

KENNEDYVILLE HAPPENINGS

Easter Programme Is Presented At Methodist Protestant Church Sunday

The Easter programme at M. P. Church Sunday night was as follows: Opening Chorus, "Carry the Easter Message"; Prayer, by Rev. L. E. Haddaway; Welcome, by Jack King; Exercise, "Little Brothers and Sisters"; Duet, "The Flowers" by Jack and Jean King; Recitation, "Bells of Easter"; Exercise, "Blessings of Easter Day"; Recitation, "If You Will Wait"; Choir, "Sweet Easter Time"; Remarks by the Pastor; Offering; Pageant, "The Easter Victory."

A dramatization for Easter in four acts, interspersed with music, beautiful solos, duets and choruses. It was beautiful and all took their parts well. The church was decorated with lovely blooming plants and flowers.

The Grace Presbyterian Church held a good Easter Service. The sermon by the Rev. M. Ruebman, of Newark Presbyterian Church, was taken from the 16th chapter of St. Mark and 6th verse, "He is risen, he is not here, behold the place where they laid Him."

The "Sacrament" was administered to the congregation after an impressive talk explaining the full meaning of it.

The Solo "I know my Redeemer Liveth," was sung by Mrs. Frank Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Green, of Church Hill, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Archibald. Miss Gladys S. Archibald, of Wilmington, was also home for the Easter tide.

Mrs. Ross Witbank, Mrs. Harry J. Hill, Mrs. D. C. Kelley and Mrs. Ryland C. Crow, spent Saturday in Wilmington, also Mr. Arthur Groves and daughter, Mrs. May W. Spry and sister, Mrs. W. Bruce Dukes.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Gerald Myers were in Baltimore on Saturday.

Mrs. W. C. Dempsey and sons, Theodore and Robert and her mother, Mrs. Caldwell, visited relatives in Wilmington on Monday.

Mrs. Caldwell will spend sometime with her daughter Mrs. William Umfitt and Mr. Umfitt.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Lipscomb visited Cecilton friends on Sunday.

Miss Bettie Jett Cain, of Baltimore, spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Frank S. Cain.

Master Joe H. Weer and sister, Marie, visited their aunts in Washington over the week end.

Elsie May Ireland, of Betterton, visited her aunt, Mrs. Young and Mr. Robert C. Young for the holidays.

Miss Betty Scott spent Monday with Miss Anna Oliffe.

Doris Oliffe had a birthday party on Saturday afternoon.

Eight little girls enjoyed it with her. It was in honor of her eighth birthday. They all had a happy time together. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, candy and fruit served. Many pretty gifts were received.

The babies baptized Sunday were given the names as follows: George Willis McHenry, Harry William Johnston, John Spencer, Jr., or Jackie, and Harry Leon Gordon.

Mrs. Pearl Walls and daughter, Miss Edith and Mr. Walter Wilbank spent Sunday with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Oliffe, Jr., and little son Joe, near Worton.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bidwell spent a few days with her daughter, Mrs. James Nickerson.

Mrs. Walter Kernan and children, of Philadelphia, are spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry George.

ON THE SCREEN

Love and mystery form an intriguing combination in "Star of Midnight," RKO-Radio's romantic drama, starring William Powell and Ginger Rogers, which shows at the New Lyceum Theatre on Monday and Tuesday, April 29 and 30.

Telling a strikingly different type of love story, in which the delectable Miss Rogers, fresh from triumphs in the musical "Kismet," is the vixen, and Powell the ostensibly wary quarry, the picture deals with a baffling mystery in modern New York's pageant and glitter.

A beautiful woman disappears, a newspaper columnist is killed under strange circumstances, and three different factions undertake the solution of the case—each with a separate motive.

Powell and Miss Rogers team as a "Sherlock and Watson" combination in running down clues to the mystery. The two stars, long established among the screen's foremost favorites, appear together for the first time.

Although they have worked at the same studios many times and often have acted on adjoining stages, Powell and Miss Rogers were never cast together until RKO-Radio opened the microphones for this intriguing mystery drama.

"Star of Midnight" is based on the serial of the same title by the late Arthur Sours Roche. It ran recently in the Red Book magazine.

Howard J. Green, Anthony Veiller and Edward Kaufman are the scenarists.

Stephen Roberts, who directed Miss Rogers and Francis Lederer in "Romance in Manhattan," is credited similarly with "Star of Midnight" while the strong cast includes such prominent players as Ralph Morgan, Leslie Fenton, Paul Kelly, Gene Lockhart, Russell Hopton, Vivian Oakland and J. Farrell MacDonald.

For the character Patricia Ellis plays in Damon Runyon's "Hold 'Em Yale," coming on Wednesday and Thursday, May 1 and 2, to the New Lyceum Theatre, "there's something about a uniform" that just drives her crazy.

Miss Ellis in the leading feminine role of this new Paramount picture plays a dizzy little heiress who marries every man she meets who wears a uniform, much to the disgust of her father and the discomfort of his payroll—after having bought off five or six husbands.

Some of Mr. Runyon's "citizens of Broadway" figure on cutting in on this nice little farce. So, with Cesar Romero dressed in a phony aviator's garb they enuce the little girl away from home and decide to hold her until her father comes through with plenty.

The little girl turns the tables on them however, forces them to eat her cooking, wash their necks, spruce their appearances and generally makes life miserable for these "hard citizens."

When they try to get rid of her, they discover that her father won't take her back, but wants her married off to a boy at Yale.

In the comedy final sequences the gangsters take charge of the Harvard-Yale football game, contrive to make the prospective groom win and finally get rid of the "doll." Directed by Sidney Lanfield, "Hold 'Em Yale" features Cesar Romero, William Frawley, Andy Devine, Warren Hymer and George E. Stone as members of the Broadway gang, and Larry Crabbe as Miss Ellis' final choice.

The Universal Car

ONE name comes quickly to mind when you think of "The Universal Car." The description is distinctively Ford. No other car is used by so many millions of men and women in every part of the world. Everywhere it is the symbol of faithful service. . . . That has always been a Ford fundamental. Something new is constantly being added in the way of extra value. Each year the Ford has widened its appeal by increasing its usefulness to motorists. . . . Today's Ford V-8 is more than ever "The Universal Car" because it encircles the needs of more people than any other Ford ever built. It reaches out and up into new fields because it has everything you need in a modern automobile. . . . The Ford V-8 combines fine-car performance, comfort, safety and beauty with low first cost and low cost of operation and up-keep. There is no other car like it.

CONFIDENCE

Confidence comes with knowing. . . . For nearly 50 years, since 1886 to be exact, we have been writing Fire Insurance as the representative of some of the oldest and strongest companies. In all that time there has never been a single instance of dispute or disagreement between this agency and its clients. This long period of cordial relations with hundreds of people means something. It indicates that the business of this agency has been conducted strictly on "fair and square" principles—no misrepresentations—no misleading interpretations—no exaggerations—no evasion of obligations. In reality it means—
