THE TRANSCRIPT

Entered at the Postoffice at Chestertown, Md., as Second Class Matter.

THE harmony meeting held at Braddock Heights Tuesday evening and the convention held in Baltimore Thursday shows a united Democratic party throughout the state, which assurs Democratic success this November. The delegates to the State Convention from this county were: Thomas G. Wroth, Harvey B. Moore and Mrs. Joseph E. Watson.

THE Commissioners of Chestertown have issued and distributed a bulletin this week to the taxpayers of Chestertown. This bulletin contains articles full of interest, information and food for thought. The Commissioners are showing a progressive spirit—let every citizen of Chestertown get behind them and help push their progressive methods along. Don't be a hanger-back; be a booster and a helper. Take yourself in hand, wipe the cobwebs from your eyes, broaden your mind, extend your vision, take a peep into the future and picture what your town will be in a few years compared to what it is now. Instead of having things lag along from year to year, give them a push ahead and increase the town's business interests 25 per cent each year until we have a town second to none on this Shore. The defeat of the bond issue was a blow to the best interests of Chestertown, but don't let that demoralize us—let's take a new hold and push things worth while along and show those who opposed the bond issue their mistake in so opposing it. No town or business can afford to stand still—it must go backward or forward—what business man wants to see his business going backward? What good citizen wants to see his town take a backward step? Energy and push accomplish big things; without these essentials, progress must fail.

NO MONEY NECESSARY

It's interesting, educational and fun-evoking and costs nothing to try. It is not a subscription contest, and you don't have to send in a single subscription in order to win a prize.

We know this is the best puzzle you have ever seen—nothing hard, just different, that's all. We venture to say that you never have had as much fun as you will have while playing this game. Do not delay—start your list of "P-Words" tonight and see if you will not agree with us.

Follow These Rules

1. This Puzzle Game is open to any man, woman, boy or girl who is not an employee of "The Baltimore News or American" or a member of an employee's family. It costs nothing to take part in the game.

2. Answers should be written on one side of the paper only, and words numbered consecutively—1, 2, 3, etc. Write your full name and address on the top of each sheet. Answers must be mailed before Midnight, Monday, October 9, and addressed to Paul O. Sergent, Puzzle Manager, The Baltimore American.

3. Only words which are found in the English Dictionary will be counted. Compound, hyphenated and obsolete words will be considered as errors. If the singular of a word is used the plural cannot be counted and vice versa. Words of the same spelling can be used only once, even though used to designate different objects. The same object can be named only once, although any part of the object may also be named. Where there is more than one word equally applicable to an object, any one of them will count.

4. The person sending in the largest and nearest correct list of words beginning with the letter "P," naming objects shown in the picture, will win First Prize; second nearest, Second Prize, etc. One point will be given for each correct word sent in and one point deducted for each incorrect word or omission. This will be figured on a percentage basis. Neatness, style or handwriting have no bearing upon deciding the winners.

5. All answers will receive the same consideration, regardless of whether or not a subscription is sent in.

6. Persons may work together in preparing their lists, but only one prize will be awarded to any one household. Nor will more than one prize be awarded to any group outside of the family where two or more have been working together.

7. In the event of a tie for any prize offered, the full amount of such prize will be paid to each person so tied. The correct list will be made up of correct words submitted by contestants, and will not consist of any "master" or "predetermined" list.

8. Three well-known citizens of Baltimore, having no connection with "The News or American," will act as judges. They will use as their authority Webster's New International Dictionary, and contestants agree to accept their decision as final and conclusive.

9. These judges will meet directly following the close of the Puzzle Game, and the names of the Prize Winners and the winning list of words, together with the correct list, will be published in "The American" just as quickly thereafter as the judges can complete the checking.

How to Win $1500

It costs nothing to take part in the game, and you don't have to send in a single subscription to win a prize. If your list of "P-Words" is awarded First Prize by the judges you will win $50.00. However, if you would like to win more than $50.00, you can do so by sending in one or two yearly subscriptions to "The American," with remittance to cover.

HOW: If you have sent one six-month subscription and your answer is awarded First Prize by the judges you will win $350.00. (See column of prizes in Class "C.")

OR, if you have sent one yearly or two six-months subscriptions and your answer is awarded First Prize you will receive $750.00 as your reward. (See column of Prizes in Class "B.")

BETTER STILL: If your answer is awarded First Prize and you have sent two yearly or four six-months subscriptions (half of which must be new), you will receive the Big Cash Prize of $1500.00, in place of only $50.00. (See column of Prizes in Class "A.")

Just think! It takes but two yearly subscriptions or four for six months to qualify for the Big Cash Prizes. This is absolutely all you need. Your own new or renewal subscription will count as one and you can get one more, then your answer will be qualified in full. We can accept subscriptions to start at any future date. To put your list in Class "C" your subscriptions can be either new or renewal; Class "B," if it is for one year it can be either new or renewal, but if two six-months subscriptions, one of them must be new. If you desire to put your list in Class "A," one yearly subscription must be new, and if you send four six-months subscriptions, two of them must be new. In sending in subscriptions, give full instructions on a separate sheet from that on which you send in your answer.

Extra copies of picture free on request.
