COUNTY COMMITTEE.

Fifth District Democratic Club Meetings!

The club will hold a rousing meeting at ROCK HALL, in Downey's Hall, on the following evening, SATURDAY, October 19, at 7.30 o'clock. James A. Pearce, Esq., Hon. M. deK. Smith, Wm. M. Slay, Esq., and Col. Wm. Henry Legg, of Baltimore city, will speak. Col. Legg is well and favorably known by every man interested in the oyster industry in the State, and particularly is he known by the oystermen and Democrats of Kent county. Let the Democracy of the Fifth and other districts attend.

WE take pleasure in noting the Denton Journal's fiftieth birthday. It is one of our most valued exchanges. Caroline county is honored in having such a live, reliable and ably conducted newspaper.

The Talbot Times, published by Rev. Mr. Highley, has passed its eleventh anniversary. The Times is a creditable sheet and its editor is a genius. A cotemporary says of him: "Editor Highley is a busy man; he visits the cities almost weekly, runs a spicy newspaper, is town magistrate of Trappe, fills pulpits on Sunday in able sermons, runs a telephone company all alone, pays his honest debts punctually, and is honored and respected at home and away."

Talks Out.

The Standard, colored republican organ of Baltimore says "these old, moss backed, bourbonized Democrats are afraid of the Negro, and the least hint on this line is sufficient to cause them to tremble like a leaf. We are not in this fight for supremacy, but for equal advantages in the public schools."

College Notes.

Messrs. O. G. Gooding, E. L. Jones and J. Elliott Pardee attended a social at the home of Mrs. M. S. Pardee on Friday last. They report a very enjoyable time in "the State."

Mr. Longfellow is improving rapidly.

Foot-ball received a boom this week by the Dover game.

The two Literary societies elected officert this week.

The Mt. Vernon elected George C. Graham, president; W. L. Wheatley, vice-president; E. Cruikshank, recording secretary; Staunton Brown, corresponding secretary; Charles Boston, treasurer. The membership has been materially increased. Many of the secessionists of last year have returned to the society and again taken up its duties and promise to stand by its laws.

The Philomathians elected the following: President, Sam'l Douglas; vice president, Chester Coursey; recording secretary, Virgil Ward; corresponding secretary, A. McCabe; treasurer, James White.

RELIGIOUS JOTTINGS.

Church News from the County and Elsewhere.

Protracted meeting services are being held in the Kennedyville M. P. Church.

Mr. Galloway is conducting revival services at the Union M. E. Church near Smithville.

The County Sunday-school Convention, to be held in the M. E. and M. P. Churches in Chestertown, November 23 and 24, promises to be a great event in Sunday-school work. Let every Sunday-school in the county send delegates and encourage this glorious work.

Rev. K. M. Bull went to Kennett Square, Pa., on Wednesday, October 9, to assist in the marriage of his brother, Ira W. Bull, to Miss Ella Miles, at the home of the bride's parents.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the M. P. Church, Chestertown, celebrated Maryland Day on Sunday evening last. Notwithstanding the inclement weather, the church was well filled. A special sermon was preached by Dr. S. Reese Murray and some fine music rendered by the choir, including a beautiful solo by Miss Julia Thompson and a trio by Misses Annie Russell, Marian Lusby and Julia Thompson. Miss Bessie Miller read a greeting from the State Secretary of the society, and Mr. Ralph Barnett read the Scripture lesson.

Special Dispatch to the Baltimore Herald.

THE OYSTER QUESTION.

Comptroller Marion deKalb Smith Speaks in Talbot County.

Comptroller Smith in his address at the big mass meeting in Easton on Saturday night, speaking on the oyster question, said:

"In my section of the State it is a fact long and well known among the oystermen, that the Republicans are the advocates of leasing and selling the oyster beds. The Baltimore American, the leading Republican paper of this State, has, in leading editorials, urged it, and many prominent Republican leaders have favored it.

"I shall make no effort to disguise the fact that the oyster fund is not as healthy as it was ten years ago. The expenditures for a number of years have exceeded the receipts. In 1885 the gross receipts amounted to nearly $80,000, while in 1892 and 1883 they were only $45,000 each year.

"The expenditures have been, from time to time, increased by building, equiping new steamers and sailing vessels to be used for the better protection of this valuable industry which has, given employment to 30,000 men and boys and supported about 150,000 of our population. The primary object of the oyster fund was for furnishing protection. I regret the shrinkage of the balance to the credit of this fund, yet I have, for many years, contended that if it were necessary for perfect protection every dollar derived from licenses should be expended in securing protection to the oyster beds. I do not believe the present force can be reduced without crippling the service. The demand of the people engaged in this industry is for police protection as nearly perfect as the necessity of the case calls for and the revenues will permit.

