Carolene L. Hynson, surviving Executrix of Richard Hynson, deceased, versus
Joel C. Slaughter, Mary Slaughter

In The Circuit Court for Kent County in Equity. No. 1662.

THE OBJECT of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain mortgaged property in Kent county, in the State of Maryland, which was on the 16th day of February, in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-six mortgaged by the defendant, Joel C. Slaughter and Mary Slaughter, his wife, to Richard Hynson, since deceased, of whom the complainant is the surviving executrix.

The bill states that on or about the 16th day of February in the year 1886, the said Joel C. Slaughter and wife conveyed certain real estate which is described in the mortgage of conveyance and referred to in the bill, unto the said Richard Hynson in his life time, to secure the payment of the sum of one thousand dollars with interest thereon from the 30th day of January, in the year 1886, which was then due and owing from the said Joel C. Slaughter and Mary Slaughter his wife, to the said Richard Hynson, in one year from the date thereof.

That said Richard Hynson departed this life about the month of October in the year 1889, leaving a last will and testament in which he appointed the complainant and his son, Richard D. Hynson, the executors, who have proved the same and obtained letters testamentary thereon:

That the said Richard D. Hynson has since died leaving the complainant sole executrix of said last will and testament of the said Richard Hynson.

That the legal estate in said mortgaged premises (which with all other real and personal estate of the said Richard Hynson was devised by said last will and testament to your complainant, Carolene L. Hynson, who is the widow of the said Richard Hynson) is nevertheless charged with and liable to be sold for the payment of the aforesaid debt and interest; and the said Joel C. Slaughter and Mary Slaughter both reside out of the State of Maryland.

It is thereupon ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County In Equity this 1st day of May, 1908, that the complainant by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Kent county, once in each of four successive weeks before the 1st day or June, 1908, giving notice to the said non-resident defendants of the object and substance of this bill, and warn them to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 18th day of June next to answer the premises and show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.

THE SUMMER VACATION GUIDE.

The summer vacation is the bright spot in the dull routine of the year's work. It breaks the monotony of the daily round, and cheers and invigorates for the strenuous life ahead.

America abounds with delightful summer resorts in valley, on mountain, and beside the sea. The Atlantic Coast line from Labrador to Cape Hatteras contains the greatest number of resorts devoted entirely to the pursuit of pleasure and health in the world.

One may purchase from Pennsylvania Railroad Ticket Agents, excursion tickets to over eight hundred of these resorts, covering all the desirable places, from the rock-bound bays of Newfoundland to the gentle, sandy slopes of the Virginia beaches; from the White Mountains of New Hampshire to the Cumberland Mountains of Tennessee; in the wilds of Canada, along the shores of the St. Lawrence and the Great Lakes.

The famous seacoast resorts of New Jersey—Atlantic City, Cape May, Wildwood, Ocean City, Sea Isle City, Asbury Park, Long Branch, Spring Lake, Seaside Park, Beach Haven and others, so well known that description is superfluous—are among the most popular and the most easily accessible resorts in the country.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Summer Excursion Book, to be obtained of Ticket Agents at ten cents a copy, or of the General Passenger Agent, Philadelphia, by mail postpaid for 25 cents, describes them all and gives the rates and stop-over privileges allowed on tickets.

A CARD OF APPRECIATION.

In retiring from business, which my failing sight compels, I wish to return my grateful thanks to the many friends and patrons who have stood by me so faithfully and some of them by my father before me. It is with much feeling and great regret that I have faced the inevitable and given up the business I have been engaged in so long, and in which I have achieved a reputation that any one may well envy.

Again thanking all my friends, I desire to recommend my successor, MR. CHARLES L. DODD, to their liberal patronage, feeling sure of his ability to conduct the business in the most acceptible manner.

Respectfully,
JOHN N. DODD.

ON THE DIAMOND.

The P. O. S. of A. Baseball Team was defeated by Rock Hall on the latter's grounds last Saturday, by the score of 4 to 3. The features of the game were the pitching of Dunbracco for P. O. S. of A. and the batting of Shallcross for Rock Hall. Batteries, P. O. S. of A.—Dunbracco and Westcott; Rock Hall—Wirts and Engle. Manager J. Frank Wheatley says his "boys" did well against men.

Worton's team came to town Saturday afternoon and crossed bats with Washington College second team and were beaten in a hotly contested game by the score of 9 to 8.

Western Maryland College defeated Washington College at Westminister Saturday by 7 to 2. Washington College started out well, making two runs on Wilson's two-bagger and White's home run. In the third inning, on White's error and Crew's wild throw Western Maryland tied the score. In the seventh inning, by some hard hitting, coupled with several bad errors, four runs were added to W. M. C.'s list. Johns pitched well for W. C., striking out 13 men. Hawks struck out seven.

Chestertown High School added another scalp to their belt by defeating the Kennedyville school team Saturday afternoon in a well-played game, on the home grounds, by a score of 5 to 3. The pitching of Jarman and Lee and the batting of Wilmer were the features of the game. The C. H. S. boys are putting up a fine game this season, having lost but one out of the five played.

St. John's will be the next to contest with W. C. for the inter-collegiate championship. They will visit W. C. this Saturday afternoon.

A TREAT IN STORE.

It is not very often that the people around the county who are interested in music have an opportunity of spending an evening near at home listening to a fine musical program, if one desires such an entertainment considerable expense is incurred to travel to one of the larger cities to find such a pleasure. The management of the Washington College Choral society realizing this has arranged its program for the annual concert June 5th, in William Smith Hall, so that the music loving public will enjoy some of the artists who have been heard at the select concerts in the leading cities of the country.

