THE NEW WOMAN.

The shades of night were falling fast,
As through the crowded, streets there passed
A creature not to be described,
Who bore aloft a shield inscribed
The New Woman.

Her trousers were a little wide,
And just a trifle short beside,
As forward on her wheel she dashed.
While on the startled vision flashed
The New Woman.

Her brow with evening due was drenched,
Yet tight the handle bar she clinched,
And never dropped the banner bold
Which showed alike to young and old,
The New Woman.

"Oh, stay!" the young man said, "and rest
Your weary head upon my breast;
You surely cannot further go!"
A voice replied, "You do not know
The New Woman."

"Avoid this path," the old man called,
"Its dangers have strong men appalled."
Again a proud cry floated back,
"You can't keep in the beaten track
The New Woman."

"Beware the politician's fate,
And turn back ere it was too late."
But ever high above the din—
"Come what may, this vote shall win
The New Woman."

The timid crowd bewildered sat,
And many sighed, "Where are we at?"
One man was bold enough to try
To follow were before did fly
The New Woman.

All night he rode through darkness vast,
And ever anxous glances cast,
But speed of his could not avail
To catch upon her dizzy trail,
The New Woman.

And when at last the morning broke,
In bitterness these words he spoke:
"'Tis plain I'm distanced, and the race
Is her's by right of rapid pace,
The New Woman."

New Castle Presbytery!

The fall meeting of the New Castle Presbytery was called to order at 7.30 P. M., Oct. 1st, in the West Nottingham Presbyterian Church, near Colora, Cecil county, Md., by retiring moderator Rev. F. H. Moore, of Middletown Presbyterian Church. Rev. S. M. Perry, of Chesapeake City was elected moderator. Rev. N. H. Miller, D. D., of Newark, Del., was re-elected State's clerk for three years. Rev. F. W. Lewis and W. J. Fitzsimmons were elected temporary clerks. The retiring moderator F. H. Moore preached an excellent sermon from Acts 16 30, "What must I do to be saved?" Rev. B. C Henry D. D., of Canton, China, and Rev. E. W. Fitzsimons, of Baltimore Presbytery were invited to sit as corresponding members. Rev. J. L. Estlin was received from the Presbytery of Chester and arrangements were made for his installation at the Smyrna Presbytery Church. Rev. Arthur Dougal, a licentiate was received and examined in Latin, Greek and Hebrew languages in Theology Church History, Church Government and Sacraments for ordination to the gospel ministry. His examination was conducted before the Presbytery and sustained. Arrangements were made for his installation and ordination over the Berlin Presbyterian Church. Ocean city a new and promising field was brought to the notice of Presbytery and recommended to the Board of Church Erection for aid to build a church. Mr. Russell A. M. McCullough, of West Nottingham Presbyterian Church, was taken under care of Presbytery as a candidate for the gospel ministry. The Presbytery now has six candidates for the ministry under her care. Some are in college, and the rest are in the Theological Seminary. All are marked high in their studies. The Presbyterian Church believes in an educated ministry. Resolutions of sympathy were ordered sent to the parents of Rev. David Hutchinson who last April resigned charge of Harrington and Felton Churches on account of failing health. He returned to Ireland to his parents and is now insane. Committees were appointed to visit churches and hold four days meetings. Rev. O. A. Gillingham, of Port Penn Church and Rev. Alexander Gilmore, of Bridgeville Church were appointed to visit and assist Rev. K. M. Bull, of the First Presbyterian Church, Worton. Rev. B. C. Henry, D. D., a missionary from Canton, China, gave an interesting lecture on the "Present condition and future prospects of Chinese missions." An audience of nearly 800 people listened attentively to this splendid lecture. The Presbytery then voted hearty thanks to the pastor and congregation, especially the ladies of West Nottingham Presbyterian Church for their splendid entertainment and to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for excursion rates and then adjourned.

The members of the Presbytery were given dinner and supper in the chapel near the church. The tables were loaded with delicacies condusive to strength, sobriety, thought and piety, and served in the most approved style by the ladies.

West Nottingham Church is very old being organized in 1724. It is a strong church with a manse, an academy and a large cemetery, making a splendid church property.

Contrary to the established precedent of holding their convention in Baltimore the Christian Endeavorers of Maryland will this year meet in Hagerstown, Oct. 29-31 being the dates on which it will be held.

The meetings will be held in the Opera House, and overflow meetings in the adjacent churches. A splendid program has been arranged by the State Executive Committee. Among the distinguished speakers will be Rev. Drs. Behrends, McCrory and Puddefoot. These gentlemen are exceptionally fine speakers and a rich treat is in store for them that are fortunate enough to hear them.

Following the custom in vogue at the International Conventions, delegates are expected to pay for their entertainment. The rates are very reasonable, 74 cents a day, for lodging, breakfast and supper in private families and boarding houses and from 75 cents to $2 per day for the same accommodations in the hotels.

A noonday lunch will be served gratis by the Hagerstown Union.

The railroad companies are lending their aid to make this convention a success by reducing the rates to two cents a mile each way. This rate will apply, not only from Baltimore to Hagerstown, via either the Western Maryland or the Baltimore & Ohio R. R., but also to Baltimore from points on the various lines centering there. Delegates residing along the lines of the Baltimore Chesapeake & Atlanta Railway will be favored with tickets to Baltimore and return, at one fare for the round trip. Tickets to Baltimore and from Baltimore to Hagerstown can be purchased only on card orders, which can be had by applying to the secretary of each local society.

The great day of the convention will be Thursday, the 31st, when it is proposed to run a special excursion from Baltimore via Western Maryland Railroad. The train will leave Hillen Station about 8 A. M., arriving in Hagerstown about 11 A. M., and returning leave Hagerstown about 9 P. M. The cost of the tickets will be $1.25 for adults and 65 cents for children. These tickets may be purchased at the regular stations of the W. M. R. R. in Baltimore without presentation of card orders. The object in running this excursion is to have at least one day in which a large number of Endeavorers may come together for inspiration and fellowship. At the same time it will afford an excellent opportunity to view the grandeur of the mountains at the most beautiful time of the year.

The Endeavorers of Hagerstown as well as the State Executive Committee, expect a large number of enthusiastic delegates, who will do their part in making the convention the best yet held.

Peculiar People.

There are people who live too high up on the mountain, or too low down in the valley, to ever do the cause of God much good.

There are too many people in the church who would be frightened into a flutter, if a convicted sinner were to come to them and begin to talk religion.

There are professors of religion who weigh a ton for the party in election times, who don't weigh anything for the Lord at any time.

There are people who help the devil by making too much noise in church, and others who help him by not making noise enough.

There are people who look too happy at a horse race, and too dismal in a prayer meeting, to pull anybody toward the church.

There is a multitude greater than any man can number, whose prayers are too long in public and too short in private.

Some people talk the most about loving the Lord in the meeting where they have no fear of a collection being taken.

There are people who go wild with excitement in their politics, who are as free from it as an oyster in their religion.

Faith draws from sources untouched by circumstances.

Faith measures every difficulty by the power of God, and then the mountain becomes a plain. Faith knows no little things."

The world's most skilful aids are faith's surest hinderances. Little evidence, much adherance speaketh a strong faith.
