Westerner's View of Shore

J. E. House, writing in the Philadelphia Ledger, says of the Eastern Shore:

"The Eastern Shore is as rural as any country I have seen. We saw neither trolley car nor billboard and only one railroad. I doubt it is much of a railroad, when it comes to that, but it must be so classified. What we did see was a slightly rolling farming country which bore none of the marks of our complex civilization. We left the last tearoom behind us at Newark, the last odor of coal smoke at Elkton. The country has not the marcelled appearance of New England, New York and Pennsylvania. It is the custom of the Southern land-owner to leave it lay until next week, or until he wants to use it again. It has not the opulent appearance of the richer portions of the Middle West. But the size of the farms amazed me. The contrast was, of course, sharper because I had recently had opportunity to observe the joke farming of New England at its height. But if my eye for area is not rusty from disuse, farms of 400 or 500 acres are not uncommon. And it is wheat and corn farming—that pattern of husbandry from which the world gets its impetus. Great stacks of straw marked where wheat had been. I saw as good corn as I have seen in Iowa and Illinois.

Farmers, List Your Repair Needs

It would be hard to find a farmer who at some time or another had not lost valuable time waiting for necessary repair parts. Take this territory and total up the time lost in this way and it will astonish you. And all because repairs are not odered as early as they should be.

There is no better time than right now—just before the busiest season on the farm—to go over your machines carefully, make a list of repairs you are likely to need and send it to us. With this list in our hands, we can order our stock so as to be prepared to meet every call promptly.

Repair part service is a necessary part of our business. We realize what it means to you in time and money to get what you need at once. Help us to help you by making up your list now and sending it in to us.

Inactive Liver

"I have had trouble with an inactive liver," wrote Mrs. S. Nichols, of 4412 Spencer St., Houston, Texas. "When I would get constipated, I would feel a light, dizzy feeling in my head. To get up in the morning with a lightness in the head and a trembly feeling is often a sign that the stomach is out of order. For this I took Thedford's Black-Draught, and without a doubt can say I have never found its equal in any liver medicine. It not only cleans the liver, but leaves you in such a good condition. I have used it a long time, when food does not seem to set well, or the stomach is a little sour."

If it isn't Thedford's it isn't BLACK-DRAUGHT Liver Medicine.