"This is your money and it is your right to demand that it be judiciously expended in affording protection to the oyster beds and bars. You have displayed a liberal spirit in that you have agreed from time to time to have the price of the license increased to secure it. I do not wish to be understood as favoring any extravagance or even unnecessary expenditure of the funds, but I do wish to be understood as favoring perfect police protection, even to the annual expenditure of the whole sum collected from the oystermen of Maryland in order to grant them the protection they need. Democrat legislatures have always listened to the demands of the oystermen, and invaribly legislated in their interest. I hear no complaints against the present law—I believe it a good one, and, when in complete operation, will produce revenue sufficient—to maintain the present force."

Oyster Tongers!

HERE ARE THE FACTS!

The Baltimore American of Tuesday last criticises Comptroller Smith's speech at Easton and says he did not give the American's true position on the oyster lease question. It then says:

"Will Comptroller Smith give the names of the prominent Republicans who have favored this thing? And, lastly, will he kindly show us when and where The American has urged the sale and leasing of the oyster beds?"

We have made the same statement relative to the Republican position, and will answer the American's queries. At the Packers' meeting held in Baltimore Academy of Music on the 18th of March, 1891, Col. Thomas S. Hodson, the Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, was one of the chief speakers; the private ownership of oyster beds was strongly recommended, and the main sentiment of the speeches was that the control of the oyster grounds should be transferred to private individuals, "that the land under water in the Chesapeake Bay and its tributaries and the other waters of the State should be made private property in oyster grounds, that there would be two classes of oyster lots, one large, where large capital would be required to cultivate with steam dredges, the other, smaller, all these lots to be sold by the State." COL. HODSON, Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee in his speech said: "I am satisfied that a good oyster planting law would increase the revenue from the oyster trade. I have only endeavored to set the ball in motion. If these real facts are known and understood by the people I do not fear that THIS REVOLUTION (private ownership and planting) will stop short of the grandest possible success."

Ex-Congressman Louis E. McComas, the Republican leader of Western Maryland, where they have no oyster bars nor oystermen voters, was chosen chairman of this convention and said in so many words that he favors and his party on both sides of the bay is pledged to have laws that will protect the planting of oysters in the water the same as the planting of grain on land. How? BY SELLING OR LEASING THE OYSTER BEDS to private individuals, corporations and syndicates.

The Baltimore American in its issue of September 11th same year had a double leaded editorial on the same lines as Col. Hodson, Mr. McComas, and others. The American said "There is but one certain way to preserve THE OYSTER BEDS OF THE CHESAPEAKE AND ITS TRIBUTARIES and make them sufficiently productive to meet the needs of the public, and that is to lease them to private parties wherever practicable. For the people to hold property in common is very attractive to some minds, but it is a glittering delusion; the experiment has been repeatedly to hold lands in common for the whole community with the unvarying result that in a short time the lands have gone to waste and the community has disbanded. No sound reasons can be urged for making a discrimination in favor of land covered with water, and the experience of those States where the sale and leasing of the oyster grounds and oyster planting has been adopted is so absolutely in favor of leasing the grounds that the opponents are compelled to resort to the demagogic plea of and effort to deprive the oystermen of their livehood." The Republicans not only say that it is right to sell the oyster bars, but say that whoever try to prevent it are demagogues, thus adding insult to injury. The American thus continues: "Nor is the pretense that the culling law will remedy the evil of wasted beds and scarce and inferior oysters of any more value; the law is a dismal failure, as all laws will be so long as the beds are the common property and the prey of an irresponsible public. THE OYSTERS DO NOT BELONG TO THE DREDGERS AND TONGERS SOLELY, BUT TO THE PEOPLE OF MARYLAND, AND THE INTEREST OF THOSE WHO ARE NOT ENGAGED IN THE OYSTER BUSINESS IS FAR MORE IMPORTANT THAN THE INTEREST OF THOSE WHO ARE. By adopting the lease system the interest of all will be conserved. Will any of the local statesmen have the courage to rise to the occasion?"

Oystermen, which plan do you favor—the old Democratic system of free oyster bars or the Republican plan of leasing and selling or disposing of the oyster grounds to private individuals? If you are for the old plan vote the Democratic ticket. If you are for the sale of the oyster beds vote the Republican ticket. Some "of our local (Republican) statesmen may not have the courage to rise to the occasion," but the great majority will, and if the Republicans should carry the State the views of the American and Messrs. McComas and Hodson would prevail. But the Democrats will win and will continue to protect our men and keep the oyster grounds as the common property of the oystermen, and Kent's Democratic nominees will never "have the courage to rise to the occasion" suggested by the American and vote for leasing the oyster grounds. All of our nominees are openly pledged to do all they can to defeat any plan for selling, leasing or disposing of any portion of our oyster lands to corporations, syndicates or anyone else, and, they being Democrats in a Democratic Legislature, will wield a great influence; whereas the Republican nominees, if they should be elected, could not have weight in a Democratic Legislature. The Democrats are united and determined, and will succeed.

