ESTABLISHED 1841.

W. B. USILTON. FRED. G. USILTON.

WM. B. USILTON & SON,

EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.

CHESTERTOWN, MD., - AUGUST 8, 1896

HON. TOM REED has received his tenth nomination for Congress.

IT is now announced that Senator Hill will support Bryan and Sewall.

J. K. COWEN is now spoken of as the gold-bug Democratic nominee for President Nothing could be more appropriate!

WELLINGTON, the "grand duke," has been making speeches down the shore this week. What does that mean? Is he hustling for Dryden?

SENATOR BLAND, the noted Republican silver leader, will go with Bryan on his trip to New York, and describe the receptions in telegrams to the New York Journal.

THE election in Alabama last Monday signifies something. The silver Democracy sweeps the State by a majority of 40,000 over discontented Populists, gold-bug Democrats and Republicans all combined.

JUDGE RUSSUM has filed his opinion in Gaither-Cockey case in Queen Anne's, refusing double commissions in a mortgagee's sale. This will settle this important question.

MR. WILMER EMORY states that the new railroad between Queenstown, Md., and Greenwood, Del., a distance of 35 miles, will be ready for operation within sixty days, and to the seashore by the first of next January.

A SIGHT that made the blood of hundreds of people run cold was witnessed last Tuesday afternoon at the Ross county (Pa.) fair grounds. A ferocious lion, belonging to Hagenbeck's performing menagerie, bit off a child's head in the presence of its father and mother and many others.

NEXT Wednesday will be a great day in New York. Bryan, the people's candidate for President, will speak there that night. Prominent Democrats from Baltimore will be there to try to prevail upon the great candidate to visit Maryland's metropolis on his route back from New York, and it is confidently believed that he will come.

IF we could believe the telegrams shown around Chestertown and other sections of Kent by agents of fruit commission houses in Philadelphia, we would conclude that all our shippers who are using that market are growing rich. These telegrams during the week have quoted peaches about as follows: "Fancy yellows, per basket, $1.15@$1.40; good, 60c. to $1.00; prime, 30@60c; white, even better." On the very same days the actual sales were 50@70c. for the best grades and down as low as 25c. for prime, while the inferior could not be sold at any price. What's the use of so much of this kind of lying?

MR. CLEVELAND'S great Secretary of the Treasury has not yet declared himself, though his two sons have. The latter are for gold and McKinley. Hon. Bourke Cockran, one of New York's big Democratic lawyers, has declared for McKinley and gold. On the other hand, numbers of Republicans are reported for the silver candidate. There is much "mixing" in the political pot.

THE Cambridge Chronicle, edited by Hon. W. Laird Henry, says "the duty of the Democratic Congressional Convention at Ocean City is plain: adopt the Chicago platform and place Joshua W. Miles upon it." The Chronicle is pleased to believe that Mr. Miles will allow his name to be presented, and that if elected he will use his large and growing influence in Congress toward the accomplishment of the will of the people.

WHAT NEXT? The growth of the free coinage sentiment in Pennsylvania is reported as astonishing. A telegram to the New York Journal of last Thursday says: "The State of Pennsylvania is not to be won by McKinley without a struggle. According to the reports received by the Democratic Society of Pennsylvania, the farmers and workingmen are moving in masses, and as they never have before, toward the Democratic nominee."

DR. BRITTON D. EVANS, medical director of the State Asylum for Insane at Morris Plains, N. J., has inaugurated a school for nurses for insane people. It has been in operation for about a year and is doing an excellent work, reflecting great credit on Dr. Evans. Last week the commencement exercises were held and twenty-nine men and women were graduated. Dr. Evans practiced medicine in Millington for some time after graduating in medicine. His many friends in Kent are glad to know of his success.

HON. J. W. MILES.

In Line with his Party Upon the Great Question.

