"Alabama Pitts"

ALBANY, N. Y. . . . Above is Edwin C. (Alabama) Pitts, recent Sing Sing Prison baseball star whose signing by Albany, upon his release, caused a ruling that he could not play professional baseball "for the good of the game."

Open Golf Champion

PITTSBURGH. . . They said anybody who could break 300 for 72 holes over the Oakmont course here would win the National Open Golf grown for 1935. Sam Parks, Jr., 25 (above), shot 299 and won, upsetting a great field of stars. Parks was captain of U. of P. golf team.

Mrs. Clara Rice is spending a few weeks in Havre deGrace.

Mr. Norman E. Pennington, of Rockville, Md., spent the week end with relatives here.

The Children's Day programme was very good at Grace Presbyterian church. The flower committee had decorated the church beautifully with cut flowers and ferns and everyone did their part well. It consisted of music and recitations as follows: Music by the choir, prayer by the Rev. B. F. Ferguson; exercise, "All Aboard," by Marie Weer, Doty Groves, Billy Fogwell, Ellwood Miller, Ruth and Virginia Groves; Recitation, "Thousands"; exercise, "Friendly Flowers"; chorus by choir; exercise, "Helpers," by Catherine Blackiston and James L. Archibald; exercise "Chosen Words"; duet, "Galilee," Mrs. Frank Young and Mrs. Charles Miller, Jr.; recitation, "God's Presence"; Pantomime "The Choice," by Virginia Archibald, Betty Jean Groves and Elsie May Ireland; remark, by the minister; offering; closing chorus and benediction.

"Dizzy" Has Troubles

ST. LOUIS . . . Jerome "Dizzy" Dean (above), talked a great deal last winter after starring in the world series play. This year he has had a hard time winning games for the St. Louis Cardinals, the climax being a near riot with his own teammates at Pittsburgh. "Dizzy" is troubled and mopey now . . . and says he's sorry.

Fifteen years ago there were about 5,500,000 customers of the electrical industry. Today there are more than 30,000,000.

THE FORD V-8 ENGINE
GIVES YOU power to GO

AND MODERN FORD BRAKES GIVE YOU
power to STOP

These modern Ford brakes respond—instantly—to the slightest touch. The power to stop quickly, smoothly, safely, is an outstanding feature of Ford brakes.

WHEN Ford built the V-8 engine, he made the most powerful motor ever put in a low-priced car. And he made brakes that are just as powerful and dependable. You can't find a hill the Ford V-8 engine can't climb with ease, with power to spare. And you can't find a hill on which the Ford brakes won't bring you to a quick, even stop. A gentle pressure on the accelerator and you're off to a powerful, speedy start. A gentle pressure on the brake pedal brings you to a smooth, fast stop. For going—for stopping—for safety—for economy—the Ford V-8 is the car of the year!
