

It Is Now Time

to begin to think about spraying your orchards.
BEGIN RIGHT BY BUYING AN Empire King Sprayer
which is the most satisfactory spray pump made.
After we have supplied you with a Spray Pump then the next is something to use in it. We have found to be very satisfactory by such farmers as Mr. John Bell, Mr. James Bell, Mr. J. Thos. Smith, Mr. James Newnam, Mr. John Newnam, Mr. James A. Lee and many others. Mr. James A. Lee, of Studlersville, Md., tells us that the inspector from the Maryland Experiment Station tells him that he never saw a better job done by anything or anybody as he could absolutely find no live scale in his orchard after the use of SCALESCIDE. What better recommendation can you want than that?

We also have the SUCCESS MANURE SPREADER which is a thorough rolling bearing machine, the only manure spreader yet using roller bearings which is a much lighter draft spreader. It is undoubtedly the best manure spreader made. See us before buying.

We are also prepared to furnish you with anything that you may need on the farm, OLIVER PLOWS, FARM WAGGONS, HAMES, TRACES, LINES, COLLARS, BRIDLES, HALTERS, BACKBANDS, etc.

If you need a GASOLINE ENGINE either stationary or marine we are prepared to take care of you. For the stationary we have the McVICKER which is simplicity in itself, and for the marine we have the FERRO which is too well known here to need anything further said. Let us figure with you on your wants.

HOLLAND MUSTARD.

Some of the Virtues Ascribed to it and One Way to Make It.

Hollanders use enormous quantities of mustard and thrive on the condiment. There is a small spot in Overysel, I think it is near Goor, where the land slopes gently down to the river IJssel and is a brown gray clay. This is fashioned into the cutest little jugs you ever saw, holding about a pint each, and the genuine Dutch mustard, made only in that pocket borough, according to a secret process handed down for many generations, is hermetically sealed therein. It will keep for years and is as delicious as the finest condiment. It is butter, cheese and condiment to the Hollanders who can afford it. And there is no other place on earth where that mustard can be bought.

You might ask, "Why do the Hollanders eat so much mustard?" The answer is: "The Holland mustard is the most delightful stomach stimulant. It makes the food slide down." It cures the worst cases of dyspepsia. It keeps the liver in fine shape. It is an antidote for the most deadly poison—corrosive sublimate. It is in large doses a non-nauseating emetic. It is the only counterirritant handed down to us by our grandmothers—the mustard plaster. The Dutch girls use it sparingly on their velvet cheeks to give a rosy complexion. When a person is drowsy and nearly out a drink made of pure mustard and oil will fetch him around. A mustard "stoop" is a certain cure for catarrh in the nasal cavity.

Here is one Dutch method of preparing mustard for the table: Mix equal portions of black and white seeds and grind to a fine powder. Boil this in the best vinegar till thoroughly mixed. Grate some fresh horseradish, squeeze out the juice and add to the mustard. Then put in a little salt, a little sugar, a little turmeric, a little fenugreek and a little white honey. You will eat this on your bread, cake, pie, battercakes and waffles, your meats, fish, game and poultry.—New York Press.

PRESENCE OF MIND.

A Madhouse Doctor's Experience With His Crazy Cooks.

A celebrated Scotch physician tells a story of a madhouse doctor whose presence of mind alone saved his life: "A great friend of mine was for a considerable time the medical superintendent of a lunatic asylum near Glasgow.

"One night in making his customary rounds he had occasion to visit the patients in the kitchen, who were preparing the dinner. There were seven of them, all big sturdy fellows, who were believed to be harmless. The keeper only looked in upon them now and again, feeling that his constant presence was unnecessary. "The doctor unlocked the iron barred door of the kitchen and went in among the lunatics.

"There were five large boilers containing scalding water ready for making the day's dinner for the patients. "One of the lunatics pointed at the boilers full of hot water and, laying his hand upon the doctor's shoulder, said, 'Doctor, you'll get a fine pot of broth.' And the words had no sooner been uttered than the other six madmen shouted in a voice of delight, 'Just the thing; and, seizing the doctor, went in the very act of putting him into one of the large boilers of scalding water when the doctor had the presence of mind to say, but not a second too soon:

"'Capital broth!' But it would taste better if I took my clothes off."

"The madmen, with a yell of delight, said 'Yes,' and the doctor asked them to wait a moment while he went and took his clothes off. But as soon as he got out of the kitchen he turned the key in the door and ordered the keeper to see to the lunatics being put under restraint.

"The doctor's presence of mind saved him, it is true, from a terrible death, but he died shortly after raving mad. The experience had destroyed his reason."

Origin of the Postal Card. In 1890, while Professor Emanuel Hermann of Vienna was seeking a vast amount of information by correspondence for his notable book, "The Guide to the Study of National Economy," the thought occurred to him that any advantages would result from the adoption of a means of correspondence cheaper than the sealed letter. On Jan. 23 he went before the Austrian post director with his idea, an open stamped card, and his suggestion was almost immediately adopted. Within a month the Austrian postal authorities printed and sold 1,000,000 postal cards and thus established this indispensable means of communication.

An Unconscious Toast.

Lord Clyde one day after dinner asked a chaplain to one of the regiments in India for a toast, who, after considering some time, at length exclaimed, with great simplicity:

"Alas and alack a day! What can I give?"

"Nothing better," replied his lordship. "Come, gentlemen; we'll give a bumper to the parson's toast, 'Alas and alack a day!'"

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling how to get it. Write to the Home of Swamp-Root, 381 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y., for the name of the nearest dealer. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.