HURRAH FOR W. C!

Washington College won from Dover yesterday afternoon, on the College campus, in an interesting game of foot ball. The score was 12 to 0. Dover had a light team, but they played together well and put up a good game. W. C. played a snappy game, though showing lack of practice. Twenty minute halves were played, Brice making touchdown in the first half, and Glover in the second half. The college boys played well.

Early in the Field.

Judge Stump's friends are already announcing his candidacy for the next term, the election for which will be held in 1897. The only complaint we hear against the present bench is that they don't hurry up the lazy lawyers and compel them to try the cases, and if they plead not ready as always, make them get ready and have that "important witness" on hand or go on without him. We give the bench this hint and if they act on it and jerk the lazy lawyers right lively for a few terms it will be immensely popular with the "common people." These "common people" don't like lawyers. They think they are all pretty near rogues. We never could account for this peculiarity but that's their way. So Judge, try jerking 'em. The lawyers are few and the people many, and it's good politics to please the people by making the lawyers hop.—Midland Journal.

QUESTIONS FOR LOWNDES.

A Republican Club Makes Some Important Inquiries.

HIS OPINION OF COLORED MEN.

Rockville, Oct. 10.—Considerable stir has been caused in both political parties by the publication in this week's Advocate of a letter and set of resolutions passed by the Rockville Republican Club, and addressed to the Hon. Lloyd Lowndes.

The club in question is the largest and oldest Republican club in the county, and it's action is the more significant because it has been made public despite the most strenuous efforts of the white leaders to suppress it. Mr. Lowndes speaks here tomorrow and it is thought that he will have something to say upon the subject touched upon in these resolutions. The letter and resolutions are as follows:

Rockville, Md., Oct. 1, 1895.—Hon. Lloyd Lowndes, Cumberland, Md.—Honored Sir: The Rockville Republican Club met at their usual place of meeting last night, September 30, 1895, and among other business it was moved and seconded and unanimously carried that a committee be appointed to draft resolutions of inquiry, to be forwarded to you, touching certain matters in which the colored voters have a deep interest.

The following committee was appointed, with full power to act: James W. Martin, Richard Powells, John Jackson, Lewis Proctor, Edward Brown.

In pursuance whereof, this committee this day met and adopted the following resolutions.

We think proper to say that several individual members of our club have sent letters to you on this subject and have got no expressions in reply.

We also beg to inform you that our club is composed of 122 members—all are colored Republican voters.

We think it is very important for you to give a prompt answer to our resolutions.

Very respectfully,
JAMES W. MARTIN,
Chairman.
RICHARD POWELLS,
JOHN JACKSON,
EDWARD BROWN.

Whereas, Democracy, according to the ideas of President Cleveland, is just as offensive to all true Republicans as any other kind of Democracy; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we hereby respectfully and earnestly request of Mr. Lowndes a full and clear and candid explanation as to the following subjects:

First—As to his aforesaid action in Congress and his reported statements in Rockville with regard to the same.

Second—As to his position on the question of public schools, whether he favors mixed schools, as has been claimed, if not, whether he is in favor of giving colored people better facilities than they have, which are now no more than one-half as good as those of the white schools.

Third—Whether, if elected, he will use his best endeavors and official influence to carry the State for the Republicans in the next Presidential election?

Fourth—Will he be able to give recognition to our race in the way of places now held by Democrats no better qualified to hold them than many colored men are, in due proportion to their voting strength?

Fifth—As to the statements accredited to him in relation to "The Colored People" published in the Baltimore Herald of September 16, 1895, namely, that if elected he would endeavor to have all appointments to positions of policemen, firemen and laborers in Baltimore City made upon competitive examinations; whether such a rule would not keep out, or make it possible to keep out, from such positions all worthy colored Republican voters otherwise fully able to do the work?

Sixth—What will he do to help to elevate and improve the condition of our race and of laboring men in general in case he receives their votes?

Be it further resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to Mr. Lowndes, with a request for a reply at his earliest convenience, in order that all doubt may be set at rest as to his position on these questions, and that he may receive the benefit of the full colored vote and of the votes of workingmen generally at the election in November.

Mr. Lowndes will not reply to the above.

