THE strawboard mill, near Chestertown, has an American flag waving from a flagstaff erected on the main building by employees. Mr. Clift says the flour mill will soon have one, also.

THE festival held on the Park Friday evening by the Volunteer Fire Association was a splendid affair, clearing nearly $50. The decorations were "eye-openers" to the ladies while as waiters the firemen were experts. The Chestertown Band furnished excellent music and are improving weekly.

A PRETTY ROMANCE will be culminated this month, when Miss Elizabeth S. Sutton, daughter of Mrs. S. E. Sutton, of Baltimore, and formerly of Worton, will become the bride of Daniel Barlow Miner, Rutgers 1906, of Catskill, N. Y. The nuptials is the outcome of a meeting at the Wells Memorial Hospital, when Mr. Miner's friend, Royal A. Stout, was there for treatment. Mr. Miner called to see his friend and incidentally became acquainted with Miss Sutton, who was one of the head nurses. The friendship ripened into love and the wedding will be the outcome.

FARMING NOTES.—Prof. Symons, of the M. A. C., has been in Kent this week making examinations as to results of scale remedies and has made some important discoveries.

A long table was spread on the lawn facing Lankford's Bay about which were gathered his children, 19 grand-children and a few personal friends. The menu served to the Queen's taste included soft emuls, fried rock, ham, oysters, scalads, pies, rolls, and cake. Among those who partook of the feast were: Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Strong, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Crouch, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Massey, Messrs. Wm. E. Deford, Walter and John Hadaway, Fred. G. Lullton, Miss Hattie Strong and others. A fine Morris chair was presented Capt. Crouch by his children and he was completely surprised. May this popular couple live to enjoy many more years of good health and prosperity.

A Hair Dressing

Nearly every one likes a fine hair dressing. Something to make the hair more manageable; to keep it from being too rough, or from splitting at the ends. Something, too, that will feed the hair at the same time, a regular hair-food. Well-fed hair will be strong—and will remain where it belongs—on the head, not on the comb!

The best kind of a testimonial "made for over sixty years."
