"Great Personal Events."

A series of articles of unique interest has been undertaken by The Ladies' Home Journal, to be called "Great Personal Events," and will sketch the most wonderful scenes of popular enthusiasm and thrilling historic interest which have occurred in America during the past fifty years. Each one will be graphically detailed by an eyewitness, while leading artists have been employed to portray the events in pictures made from old illustrative material. The series has just been started in the current number of the magazine, Hon. A. Oakey Hall, ex-Mayor of New York City, sketching the scene "When Jenny Lind Sang in Castle Garden," which still stands as the greatest single concert in the annals of American music. Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher in the following issue will tell of a remarkable scene in which her husband was the central figure: "When Mr. Beecher Sold Slaves in Plymouth Pulpit." Then Stephen Fiske will portray the furore and excitement "When the Prince of Wales was in America." Parke Godwin will follow this in a succeeding number with an account of the unparalleled excitement in New York "When Louis Kossuth Rode Up Broadway." Hon. John Russell Young will sketch "When Grant Went Around the World." Mr. Young being of Gen. Grant's party. The great scene in the Senate Chamber "When Henry Clay said Farewell to the Senate" will follow. Lincoln will figure twice in the series: first, "When Lincoln was First Inaugurated," and, next, "When Lincoln Was Buried." The stirring story of the discovery of gold by John W. Mackay will be revived in "When Mackay Struck the Big Bonanza." The series will extend through all the numbers of The Ladies' Home Jounal during 1897.

FAIRLEE NOTES.

One of our citizens is still very seriously afflicted, Mr. Eddie O. Duyer. He was taken to the hospital in Baltimore, last Wednesday. The community is very hopeful for his speedy recovery.

Mrs. L. J. Keyser, accompanied by Miss Clara A. Keyser, left home Monday morning to visit Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Willis, Mrs. Keyser's parents. While descending the hill just north of the village, the horse began to kick, turned the carriage over and broke loose, leaving the two ladies and Mrs. Keyser's two little daughters in the ditch. Luckily they were not hurt.

Mr. S. C. Lecompt is very sick at his home, near St. Paul's Church, with muscular neuralgia. He is a great sufferer. Dr. T. B. Willson is attending him.

Mr. Wm. Kline and Miss M. M. Smyth have been quite sick during the week.

Master Robt. Lewis, 14 years old, shot 6 rabbits and 1 squirrel on Tuesday. Bravo! Bob, for a beginner.

Mrs. G. W. Bramble is visiting friends in the "Monumental City," as did also Mrs. Wm. Klien last week.

J. B. Merritt, D. D., and wife, spent last week with their children in Balto. Rev. Mr. Watts preached for him last Sunday morning. But few were out to hear him owing to the rainy morning. He is teaching the school near Melitota and will occupy one of the dwellings of Mr. J. W. Corey.

The store of Abraham Cohen, in Sandy Bottom, near St. Paul's Church, was entered Tuesday night and the contents of the money-drawer stolen, about $40. Too bad.

Election day passed off very quietly, good order prevailed through the town. Some say they think money was spent by both parties. One party is accused of having all the whiskey. Now which is worse the use of money on election day or the use of the vote influencing liquid, known as rum? Either is very bad and condemnable.

Mr. S. D. Leaverton has opened a store in our town. He has the most public site for a store in the place.

Prof. J. A. Greenwood, and family, of Rock Hall, passed through here on Friday evening to visit relatives in Still Pond. On Saturday the Prof. enjoyed the sport of a rabbit hunt and the way he did shoot and the rabbits he did kill.
WEST END.

MORGNEC NOTES.

The festival and sociable held last Saturday night for the benefit of Zion M. E. Church was a decided success in every particular, with the exception of a few "sarcasms" passed by some of our most respected ladies, nothing happened to mar the pleasure of those who were there. With but few exceptions there has never beenany drunkenness or disorderly conduct at any of our festivals, as has been so much the complaint in other sections; which we think reflects credit upon the management, and the young men of the neighborhood.

There will be but few removals in our section.

Mr. J. V. Crowding will move near town. A Mr. Dooling will occupy the farm vacated by Mr. Crowding.