Besides the Choral Society of forty voices, Mrs. Cain has surrounded herself with soloists where reputation alone would fill any concert hall, and it certainly is quite an honor to have such artists with us, to follow out the original idea of the Choral Society; namely, to advance and encourage the art of music in Washington College and Chestertown.

In making up a program for a concert there is danger of falling into one of two extremes, selecting music which it is difficult for those who are not trained in musical art to enjoy, or else choosing that which is too light and trashy to appeal to cultured taste. There is a happy medium which should be aimed for in all entertainments of this kind and for this happy medium Mrs. Cain with her well trained choruses and the soloists who are to be here have striven.

There is hardly any necessity of going into details as to the proficieny as a violinist of Prof. J. C. Van Holstyn of the Poabody Conservatory of Baltimore. He is well known throughout Maryland and has appeared at many concerts elsewhere. There is no doubt that a large audience from the county will take advantage of hearing a man that is so well known musically.

Miss Vicincia da Martinez a soprano of New York City will no doubt delight the audience with her selections. Miss da Martinez has had the advantage of studying under the best masters for the past seven years in the Metropolis, and has appeared not only in many private affairs but also in connection with some of the finest concerts given in the great city.

Another pleasing feature of the program should be the appearance of Miss Mary Rogers whose contralto voice and fondness for music is well known and her many friends will rejoice in the prospect of hearing her at this concert. Miss Rogers is enthusiastic over the idea of a choral society in town and realizing the necessity of such an organization is assisting Mrs. Cain in every way to make it a permanent fixture.

The organization is fortunate in possessing two such talented young ladies as Miss Mary Ahern and Miss Alma Ethel H. Gray of the college. Miss Ahern has a very pleasing soprano voice and has been heard on one or two occasions in the College Auditorium. Miss Gray who will be the accompanist has been assisting the Society and has added a great deal by her efforts toward making the concert a great success.

Miss Eva Hurlock another soprano soloist needs no introduction to the local followers of music for her friends here are legion and she is sure to repeat the success that has met her on other occasions.

As it is expected that there will be a large attendance the management has placed the tickets with the members of the Society and at Stam's Drug Store. These tickets can be exchanged for reserved seats Monday morning, June 1st at Stam's. The prices for tickets are fifty and seventy-five cents.

MR. BRYAN'S INCOME.

Devotes More Time To Public Work Than To Private Gain.

A New York reporter suggested to Mr. Bryan that the latter's income being in the neighborhood of $50,000 a year he might be exposing himself to the charge by opponents that he was no longer representative of the laboring classes, but a full-fledged plutocrat. To this Mr. Bryan replied:

"My income is derived mainly from my lecturing, with some addition from articles written for other publications and something from my own paper, but the amount has been very much exaggerated. I make more speeches for nothing than for pay, and devote more time to public work than private gain. The income that I have received has come from the people who attend my lectures and who read what I write, and, therefore, my obligation is to the whole people, rather than to any special class.

"The best test of the effect of my income is to be found in the things that I advocate. My views have not changed upon public questions. I am contending for the same thing now that I did then, and I think no one will deny that I could make more by siding with the corporate interests that I have opposed than I have made out of lecturing.

"My political prominence has been an advantage in that it has given me a larger reading circle and a larger audience, but I could have used the prominence in other ways to greater pecuniary advantages. For instance, I was offered $25,000 a year as counsel for a corporation, but it would have taken me out of the political field. By lecturing and writing I can make what I need in half the time and I have the rest for public work.

"The question is not whether I have made more than I did before I was nominated, but whether I have made it in a legitimate way, and I think no one will deny that my income has been derived from a legitimate source."

Among the questions which Mr. Bryan did not answer was this one, put by a reporter:

"Do you expect to be nominated for the Presidency?"

"Well, this is refreshing," said Mr. Bryan. "I presume you have read Caeser, and will remember that the book reads: "All Gaul is divided into three parts.' If Julius Caesar had known you before he wrote that book, he probably would have struck out two of the parts."

OBITUARY.

Miss Lydia Hickman, daughter of Alexander Hickman, at Betterton, died Friday May 8th, of consumption, aged 47 years. For many years she was a member of union M. E. Church, Worton. Funeral services were conducted on Tuesday afternoon at the home of her father at 2.30, by Rev. E. H. Collins interment in Still Pond cemetery. The active pall-bearers were her five brothers: William, Lemuel, James A., John F., Walter H. and son-in-law Samuel Brice. Undertaker W. H. Krusen had charge of funeral arrangements.

So, the golden fields are smiling,
Great the harvest, few the workers,
And the Lord hath need of thee,
Go and work, the time is waining.
Let thy earnest heart reply
To the call so oft repeated,
"Blessed master, here am I."
Go and lift the heavenly burden,
She has suffered long to bear;
Go, and kneel down beside her,
Blend thy path with her prayer
That thy soul with Him might live,
Now the service he demandeth,
Can thy heart refuse to give? SISTER L. B.

Mob Breaks Up a Circus.—The performance of the Queen and Crescent Circus, at Seaford Del., Tuesday evening, ended in a general fight between the showmen and a mob of drunken white men and negroes. Several of the showmen were badly beaten, and the head of one white man, Charlie Jones, of Seaford, was cut open by a blackjack. The trouble started when Jones, it is alleged demanded money from Mme Levere, the bareback rider, for whiskey, which she had asked him to buy for her, and which she refused to pay for. She was thrown from her horses in the excitement and trampled on. The mob ran into the ring and the showmen fled. The snake charmer threw his snakes in the face of the crowd and jumped in front of a train. Two men pulled him back just in time to save him from death. The Town Council was in session at the time and the showmen made a rush for the Council room, asking for protection. The streets were paraded until after midnight by the mob, and not until early Wednesday morning was order restored.