WHEREVER the Republicans are normally in the minority, and have to depend upon Democratic votes if they are to have even a probability of winning they begin to cackle about a city campaign, not a national campaign.

Uncommonly silly woodcock can only be caught by so evident a springe. The Hon. Lloyd Lowndes and every other man of sound and disposing mind, knows that the election of a Republican Governor of Maryland would make the whole Republican party wild with delight and hope, and fill every loyal Democrat with consternation and discouragement. It is impossible that State politics should not have an effect upon national politics, and national politics upon State, especially in the year before a president is to be elected. Mr. Lloyd Lowndes should try something newer. —N. Y. Sun.

Our Neighbors.

The Queenstown News has these good words for the Democratic legislative candidates in Queen Anne's. They are all well known in Kent, and recognized as sterling Democrats and worthy citizens, and should receive the full vote of their party. Says the News:

"Woodland P. Finley has already served as Senator, and I have failed to find any man who has said or can say that he ever cast a vote in the Senate of Maryland against the interest of her people or his constituents. He was attentive at his post of duty during the entire session, and no man ever called to see him about any measure he wished brought before the Senate, or that was before that body that did not receive a pleasant reception by your Senator, and an honest hearing.

"Mr. John O. Phillips, the next man on the ticket, has served before in the same position that he now aspires to again, and I ask you, "Did he serve your interests or the interest of the capitalist?" I know your answer: "He served us to the best of his ability."

"Mr. Eugene Dudley, a new man, asking your suffrages for the legislature. You know him as a farmer, attentive to his business, a man you always find at home with an open and ready hand to help the poor and needy, and this is the kind of a man you can always trust to do right.

"Mr. George M. Vansant, is a school teacher in this county, and a man of good sensible views, and if you elect him, which I feel sure you will do, he will attend to your duties at Annapolis with the same care that he attends his duties at home.

PERSONAL.

The people are finding out their interest in the purchase of Furniture. My sales within the last ten days have been beyond my best expectations.

I have sold many suits and single pieces—in some instances furnishing dwellings from bedroom to kitchen in distant sections of the county. Low prices, good Furniture and fair dealing is the secret of my success.

I am in competition daily with city establishments, and will not be undersold. Newest styles of fresh goods constantly received.

Buying direct from the factories at net cash rates, puts me in a position to sell just as low as the largest city house, and I am determined to prevent any one from having any reason to go to the city to buy anything in my line of Furniture, Carpets, Curtains, Paints, &c.

"A word to the wise is sufficient."

REACHING OUT!

CERTAINLY WE ARE BUSY, WHY NOT? THAT'S WHAT WE ARE HERE FOR!

WHY ARE WE BUSY?

Because we have the Assortment, we are selling cheap, the trade appreappreciates the fact and are not slow to grasp the situation. Why not do the business? its one of the certain consequences resulting from enterprise and square methods. We do not depend on big profits from each customer like the dealer doing a limited business must do. The quantity of Clothes we sell enables us to do business at a very small profit on each transaction. The bulk of the business is what we are after, and if assortment and giving the trade better values at late day quotations, not expecting profits of 15 years ago, will get it, then our brightest hopes will materialize, and just as certain as a man examines our line of Suits he will not be subjected to the trouble of visiting others, for we have an UNSURPASSABLE LINE AT UNAPPROACHABLE PRICES, besides a line of MEN'S SUITS from $3.50, $5.00, $6.00 up to $10.00. We have added a line of ENGLISH WORSTEDS in neat, narrow stripes and checks the like you never saw in Chestertown, and instead of going to the city and paying $18.00 to $20.00 a suit for these goods come here and get them for $12.25 to $13.50. We are headquarters for BLACK GOODS for special occasions, and can furnish most any desired fabric. An imported CLAY in Regent or sack, for $9.50, &c.

PANTS! PANTS! PANTS!

No occasion to go to the city to have a pair of Pants made. We can fit you and at so much less.

CHILDREN'S SUITS.

Our shelves bend under the load upon them, yet we are relieving the strain daily by dispensing to pleased patrons,. Our $2.50 line of ALL WOOL SUITS, 6 to 15 years, is a puzzler to competition.

HATS! HATS! NECKWEAR.

Look at the nobby dressers of our town and counties, ask them where they buy their hats? Yes, we now have room to handle hats and the output has exceeded our expectations. Any new hat to come out we get it. Same way in our NECKWEAR department. We also carry the staple shapes and styles.

OVERCOATS, UNDERWEAR and GLOVES.

All departments are full and complete. Come early while we have a full line. Respectfully

MOODY & LUSBY,
Directly opposite Court House. Square Dealing Clothiers.