Mr. Romie Byron will occupy the farm now tenanted by Mr. Ollie Cleaver.

Mr. Cleaver will remove to Queen Ann's.

Mr. Milton Peregoy, of Chestertown, and Miss Mary Smith, a petite beauty from near Locust Grove, has been visiting the Misses Nickerson.

Mr. H. C. Copper has become quite an expert on the wheel, and we believe under favorable circumstances could give "Shally" or "Chap" a good race. He has ridden from Town to his home a distance of five miles in fifteen minutes on a forty pound wheel.

Mr. John McKee has given his new dwelling a coat of bright paint, which makes quite an improvement.

Game, especially rabbits, are said to be plentiful in the neighborhood. The best display of skill in shooting is said to have been done by Mr. Howard Clendaniel, while the worse we have heard of was that of our friend F. H. who killed only three rabbits out of nineteen shots. He says some one must have taken the shot out of his shells.
X. & Y.

Utah's Female Senator.

Among the curious results of the recent battle of the ballots, one of the most interesting from many points of view is the election of Mattie Hughes Cannon to the State Senate of Utah by an immense plurality over her opponent, Augus M. Cannon, who, alas! for the future peace and quiet of the Cannon household, is the husband of the senatress-elect. The advent of Mrs. Cannon into the State senate may, however, exercise a perturbing influence over a wider circle than that which circumscribes the domestic realm of Mr. Cannon. The prospect of the election of women to the higher legislative assemblies has filled some apparently unprejudiced observers with alarm because of the paralyzing effect which it is feared their presence may have upon debates. It will doubtless be granted that it is a vital object of debate in a deliberative body to thoroughly thrash out the subjects under discussion; but a writer in the current number of the Nineteenth Century has made the shrewd suggestion "that things will not get themselves thrashed out" in the presence of women in public assemblies.

ROCK HALL LOCALS.

The Miller Bros. will remove into their new store room next week. It is the finest room in the county and will equal any on the shore. Mr. Wm. R. Pippin, of Chestertown, was the contractor and builder and we congratulate him upon the success of his work. The ceiling is finished in steel and makes a fine appearance. A large glass front lets in plenty of light. The owners are delighted with the new edifice and so is everyone who has seen it. The cost was $3,505.

Mr. T. J. Rich fell and dislocated his ankle a few days ago as he was retiring for the night. Dr. Selby treated the injury.

Already we can hear gentle rumors of candidates for office next year. Sheriff Casey is named for treasurer, Mr. Jos. Kendall for Legislature and for the postmastership it is said Mr. John W. Downey will give someone a warm fight.

Mr. Bartus Legg was detained at home several days this week with a mashed hand. Mr. Alfred Palmar drove the mail while Mr. Legg was at home.

Capt. Frederick Walters, one of the dredge captains which Captain Stevens chased and caught during last winter, and against whom this county court now holds charges, is now in a serious scrape. The city papers report him as shooting his wife on Friday night last, at the home of her mother, No. 2443 Canton avenue, Baltimore. He asked her to kiss him, she did so and then he fired two shots, one striking her in the temple the other in the neck. Captain Walters is known as the Chesapeake's leading oyster pirate. Walters is now locked up, and his wife is at Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Ex-Magistrate Bartus J. Wilkins will discontinue farming at the end of the year and will move in the old J. V. Crosby residence, and Mr. F. W. Wilkins will move to his father's farm and conduct it for the year '97.

Our friend Mr. Benj. H. Coburn was struck on the right temple a few days ago by a hatchet. He was trimming trees when the accident occurred.

Some of the oyster packers say that there are more oysters in the Choptank river now than for any one season for ten years. The scrape boats are taking from 100 to 150 bushels daily during good working days, and they are fatter than heretofore at this season. Oysters are also reported more plentiful in Honga river and Hooper's Straits than last year, though on all these grounds very few were left last spring. All this goes to show that the ways of the bivalve are not yet understood. Dorchester waters have never failed in their oyster crop, and are far surer, it would seem, than much of our farming land.

The 40 hours devotion will open at St. John's Church, Rock Hall, next Sunday. Rev. D. J. Flynn, of Wilmington, is expected to preach Monday evening.
