RASH MURDER TRIAL.

NO VERDICT—NEW TRIAL JUNE 3.

As stated in the NEWS last week the jury in the Rash murder trial failed to reach a verdict. They were discharged on Friday night about 8.30 P. M. and June 3rd fixed for a new trial.

During trial the three judges were on the bench. State's attorney Frank Harper is assisted by P. B. Hopper, Esq., by request of the former. The prisoner is defended by Messrs. John B. and E. H. Brown and T. L. W. Harley.

The jurymen selected were A. P. Hoffecker, foreman; James Brown, Ezekiel Foreman, C. H. Clash, W. P. Tanner, W. H. Newman, Lemuel C. Benton, Isaac M. Anthony, Francis A. Emory, Sturgis Goodhand, Jas. A. Lane, W. E. Collier.

The shooting of Rash took place on the night of March 6. Mr. Rash was standing in his dining room on the side opposite the front window, which is about five feet from the ground, preparing some medicine for two of his little children, who were sick upstairs. His wife, with her baby on her knee, was sitting on his right hand near the fireplace. On his left a few feet distant stood one of his sons. A report was heard and Mrs. Rash saw her husband stagger and fall. A colored servant, George Rochester, ran in from another room and saw Mr. Rash lying on the floor. Mrs. Rash sent Rochester to a neighbor's for aid. Soon Mr. E. B. Wall and David Bishop arrived and dispatched the servant for a physician. They placed Mr. Rash on a sofa in the room, and the doctors, S. P. Roberts and J. L. Findley, arrived about 10 o'clock, just as he was expiring. An examination showed that Mr. Rash's body had been perforated with numerous shot, Nos. 6 and 8, penetrating the left lung side, arm and kidney. Death resulted from internal hemorrhage.

The dying statement of Mr. Rash, in which he charged Brown with the deed, was not allowed by the court as evidence and of course this was a strong point for the defense. However, some very strong circumstantial evidence has been offered by the State, which closed its case Thursday. We give below some of the testimony.

The court told the prisoner's counsel that he must answer the indictment personally. This is a new rule which it is said the court decided upon after the trouble of the counsel, one of whom was J. Henry Baker, Esq., of this county,

Our first is a line of Men's Suits in Black and Blue Cheviots, Neat Checks and Mixtures, suitable for busines or church, which we worked hard to get to sell at the close prices for these remarkably good suits. $4.90 THE WHOLE SUIT, SIZES 34 to 42, don't fail to examine this special line.

Then comes the better ones in Black and Blue, Neat Stripes, Pin Checks and Hair Lines at $6.00, $7.00, $7.50 to $8.00, the like you never saw, made well, of all wool cloth, and all of them possess our inimitable fit. Next we invite you to inspect a line of Foreign Worsted Suits, which are a decided novelty for Chestertown. Made in neat, narrow stripes, pin checks, &c., all neat effects in the leading shades, which were tailored especially for us, all of which will be sold 20 per cent. less than city prices.
