with the people. About $90 was realized.

The Piney Neck festival was also well attended and successful socially and financially

Rabbit Dogs.—Good rabbit dogs are scarce. Now that the gunning season is nearly here many of the sporting fraternity are looking around for dogs. But they cannot be had for love or money. Those who own dogs have commenced putting them in training for the hunt. Mr. Jas. Shuster is gaining a reputation as a handler of rabbit dogs. He has Mr. C. L. Dodd's pair of hunters and pronounces them hard to beat. Jim has made all arrangements for the first day of Nov. and says he expects to slaughter "bucks."

THERE are 480 pupils in the Jacob Tome Institute at Port Deposit.

Personal Brevities.

Some Travel, Some Entertain, a Few Marry.

Our Junior is at Atlanta, Georgia, this week, with Dr. H. L. Dodd, Mr. W. B. Copper and wife, and Dr. Chas. R. Twilley and wife, of Chestertown. They are having a most enjoyable time and say the Exposition is grand, though not up to the World's Fair, of course. A postal just at hand states that they were arranging for a trip to Jacksonville, Florida, before returning home.

Mrs. Roberts, of Newberne, N. C., has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Roberts at the rectory on Queen st.

Mrs. Jane Collins and niece, Hallie Collins, have been visiting at the home of Mrs. R. H. Collins.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Annie Olivia Roeder, the popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roeder, to Mr. Alexander Muir, on Tuesday evening, Oct. 29th, at 6 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, at Hanesville.

Miss Katie Smith attended the wedding of Miss Gertrude Lockard and Mr. George Caple, at Westminster on Tuesday evening in the M. P. Church of that place. Miss Katie is a great admirer of Western Maryland and spends most of her summer holiday among its hills.

Mr. W. W. Chapman has returned to his work at the Chestertown National Bank after several weeks of severe sickness.

Mrs. R. D. Hynson and daughter have been guests of Baltimore friends for a few days.

Miss Mollie Ringgold, of Baltimore, is visiting at the home of Mrs. Ireland, on Maple avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Brown, attended the funeral of Mrs. Brown's brother-in law on last Saturday at Staten Island.

Mrs. Arthur Skirven and little daughter, of Chicago, left for their western home yesterday. They have been spending several months at the paternal home in Chestertown and with friends in the county.

Mr. Henry Redue, of Baltimore, has been spending a few days in Kent.

We are glad to note the presence of Dr. Samuel G. Fisher at his desk in the clerk's office. The Doctor is looking well.

Miss Carrie G. Wilmer and daughter, Miss Bertie, have returned to their home in Wilmington, Del., after a two months visit among their relatives and friends in Kent.

Mrs. J. H. Simpers left on Wednesday for Port Deposit, where she expects to spend two weeks among relatives and friends.

We had the pleasure of a call last Thursday from B. F. Jordan, Esq., the Baltimore county School Commissioner, who is on a visit to his daughter Mrs. Chas. T. Stratton.

Mr. Wm. W. Clayton, formerly of Chestertown, and Miss Myra E. Ayres, of Rock Hall, were quietly married in Baltimore, by Rev. C. Herbert Richardson, at Fayette street, M. E. Church parsonage on Oct. 2nd. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Ayres and is one of the most beautiful and popular young ladies of Rock Hall. The groom for the past year has been engaged as salesman in the store of Mr. R. S. Crew. He recently resigned his clerkship and will engage in the meat and provision business on his own account.

Miss Flora Wheatley, of Edesville, has been on a two weeks visit to relatives in Baltimore.

Squire Beck and wife, of Worton, are on a visit to relatives in Baltimore and Washington, D. C.

Miss Annie Ivens is visiting friends in Worton.

Miss Ida M. Baker is enjoying a pleasant vacation at her home in Worton.

Mrs. Graham, wife of Dr. W. R. Graham, of Washington, submitted to a delicate operation last Monday. She has had serious trouble for a long time with one of her eyes and finally determined upon heroic treatment; she went to the hospital and had the eye taken out. Mr J. N. Dodd informs us of the successful operation, and her many friends here will be glad to hear of her relief.

Mrs. Thomas, of Baltimore, is in town seeing to the interests of her farm in Broad Neck. Her tenant Mr. John E. Taylor has not complied with the terms of the lease and has moved.

Ernest C. Reiche and Sarah M. Reiche, by mutual consent, have been granted the decree of absolute divorce.

Mrs. A. H. Malsberger, of Masseys, is spending several weeks with friends in Baltimore.

Moody & Lusby have a change of advertisement in this issue. Don't fail to read it. They give you solid, logical reasons for their growing trade, namely: Volume of business and small profit on each customer. Go see them in their commodious store-house, directly opposite court house.
