KIBLER'S KORNER

No. 5. December 4, 1935 Vol. 8.

They say that when the eyes are shut, our hearing is not

Ever hear this one? "Honest judge, I hope the Lord will strike me dead if I stole dem chickens." "Well, you stand over there in the corner. If He does not strike you dead in 30 minutes, I'm going to give you 30 days."

The following letter was received recently by a maker of corn syrup.
Dear Sirs: Though I have taken 6 cans of your corn syrup, my feet are no better now than they were before I started.

Employment means prosperity. Put four-fifths of your full dollar into labor's pay envelope by using Kibler's Clean Coal.

That Xmas fund check, why not make it a practical present this year. What would be more useful than coal. Yes, we will deliver any quantity.

"Rastus, is mah bahth warm?"
"Yas, suh, Colonel, the wahmest ah was evah in!"

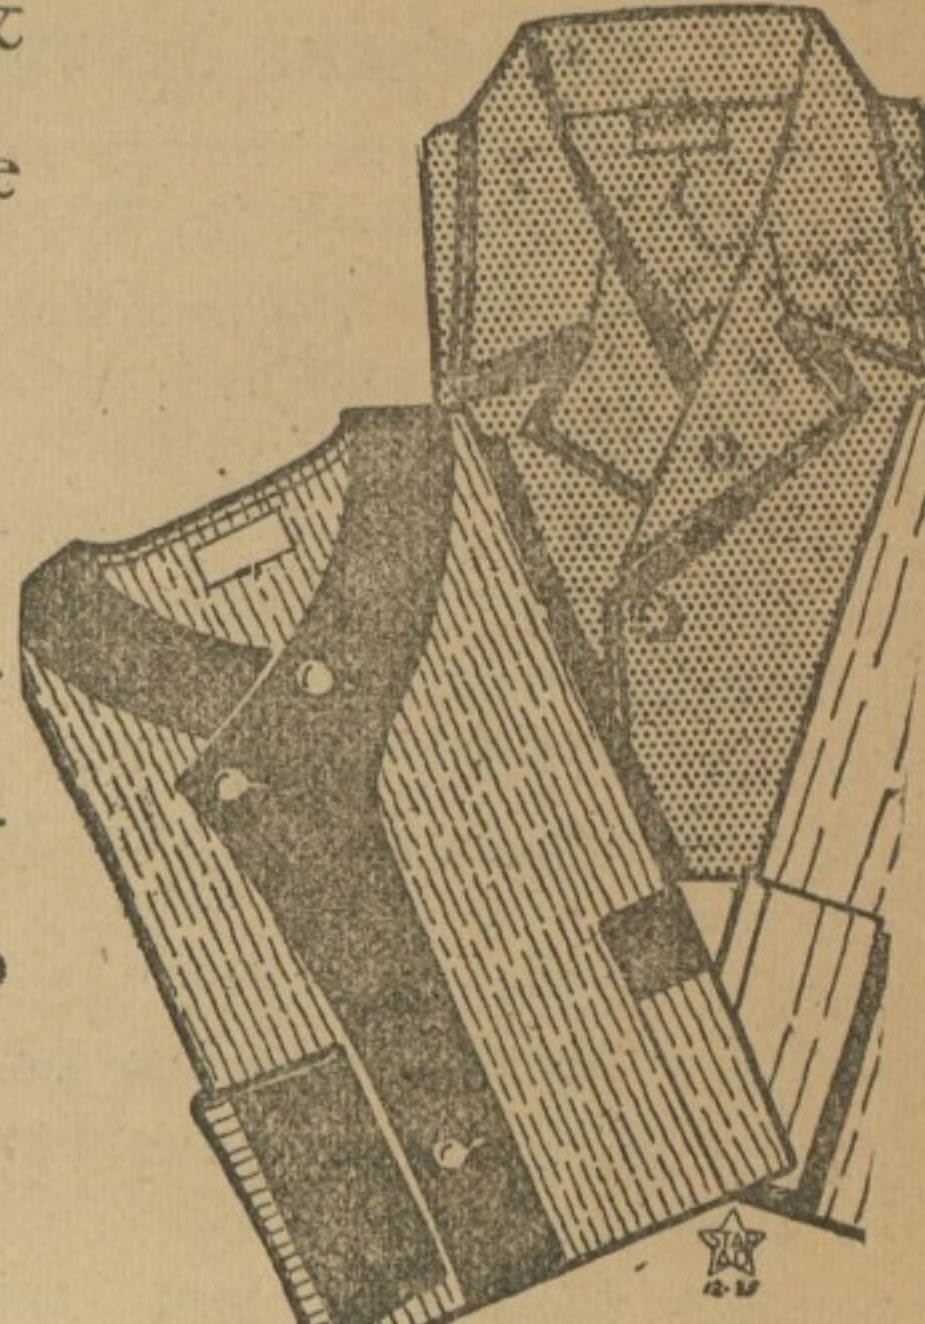

The cold snap over Thanksgiving increased the growing demand for Kibler's Clean Coals. Thanks friends.
