PRIZE OFFERED AT HIGH SCHOOL IN ATTENDANCE

by Emory Hines, Jr.
Attendance Prize

It seems just natural that most of us strive a little harder for something if we have a goal ahead. And so, with this in mind, Mr. Stenger is offering a prize to the home room attaining the highest percentage of attendance each month. During the month of February the Sophomore class of 9A reached 90.4 percent, while the Seniors of Mr. Poole's room passed with a percentage of 90.5 percent. One tenth of a percent's difference. That will be one race which we will want to see the results of later. Perhaps, however, some other class may come up from their low standing and snatch the booty from the others for themselves. For March is a changeable month. Even though the prize has not yet been decided upon, we all know that it will be one which every pupil of the victorious class may appreciate. Everybody thinks that the new idea is a good one, and that a much greater attendance record will soon blossom forth.

English Class Makes Book Of Poems

by Marjorie Dixon

"There is no frigate like a book to bear you lands away." Especially books of your own making. During the study of poetry in the 10A English Class, they thought it would be a good idea to make a book of poems. After having read a variety of poems, they chose fifteen which appealed to them most and combined them into an attractive book. From the looks of the multi-colored stack on Miss Bryan's desk yesterday, it seems the idea went over big.

A big campaign to collect human hair from barber shops has been started by Soviet authorities. Specialists have discovered the hair can be made into excellent felt. Barbers who collect the most will be rewarded by vacations.

Thespians Present Play In Activity Period

by Charlotte Russell
I Want a Divorce

Yes, several did, but none succeeded in getting one when on Friday, March 1, the Sophomore Dramatic Club presented "I Want a Divorce" in Activities Period. Three couples applied for divorces at the office of two German lawyers. The lawyers made peace in the families instead of getting them divorced. The first couple was Anne Turner and Jack McDermott, the second couple was Kitty Bringham and Joe Weer, who were colored people, while the last couple was Charlotte Russell and David Wright. The two German lawyers were Wayne Pote and Neal Truslow. The play was presented very well with the help of four boys (mountaineers) who played a selection on mouth-organs and guitars. The play will be presented at the P. T. A. Meeting in April. We can assure you of some real enjoyment.

Partition Makes Library At High School

by Mary Lillian Knotts

Many oh's and ah's were claimed from surprised students last Monday morning, when, upon entering the assembly room, what greeted their astonished eyes but a wall length screen partition enclosing the excellent collection of books. This, and the innovation of new shelves, were constructed during our absence over the week-end in order that all books of our growing library may be kept intact and meanwhile be accessible to the pupils. It is our fervent hope that this will be the foundation of a bigger and better library for Chestertown High School.

Hot Sicilian blood got the better of two natives hired to fight a duel in a moving picture being made at Palermo, Sicily. They were separated only after one had driven a sabre into the other's arm. They lost their jobs to less realistic understudies.

Press Club Will Present Pin As Reward

by Emory Hines, Jr.

As a reward for merit during the school year of 1934-35, it has been definitely decided by the Press Club to present a pin to those thought to be deserving of one. The motion, constituting the above, was passed recently and states that the President of the club, Miss Riches, faculty adviser, the Editor of the Reflector, and a person elected at large, shall select six people whom they think are worthy of the honor. The club as a whole then votes for the four best of these six. The pin will be awarded not only for writing, but for recognized help benefiting the organization. The selection committee consists of Shirley Fox, Mary Lil Knotts, and Emma Barnett.

The war department requires birth and death certificates for all horses in Italy, thus keeping track of every equine for use in event of war. Failure to register horses brings penalties almost as severe as in the case of lack of record on human beings.