Hon. Joshua W. Miles, the distinguished representative in Congress from this district, writes the following letter under date of Aug. 3, 1896. Mr. Miles takes a manly view of the situation. His opinion on finance heretofore has been in accord with nearly every public man in Maryland, and especially with his own party, which at its latest State convention adopted a gold platform; but now that the highest body known to the party has declared a different policy—demanding the use of both metals by the adoption of free silver coinage—Mr. Miles accepts the decision, and says he would not dare oppose his own views to those which have received the endorsement of ninety per cent of his party. He further states that if he is nominated and elected to Congress he will "carry out the wishes of his people." Is there uncertainity about the meaning of this language? We think not. There should be none. The Democratic voters of this district are earnest in the demand for a Congressional representative who will correctly voice their wishes on this one all important subject of free silver coinage. They will be content with no uncertainty on this point. It is not what men have been in the past. We are not dealing with the past. Not what Mr. Miles has been on this question, but what he will do if a member of the next House. A revolution in sentiment has taken place in Maryland. Six months ago the State was overwhelmingly for the present gold policy; today it is overwhelmingly for "free silver," and the Democratic candidate for Congress in this district can only meet the best hopes of the party by a hearty advocacy of the silver cause and the splendid ticket nominated at Chicago:

PRINCESS ANNE, Aug. 3, 1896.

"It seems perfectly right that some expression of my individual views in the present extraordinary condition of affairs should be made.

During the whole of my career I have thought it absolutely requisite for the public welfare that the Country should secure and maintain a currency system in which gold and silver may circulate freely, at a parity, among the people. The only real question has been how can this be accomplished? To me it seemed that the concurrence of the principal nations of the world was necessary.

I shared the opinion with many of the ablest members of the Democratic party; and I have labored within the ranks of that party to secure the widest consideration of the subject, and for the establishment, as a party measure, of the opinions I entertained.

The fight I have thus made has been within the party; the party has definitely acted upon it, though the decision has been adverse to my view. Can I do less than yield to the clear decision that has been made? Can I longer contend for internationalism? I must acquiesce in the decision; and I do so not only because it is the action of my party, made after years of deliberate discussion, but because, upon a subject which is, after all, a mere opinion as to the expediency of consulting foreign nations in the matter of establishing a system of home finance. I dare not oppose my own views to those which have received the endorsement not only of ninety per cent. of my own party, but also of so many worthy persons in whose judgement I have been in the habit of placing much importance.

I shall vote for Bryan and Sewall and if I am nominated for Congress and elected, I shall carry out the wishes of my people and represent them to the best of my ability.

Yours truly,
JOSHUA W. MILES.

DIED.

On Aug. 7, 1896, at Mrs. M. E. Watts' Boarding House, in Chestertown, REBECCA CARLISLE, widow of the late Valentine Carlisle, in her 70th year. Funeral this Saturday morning at Chesterville M. E. Church, at 9 o'clock. (Caroline papers please copy.)

In Rock Hall, July 28th, 1896, GEORGE FRANKLIN, son of Thomas and Rebecca Elburn, aged 4 years, 8 months and 20 days.

Resolutions of Respect.

The committee on resolutions appointed at the second quarterly conference, Millington charge, held Aug. 1st, 1896, reports the following:

WHEREAS, Our Heavenly Father in his providence has called from earth our beloved father and mother in Israel, THOMAS MALLALIEU, and his wife, MARY MALLALIEU, and whereas, their death has closed a remarkable career of usefulness and devotion, therefore be it

Resolved, That the community has lost two of its most valuable members, and the church two of her most devout and useful workers and counsellors.

Resolved, That too much cannot be said in commendation of their liberality of mind and heart, of their benevolent and charitable spirit, and of their sincere efforts to advance both the material and spiritual interests of the kingdom of Christ.

Resolved, That the community in which they spent so many years, has been profited by their Christian influence, and has been elevated by the example of their pure and upright lives; and of them it may be truly said, "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord, that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them."

Resolved, That we tender the bereaved ones our heartfelt sympathy in this their great loss; that these resolutions be spread on the quarterly conference records, that a copy be sent to the family, and to the local church and secular papers for publication.

Signed { T. C. SMOOT, B. F. VINCENT, H. TONKIN, } Committee.
