Scrofula

Miss Della Stevens, of Boston, Mass., writes: I have always suffered from hereditary Scrofula, for which I tried various remedies, and many reliable physicians, but none relieved me. After taking 6 bottles of S.S.S. I am now well. I am very grateful to you, as I feel that it saved me from a life of untold agony, and shall take pleasure in speaking only words of praise for the wonderful medicine, and in recommending it to all.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE!

The Commissioners for Kent county, sitting as a Board of Control and Review, hereby call the attention of those who have failed to return their private securities for assessment to section 195 of the assessment law, which is as follows:

"If any person shall, with a view to evade the payment of taxes, fail or refuse to give in to the assor any bonds, notes, claims or other evidences of debt which are subject to assessment and taxation under this Act the same shall not be recoverable by action of law, or suit in equity before any of the courts this State, until they have been listed and the tax paid thereon, with an addition of fifty per centum per annum from the time the tax accrued, and the failure to give in said bonds, notes, claims, or other evidences of debt shall be taken as prima facia evidence of the intention so to evade the payment of taxes."

Dr. Layman Abbott's Lectures.

Rev. Dr. Lyman Abbott, of Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, delivered three lectures in Baltimore last week upon the subject, "The Christian in the Commonwealth." The lectures are given under the auspices of the University Young Men's Christian Association, forming the annual Levering course, maintained through the gifts of Eugene Levering. Dr. Abbott is the minister who recently gained notoriety in his sermon in Plymouth Church when he stated that he did not believe the story of Jonah and the whale to be a statement of fact, but that it was a parable. The subject of his first lecture Tuesday evening was "The Christian in Business."

He said in part: "Jesus Christ came into the world primarily to teach us not how to prepare for another world, but how to live in this one. He said very little on the theological doctrine, but what He said about the duties of men to one another and to their God is clear and explicit.

"God puts at the disposal of man the forces of the infinite and we thus grind out prosperity. We take the wheat, it requires work to transform it to bread: then the great arterial system of transportation comes into use, and when the bread reaches the city the shop-keeper, and the much-abused middleman and banker come into play. I don't think these men deserve abuse. Suppose you should abolish banks? We would come back to barter and the tailor of my congregation would send me the value of my sermon in a suit of clothes and the milkman in milk. And if I have a good many doctors in my congregation I would have to be quite sick before I am well paid.

"From this we see that the duty of the Christian merchant is to distribute wealth and not to concentrate it. We are talking on Christ's platform, and the three principles are love, service and sacrifice. That man is not the successful man who has amassed wealth.

"It merely indicates thrift and temperance in himself or in his ancestors. Christ only called one man a fool, and that was the man whose whole conception was to amass money and not to distribute it. There are a great many such fools in America."

The Dr.'s three topics for the course were "The Christian in Public Life," "The Christian in Business," and "The Christian Teacher," and are very highly spoken of by the press of Baltimore. The Dr. shows that he is a ripe scholar.

The Ground Hog Discounted.

The reputation of the ground hog as a weather prophet has been forever blasted. On Candlemas Day, February 2, he did not see his shadow. According to the ancient tradition, this foreboded pleasant weather. The forty days were completed Tuesday, and the apparently veracious animal's sagacity is more than doubted by this summary from the local weather bureau.

"For the month of February, beginning on the second, there were twenty-one cloudy or partly cloudy days. On fifteen of those days it either rained or snowed and on some of them snow and rain fell alternately. There were but six clear days.

"In the month of March there were but five clear days, counting up to Tuesday, and the rest were either downright cloudy or partially gloomy. On five days rain fell, and on the 14th of the month the day was opened with a fall of sleet which, happily, was of short duration."

GERMAN KALI WORKS, 93 Nassau St., New York.

Farmers, Stockmen AND DAIRYMEN.

You are especially interested in the care of your live stock; and know that by keeping them in prime condition they can be made more valuable to you, and give better returns. During the winter months when off grass, it is absolutely necessary that they should have a true tonic, something to take the place of the nourishment obtained from roots and herbs they get when browsing on the hill sides. For such, we direct your especial attention to the Gleason's Horse and Cattle Powder, a compound that is purely vegetable and the fruits of careful study by the originator, who has had years of experience in handling stock of all kinds.

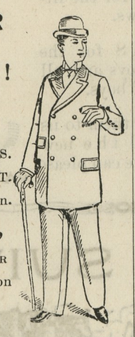

Properly fed in small doses it purifies the Blood, regulates the Bowels, aids Digestion, expels Worms, Grubs and Botts, creates Bone and Muscle, cures Colds, Epizooty and Distemper, restores the Appetite, tones up the entire System, and makes the Horse more Handsome and valuable to the owner. As a Milk, Flesh and Butter producer it is unsurpassed.

Gleason's is a thorough condition Powder that no Farmer, Stockman or Dairyman should be without.

It is sold by all dealers and prepared by
