Kindle Fire with Crutches.

For four years I have suffered with a very bad case of Rheumatism and have been compelled to walk on crutches; the doctors say that my case is chronic and incurable. I tried the Yager's Liniment and I must sas that it is the best Liniment to relieve pain that I have ever used, and its action is prompt and effective.
JOHN ABERMAN, Clermont Mills, Md.

—o:o—

I have been sick with Inflammatory Rheumatism since November 1893, and have used a half dozen different kind of Liniments, but none of them helped me in the least, except the Yager's Cream Chloroform Liniment. I have used eight bottles of it and do not intend to be without it. It is the only thing that relieves me of pain. I can recommend it to anyone suffering with Rheumatism as the best pain reliever.
MRS. W. M. PARKER, Asbury, W. Va.

—o:o—

I have been affected with chronic Rheumatism in my back and hips for 16 years; have used various kinds of Liniments and so-called Pain Killers, but nothing I could do would relieve me. I was advised by a friend of mine to try your Yager's Liniment, and the one bottle relieved me, and was so well pleased with the first bottle that I purchased another, and will never be without it. BEFORE I could get relief from a most horrible blood disease, I had spent hundreds of dollars TRYING various remedies and physicians, none of which did me any good. My finger nails came off, and my hair came out, leaving me perfectly bald. I then went to

Hoping to be cured by this celebrated treatment, but very soon became disgusted, and decided to TRY

The effect was truly wonderful. I commenced to recover after taking the first bottle, and by the time I had taken twelve bottles I was entirely cured—cured by S. S. S. when the world-renowned Hot Springs had failed.

THOUGHTS FOR THE THOUGHTFUL.

A character can only bestow that which it possesses.

Men are taken at their own valuation by others.

When we have not understanding, we should at least have indulgence.

Against wounds of the affection, no possible guarantee can ever be given.

There are many moments in friendship, as in love, when silence is beyond words.

What we might have done always looks so much fairer to us than what we have done.

When we do a favor, nine times out of ten, we make a foe instead of a friend, for there are very few natures which a sense of obligation does not sour.

We must not expect a friend to be above humanity. We need not love his defects, but we should forbear to dwell on them, even in our own meditations.

Women have a passion for moral vivisection, and spend many an hour of torment turning in and out, and stripping bare the delicate nerves of their two organizations.

Frequent contact is necessary to sustain all sympathy. It is no fault of our own; it is due to our own imperfect memories, and the change which comes over our minds with years.

Happiness is a fugitive thing, and not apt to sit long quietly in an arm-chair at the banquet of life. It is a fairy which is propitiated rather by temperament than by fortune.

In happiness one enjoys trifles like a child, and the great world only seems to us a brilliant decor de scene set out on purpose to illustrate and illuminate our own romance, which is being played on its stage,

The successful man is not only helpful to himself alone; he helps a number of other people as well. There is not a healthy, vigorous, energetic, self-reliant, successful man whose example does not breed the same qualities in others, and personal contact with such a man is an active stimulant and direct aid to success. He awakens new strength and arouses ambition.

Perhaps more than half the happiness of life, whether in love or marriage, consists in having learned the art of gliding over as if it were unperceived, that which we are not desired to perceive. That few women have this delicate art, or possess the self-control and self-negation, which are required for its exercise, is a fact which lies at the root of a great deal of human unhappiness and disunion.

Contageous Yawning.

The young men boarded an Oldtown trolley car one afternoon this week to settle a very peculiar wager, the one having bet the other a $5 silver certificate that he would make six people out of ten yawn anywhere without saying a word. A well-filled car was selected for the purpose. The young man who had proposed the wager then opened his mouth and gave a fearful yawn. He speedily followed it by another, and then awaited results. A moment later a middle-aged lady promptly put her hand up to her mouth to smother a cavernous yawn. Almost everybody in the car after that seemed in a desperate hurry to follow the lady's lead. Out of the nineteen people in the car there were fourteen who were seized by the affliction.—Bangor News.
